THE INVICTUS
A shoe for well-dressed men.
Cute enough to insure a perfect sale, but as low as a shoe of this character can be sold. Seen beside a cheaper shoe, the difference is unmistakable.
Men who want appearance, satisfying wear, and good comfort, should wear the Invictus Shoe.

LONDON MARKETS.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The tone on the stock exchange generally was more hopeful, having about concluded that the six per cent discount rate of the Bank of England would prove effective in stemming the outflow of gold. American securities had an exciting morning. Saturday's break in Wall street caused a heavy liquidation here and there were many sales from the continent. At the opening values were over a point below Saturday, but good support was soon forthcoming and there was quite a boom at noon, prices being rushed up two points from the lowest quotations, and the whole list practically recovered the parity loss. Some good American buying orders helped the recovery which was also aided by the report that the Bank of France was prepared to assist the Bank of England to the extent of thirty or forty million dollars in gold.

THE SITUATION IN PARIS.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The leading French financiers are keenly watching the monetary situation abroad. The position of Paris is fairly good and the pre-valing impression is that the Bank of France will not hurt French interests by raising its discount rate. While it is considered possible that the Bank of France might make a moderate loan of gold to the Bank of England, to relieve the conditions there, it would, it is asserted, resist withdrawal of gold from America. A prominent international banker expressed the opinion to the Associated Press today that the United States would not get much more gold here, as the bank would block any attempts in that direction, not by raising the discount rate, but by exercising its option to pay in silver. He said he expressed the view of the French bankers when he voiced the opinion that the United States had enough funds for the legitimate requirements of trade and that there was no reason why Europe should help to finance the speculative movement in New York.

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Vigorous recovery from Saturday's slump in prices marked the opening at the stock exchange. The strength of the London market helped to this result and rumors from abroad pointed to a large loan in gold by the Bank of France to the Bank of England. The strongest rallies were in stocks, which suffered most in Saturday's break. Sales of 2,500 shares of Union Pacific were made at 182 and 182 1/2, compared with 181 on Saturday. Anaconda rose 2 1/2; Great Northern, 3/4; Reading, 1/2; Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific, 1 3/4; E. and O. St. Paul, Canadian Pacific, Pennsylvania, Amalgamated Copper and Sugar, 1 1/4 to 1 1/2; L. and N. Erie, Brooklyn Transit, Smelting and Refining, Securities about a point.

George Dugmore, of the Yar-

Arrest.

North End Fighters on Remand—Negroes are Falling into the Ways of White Men

The police court sheet this morning had the names of nine prisoners on it, and when these were disposed of three colored men, Wm. Burns, Fred. Nixon and George Alberts, who were remanded Saturday morning, were also dealt with.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burns testified that they saw Nixon flourishing a knife and that to save being cut Wm.
Burns struck Nixon.
The magistrate said that the three colored prisoners were acting just like rowdy white fellows, who come up town, go into bars, then adjourn to Sheffield street and finish up with a fight. They would, therefore, have to take the same medicine as the whites, viz., a $20 fine or two months in jail with hard labor, and the labor is to be as hard as they can get, just the same labor as the white blackguards.
In the bunch of prisoners arrested Saturday, Wm. Oram, drunk on Mill St., said he was not drunk, but sick and weak, and if sent into jail it would fix him. Policeman Howell said that Oram was very drunk when arrested. He was sent into jail for 20 days in default of paying $8.
Annie Beckwith was fined $8 or two months for being drunk on McKinnon street, and Frank Knowlin the same for a like offence on Harrison street.
James Lowell, John McBurnie and Richard Gleason forfeited deposits of $3 each for drunkenness.
The arrests made on Saturday were Wm. O'Hara for fighting with Cecil Scott on Portland street. The arrest was made by policeman Hamm, who found both men lying on the gutter.
O'Hara apparently got the worst of the scrap, for his nose was broken.
O'Hara this morning forfeited a deposit of $20, and Scott, who did not wait to be arrested on Sunday walked into court and pleaded not guilty to fighting. He testified that O'Hara had been drinking and wanted to fight in the afternoon. In the evening O'Hara invited him into an alley off Simonds street and struck him. He then followed witness to Portland street and started the fight again.
The magistrate told Scott that he should have kept clear of a man who was intoxicated.
George Dugmore was charged with stealing $15 from Charles Wilkins and $5 from James McClellan on board the steamer Yarmouth Saturday night.
When the men found Dugmore going through their clothing he ran on shore and escaped, but was arrested last evening on Water street, near the Salvation Army home, and was identified by one of the men from whom he was supposed to have stolen. He pleaded not guilty this morning.
Charles Wilkins, a fireman on the Yarmouth, gave evidence that Dug-more was a coal trimmer on board the ship. About three o'clock yesterday morning witness was awakened by Dugmore who had his hand inside the bosom of witness' shirt. A wallet with about $12 in it was taken. Witness then asked for his wallet and witness said he had done nothing. Witness struck him and Dugmore ran away.
Witness also had missed a wallet with the number in the case $235.45, and a house engraved on the back of it.
He first missed the wallet at a Shelburne boarding house. The wallet was found on the prisoner by Policeman Lee, and identified by the witness.
Witness said five dollars of the money belonged to James McClellan. In answer to the prisoner's witness denied that he had sold the watch to him.
Wm. Murphy, night watchman on the Yarmouth, said he saw Wilkins about three o'clock Saturday morning searching on the deck of the steamer for a pocket book. Just about that time Dugmore came on board and pocket book on the dock, he stopped, picked it up, again said: "He will never see that again." He called to the man to stop, but he escaped in the darkness.
The case was adjourned until we o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

WEALTHY VIRGINIAN FOUND DEAD IN HIS HOME

Body of E. W. James Discovered in Vacant House—Death Due to Asphyxiation.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 21.—After having been missing for eleven days, E.
W. James, a member of clubs of Norfolk, Richmond, and Baltimore, and who is said to be worth nearly half a million dollars, was found dead in a room of the old James mansion here today. Death occurred over a week ago and was due to asphyxiation.
The police are investigating. No one has slept in the old mansion at 62 Fenchurch street, the heart of the old aristocratic section of Norfolk, for about ten years. A room on the main floor had been used by James for a decade as an office, while he was in Norfolk keeping his rental accounts. According to Joe Wright, a negro, who has lived in a house in the rear of the mansion for fifteen years, Mr. James always locked himself in whenever he visited the mansion.
Thursday, Oct. 11, Mr. James was last seen alive by Wright's wife. He came to the house that morning.
Today the negro made an investigation and discovered through a window the body of his employer in a sitting posture in a chair at his desk. The police found a gas jet in the room wide open. James was a bachelor with relatives in Washington, Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk, but his nearest kin, two sisters, died about ten years ago.
Whether the death was accidental has not yet been determined by the coroner's jury nor by the investigation of the police.

RUSHED TO STREET WITH HER CLOTHING IN FLAMES

Pittsburg Woman Charges That Her Husband Threw a Lighted Lamp at Her.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Screaming with pain and terror, with her clothing ablaze Mrs. John Doran rushed from her house into the streets in Wilkinsburg, near here, today, and after a policeman had extinguished the flames she was taken to a hospital in a critical condition, where she charged her husband with deliberately attempting to burn her alive. Doran is under arrest.
According to Mrs. Doran her husband had been drinking, and when he came home he began to abuse her. She said that Doran hurled a lighted lamp at her and then knocked her down.
Then, she declared, he seized a towel which had ignited from the broken lamp and deliberately set her clothing on fire. Her statements are substantiated by a thirteen-year-old daughter.

COMPANY FORMED TO BUILD MEXICAN RAILWAY

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—According to El Imparcial, a company has been organized under the laws of the State of Maine with a capital of $4,000,000 for the purpose of building a railroad from Mexico City to Merida, Yucatan. The line will be 1,500 miles long and will pass through Puebla, Oaxaca, Chiapas, Tabasco and Campeche. W. G. Scaver is president of the company, and W. S.
Carter and W. S. Allen are vice-presidents.

MISSED THEIR VICTIM.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—A mob was formed at Mapleton today to lynch Claude Fisher, who is said to have confessed criminal assault on Miss Minnie Baker, a school teacher.
Officers escaped with the prisoner to Ida Grove, where he was placed in jail. The mob dispersed.
Miss Baker was found unconscious last night in a thicket.

Much interest is being shown in the opening performance of the "Scarlet Mysteries" at the York Theatre commencing on Wednesday, as evidenced by the rapid booking of seats. These mysterious "strolling players" are only staying for a short season but during that period will change their programme nightly. The company consists of eight artists each of whom figures in some specialty either as a vocalist, instrumentalist, or comedian, one of the company appears as an "art-humorist" and tells funny stories illustrated by lightning drawings in chalk, he also paints a completed landscape or sea-scene in color in the record time of sixty seconds.
