HON. MR. HUGHES OFF TO THE COAST

Minister to See Where Dr. Halls Are Needed Most in the West

Ottawa, July 21.—Hon. Col. Hughes, minister of militia, accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and the Misses Hughes, left tonight on a four weeks' trip to the Pacific coast. Col. Hughes will inspect the various militia properties in the west and will ascertain the needs of the western provinces in regard to militia organization, the erection of drill halls, etc. He expects to be back in Ottawa about the middle of August and will sail on the 21st with a half dozen Canadian officers to attend the British army manoeuvres in September. He will also spend a few days watching the German and French manoeuvres before returning to Canada about the end of September.

Another example to officers of the militia who are not wise enough to control their taste for liquor while on duty has been given by the minister of militia, who has summarily dismissed an officer who was drunk while in charge of men returning from the Niagara camp. The officer in question belongs to one of the regiments of the Toronto military district and the case against him left him no excuse for disregarding the minister's orders in regard to the use of liquor.

CUT HER SHORT.
 Five year old Harold's sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him. Generally her requests for favors, and the running of errands around the house, were prefaced by what she considered subtle flattery. "Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy and you know I love you." But Harold cut her short. "Well, Ethel," he said earnestly, "if it's up stairs, I won't go!"

Nothing definite is yet known concerning the matter.

The discount period in the payment of Moncton city taxes ended Saturday and the total during that time received was $88,000. On Saturday more than $40,000 was taken in.

Efforts are now being made by the government of Saskatchewan, through the labor bureau, to secure 25,000 hands who, it is expected, will be needed for the harvesting of the wheat crop.

The post office at Chatham is to be enlarged and it is thought possible that an addition of some thirty feet long and three stories high will be built adjoining the present structure.

MORNING LOCALS

The annual picnic of the Mission Church St. John Baptist was held at Westfield on Saturday and was enjoyed by a large number.

Miss Evelyn Roberts, nurse in training at Victoria Memorial Hospital, Toronto, underwent an emergency operation there for appendicitis on Friday last. Her friends in this city will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering. Miss Roberts is a daughter of L. H. Roberts, of the post office staff in St. John.

The services in Centenary church yesterday were conducted by Rev. H. R. Thomas in the morning and Rev. G. F. Camp in the evening. Rev. Dr. Flanders will go to Sussex to take the pastorate there this week and Rev. Mr. Dawson will likely begin his pastorate in Centenary on next Sunday.

St. Andrew's had a scene tonight when the gas house attached to Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's summer house, caught fire and the quiet air was rent with thunderous explosions, as one after another of the reports caught fire. The gas house was destroyed.

Ottawa, July 21.—Hon. William Patterson, examiner of customs, who had a recurrence of his heart trouble at the end of the week, is fast recovering.

Jackson, Mich., July 20.—Michigan progressives divorced themselves absolutely from the Republican party in their state convention here today. By almost unanimous vote the delegates went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, both state and national, in the field.

A few instructed delegates voted against the move in order to record the sentiment of their home counties, but explained to the convention that they personally were for separation from the old party.

GENUINE RELIC OF TURPIN

Dick Turpin—simultaneously butcher's apprentice, cattle lifter, smuggler, house-breaker, highwayman, and horse thief—the hero of our childhood, has been proved undoubted owner of the pistol just discovered by workmen in the ceiling of the Reindeer Inn at Banbury.

"The pistol is undoubtedly of the date 1735," said the manager of Messrs. Westley Richards & Co., Ltd., gun-makers, of New Bond street, where the pistol is now on view, to an Express representative.

"You see that it is a double-barrelled horse pistol with flint locks, smooth-bore barrels, 16 gauge, and of the exact pattern used during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries."

We have had the assurance of an expert engraver that the inscription on the barrel—"Presented to Dick Turpin at the White Bear Inn, Drury Lane, 1735"—is also of that period. The workmanship throughout is very fine. The handle is of English walnut. The flash holes are inlaid with gold, and the hand round the breech end of each barrel is gold. It probably cost about £20 originally.

"The pistol is marked in four places in small gold inlaid panels," Baker, London, who was the predecessor of the well-known Ezekiel Baker, pistol maker to the Prince of Wales.

"The mystery of how it came to be found in the Reindeer Inn may be explained by the fact that history tells us of an occasion when Turpin stayed at the Inn and was shot through the hand there."

"Of course the question of ownership has arisen. Since the pistol was discovered on the upper side of the plaster ceiling above the historical Globe Room at the back of the Reindeer Inn at Banbury, chains have been put in by Messrs. Lory Gon, who have purchased the ceiling, by the lessee of the property as occupier, and the pistol is marked in four places in small gold inlaid panels."

THAT BEATS HER

The Lady:—"But why should I buy an egg-baster?"
 Pedlar:—"Well, the lady next door thought you might return here if you did!"

The Lady:—"Is it murder to kill a pig?"
 Butcher:—"No, my son."

Billy:—"Then, what's the difference?"
 Butcher:—"One is assaulting with intent to kill, and the other is killing with intent to sell."

THE DIFFERENCE

Miss Antiques:—"I hope, driver, you will not run away with me!"
 Cabby:—"Bless yer, no mum! I've got a wife and six young 'uns at home already."

NO DANGER

Considerations of economy have induced the German postal authorities to approve a plan by which 8000 girls and women will gradually supplant men on the staffs of the different branches of the administration. The innovation will especially affect the smaller postoffices ranked in the third class. In these 3503 places in the lower grades hitherto filled by men are destined to be gradually occupied by women, at an average salary of $120 annually.
