SECOND EDITION.

"A LONG PULL--A STRONG PULL--AND A PULL ALTOGETHER."

America complained that it was taxed, and oppressively taxed; without having a voice in the imposition of the taxes; that it was compelled to obey laws in the framing of which it had no share whatever; that it was in fact so shackled and oppressed, that it had no appeal but to force to assert its independence. It did appeal, and justice being on its side, appealed successfully.---Mr. Secretary Stanley's reply to Mr. O'Connell, House of Commons, Feb. 1833.

The strength of the People is nothing without Union, and Union is nothing without Confidence and Discipline.---Thomas Attwood.

If there had been no display of physical force, or public opinion, I very well know that there would have been no reform bill.---Mr. Hume's speech at Manchester.---Times, Nov. 3. 1833.

Hail to that land! whatever land it be,
Which, struggling hard, is panting to be free.

Goldsmith.

I've noticed on our laird's court-day,
An' mony a time my heart's been wae,
Poor tenant bodies, scant o' cash,
Flow they maun thole a factor's snash;
He'll stamp an' threaten, curse and swear,
He'll apprehend them, poid their gear;
While they maun stan', wi' aspect humble,
An' hear it a', an' fear an' tremble.

Burns.

Commerce has set the mark of selfishness,
The signet of its all enslaving power
Upon a shining ore, and called it gold:
Before whose image bow the vulgar great,
The vainly rich, the miserable proud,
The mob of peasants, nobles, priests, & kings,
And with blind feelings reverence the power
That grinds them to the dust of misery.
But in the temple of their hireling hearts
Gold is a living god and rules in scorn
All earthly things but virtue.

Shelley.

The loss of so important a limb as her North American Provinces would inflict a heavy wound upon the reputation of England and the European estimate of her power. She would suffer; but on them the separation would fall lightly. They would soon manifest their self-sufficing powers for repelling aggression, and for exercising all the functions of an independent state.---Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. Review of Mr. McGregor's British America.
