Former Premier Speaks Plainly at Meeting of Liberals in London.

If They Fail in Their Duty a New Party May Be Formed.

London, July 19.—Speaking at the City Liberal Club this afternoon, Lord Rosebory remarked that his recent mani-festo, in which he said the Liberal party could not exist under the present conditions, had been followed by such an exrdinary hullabaloo that he felt convinced he had expressed in this manifesto the exact truth in respect to the situation and that not one of his allegaions had been disproved or challenged The speaker said he wrote the manifesto because, after the meetings in Queen's hall and at the Reform Club, unless some clear repudiation of the statement regarding the war was made it was im-possible for the Liberal party to coninue to exist as a sound force, appealing to the highest sympathies of the

On the question of the war, his lordship said, his starting point was that in spite of the Jameson raid and in spite of the South African committee, the Boers had invaded the dominions of the late Queen, and from that moment, although he had criticized the methods of founded. the government, yet on the main issue to carry the war to a triumphant close, to carry the war to a triumphant close, they would have his warmest support. The failing of the government should be the opportunity for the opposition, If the Liberal party would not under-take the task another party would be created for the purpose. Lord Rosebery said, however, that he did not despair of seeing the Liberal party purged of all anti-national elements; that the country was ripe for a domestic programme, and that he believed the revolutionized Lib-erals would yet breathe new life into the dry bones of the public office.

As to the statement that he would not voluntarily return to the political arena, Lord Rosebery explained that has been his attitude since his resignation. His Lordship concluded by saying that at Lordship concluded by saying that at present he must proceed along and plough his furrow alone; but that before he got to the end of his furrow it was possible he might find himself not alone. Lord Rosebery said the vote of confi-dence in Sir Henry Campbeli-Banner-man, the Liberal leader, passed at the Reform Club meeting, was, in the Earl of Beaconsfield's phrase, "organized hypocrisy," and that his reason for dis-turbing the Olympian repose created by
