

is much greater than can be supplied. The attention of young men is invited to these facts, as well as to the advantages which the School offers in opening the way to higher literary and professional education.

The authorities of the School feel that its usefulness might be increased, could the great facilities and ample means of training which it affords, be more generally made known to young persons desirous of becoming teachers, and to their parents and guardians. It is most desirable that those who purpose to devote themselves to the important profession of teaching should be as perfectly trained as possible; and that to this end they should avail themselves of the advantages so liberally provided by Government in the Provincial Normal School.

The Twelfth session of the school will commence on the second of September, 1868, and will extend to the first of July, 1869.

The complete course of Study extends over three years, and the Students are graded as follows :—

1. Elementary School Class.—Studying for the Elementary School Diploma.
2. Model School Class.—Studying for the Model School Diploma.
3. Academy Class.—Studying for the Academy Diploma.

1. Conditions of Admission.

Candidates for admission into the Junior Class will be required to pass an examination in Reading, Writing, the Elements of Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography. Admission into each of the higher classes requires a knowledge of the subjects of the previous one.

All Students must produce certificates of good moral character from the clergyman or minister of religion under whose charge they have last been, and also testimony that they have attained the age of sixteen years. They will also be required to sign a pledge that they purpose to teach for three years in some public school in Lower Canada.

2. Privileges of Students.

On complying with the above conditions, all students will be recognized as Teachers in Training; and as such will be entitled to free tuition with the use of text books, and to bursaries in aid of their board, not exceeding $36.00 per annum in the case of those in
