MOUNTED RIFLES.
HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 24.—The officers and men of the Canadian Mounted Rifles are very indignant at stories of a mutiny and of trouble at the concentration camp. Adjutant Church told your correspondent that all these stories are the worst kind of rubbish, without one word of truth in them. Since the concentration began, 26 men have been discharged because it was found they would be unfit for service in South Africa, but as to trouble on account of this or any other reason there is no such thing. Col. Evans, who is in command of the rifles, says that they are the best body of men whom he ever had any experience with, and he is sure that the 900 men he is taking to South Africa will be a thorough, well disciplined corps, a credit to Canada. It is to make sure of this that a few men have been discharged.

Squadrons A, B and C had a mounted parade through the streets today, making a splendid appearance. No 19 Field Hospital Company also had a parade. These fellows will sail for South Africa on Tuesday by the transport Victoria.

It is said by officers and men that the saddlery issued to the Mounted Rifles is poor in every particular, that it is ill-fitting and of inferior workmanship, and that it can never be used on active service in South Africa. The opinion is expressed that the horses will speedily be ruined if its use is continued in the field, that one week of it will be enough to condemn it. Not particularly good in design, bad in execution, totally unfit for continued use, such is the way the saddlery is spoken of by those who know what will be required on the South African field. A commissioner has been appointed to enquire into the quality of the saddlery, and if it should prove that these stories are true the "dog blench" sensation of the first contingent will be equaled. Some people here in Nova Scotia succeeded in killing the goose that laid the gold-den egg in the matter of supplies for the contingent. The big rake off and the high prices charged were too much for the British government, and everything required in outfitting the present transports for the Canadian Mounted Rifles, that could be sent out, has been forwarded by the imperial government from England.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—T. P. O'Connor (Irish nationalist) made a strong, fighting speech in the house of commons today in support of John Redmond's amendment of yesterday to the address in reply to the speech from the throne at the opening of parliament. He was frequently cheered. Mr. O'Connor made a special point of the recent reception of the Irish delegates in the United States by President Roosevelt, who, he said, was in thorough sympathy with the Irish movement, and by the Canadian premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who, he added, held the same views. The Right Hon. J. A. Atkinson, attorney general for Ireland, admitted, in the course of a defence of the government, that there was no serious crime in Ireland and that the violent crimes there had never been at a lower ebb, he said, but intimidation and conspiracy necessitated the enforcing of the coercion act, because the law had been taught that intimidation and conspiracy were not crimes.

John Morley (liberal) asserted that he would vote for any motion carrying a proposal to confer upon the Irish people the same right to govern themselves as Great Britain had given her colonies.

John Redmond's amendment was rejected by a vote of 237 to 134.

SPORTING NEWS.

HOCKEY.

High School, 3: Centenary, 1.
The second game in the church and school league was played in Queen's rink last night between teams from Centenary Church and the High School, the latter winning by a score of 3 to 1. C. T. Inches acted as referee. The new official goal nets were used for the first time and gave splendid satisfaction.

THE RING.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 24.—Geo. Dixon, the veteran colored pugilist, went down and out tonight under a rain of body blows from Eddie Lenny. Lenny had the better of the argument throughout. In the ninth round Lenny landed several hard blows. The men came to a clinch near the ropes and wrestled to the centre of the ring. Dixon fell to the floor, striking his head and laying open his cheek. He was advised by his seconds to take the count, and the decision was given to Lenny. Dixon was very groggy. The bout was scheduled at twenty rounds.

SKATING.

Frank Curran and Vincent Phillips will try conclusions at the Victoria rink tonight for the half-mile championship for thirteen-year-olds. Both boys have lots of friends who are confident of the success of their favorite.

Prof. Robertson will lecture in the High School building next Monday night, on Manual Training as a Part of Education. Judge Trueman will fill the chair.

St. John County District Division, S. of T., will visit Scarlet Banner Lodge, I. O. G. T., at Piarinco this evening. Teams will leave the Market building at six o'clock local, sharp.

Rev. Geo. Steel will address a gospel temperance meeting in Alexandra Temple of Honor Hall Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Music will be provided by the quartette of Exmouth street Methodist church.

Bernard Theodore, the many-tongued interpreter for the C. P. R., returned last night from a week's visit to friends in New York. Business in the immigration sheds has been rather slack since his departure, but he has returned in time to help with the big contingent expected today in the Garth Castle.

Two carloads of horses for the Marquette, which is to take the third cargo out to Cape Town, have reached Carleton. Capt. Chaplin came down from Montreal to look after the shipment. It is understood that everything has been so satisfactory in the other shipments that further lots will be forwarded from St. John during the summer months.

NOW SAYS $25 IS NOT ENOUGH.

Judge Dunne Changes His Views as to the Amount of Cash Necessary For Marriage.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Judge Dunne, who recently decided that $25 was amply sufficient capital on which to marry, has reversed himself. He ordered the release of Louis Leary, whom he had committed to jail for non-support of his wife, Ida.

During the trial which resulted in Leary's commitment, the prisoner tried to exculpate himself on the ground that at the time of the marriage he only had a capital of $75. It was in reply to this, the judge said:

"Why, even $25 is sufficient capital in this age of installment stores to marry if love and confidence prompts the union."

The judge's comment led to a discussion of this question, and hundreds of letters came pouring in, scarcely one of which endorsed the judge's opinion. Judges, lawyers, society women, actresses, men and women from nearly every walk of life, contributed to the symposium, and the consensus was that $25 as a capital and without an additional source of income would be ridiculously inadequate for so important a venture as matrimony.

It is said that the unanimity of so many opposing him wrought the change in the judge's view, resulting in Leary's discharge from imprisonment.

SUGGESTION OF SHAMBLIES.
N. Y. Herald.)

A Sunday school superintendent in a California town was making a fervid prayer a few Sundays ago, and asked divine blessing upon each and every enterprise in which the school was interested. He closed his petition to the throne of grace in the following words:

"And now, O Lord, bless the lambs of this fold and make them meet for the kingdom of heaven." Amen.

To cure a Headache in ten minutes use KUMFORT Headache Powders.

MONTREAL, Jan. 24.—The Canada Paint Co. is considering a proposal to establish a factory for the manufacture of white and red lead and litharge from lead mined in British Columbia. The decision of the Canadian Pacific railway to establish a lead refinery has brought the matter to a head. Thousands of tons of lead are imported, chiefly from Germany, some of it manufactured from lead ore actually mined in British Columbia.

Patrick Foley was found guilty today of stealing a horse blanket and sentenced to two months in jail. The sentence was remarkable merely from its being the fifty-first conviction recorded against him. His longest term was seven years in the penitentiary.

EXTRAORDINARY STATE OF BRITISH POLITICS.

(Fortnightly Review.)

Lord Rosebery has completed for his part the work which he has pursued on parallel lines with Mr. Chamberlain of destroying every distinction of principle in English political life. Between them they have thrown into the melting pot the whole metal of all that was definite and different in party convictions. Toryism, as it knew itself before the arch-radical and detested demagog of the last days became "the spokesman of our party" upon domestic questions, is as dead as Lord Eldon.

Lord Rosebery has returned to public life to urge a unionist policy upon the liberal party with the object of displacing a unionist government—as the colonial secretary forced radical measures upon conservative ministers in order to prevent a radical government.

The imperial and social gospels of Chamberlain and Birmingham are mere variants of one another. When Lord Rosebery speaks he gives finer eloquence and deeper vision to the colonial secretary's main principles. When Mr. Chamberlain addresses the nation upon the work of the future he brings the sense of a closer grasp and a more practical energy to the advocacy of the ex-premier's very ideas. In the vital characteristics of the statesmanship to which they both aspire they are as much alike as a pair of gloves,
