THE TEN LOST TRIBES. St. Matthew's church was filled to utmost capacity last evening. The church study was also in use to seat part of the large congregation present. The sermon: "Are the British the Ten Lost Tribes?" was based on Jer. 38:7.

The speaker pointed out that the election of the people from the land took place in two stages. The covenants made to Abraham and his seed were quoted and their meaning in relation to the subject were set forth. The history of the Jew was traced in detail down to the present day.

The distinction between Israel and Judah was clearly set forth. The House of Israel never returned to their land. The speaker said in relation to the subject were set forth. Fifteen names were named and commented upon to show how we are to recognize the lost Israel.

The glorious triumphs of the British empire, past and present, were set forth, and the speaker said Britain was marked out by a divine providence with a special mission to the other nations.
