Determined that Minister's island shall blossom as the rose, Sir William Van Horne, on the occasion of his recent visit to his summer home at St. Andrews last week, gave instructions that new flower beds should be laid out, the drive-ways about the island improved, and a number of other changes made. The new vinery, 176 feet in length, has been completed and is now being stocked with grape vines, peaches, pomegranates, nectarines, figs and other tropical fruits. When these vines begin to bear fruit. Sir William will be able to step inside his vnery and easly imagine timself in the sunny Couthland—Beacon.

A number of the young friends of Miss Eva Newcombe called at her residence on Saturday evening last and presented her with a handsome ring. After the presentation the young people danced until eleven o'clock, when refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was spent. Robert McGuire, of Elmsville, is in jail awaiting trial on a charge of perjury which was laid against him by Mr. J. Henry Dyer. Some months ago Dyer brought an action against McGuire for debt. During the progress of the trial, McGuire swore that he had found plaintiff in a compromising position in his home. Dyer dened the allegation on oath and when the debt trial was disposed of entered an action for perjury. McGuire verossed the position in his home. Dwyer denied the the U. S. immigration officers thrust him back and he was placed under arrest. Last Wednesday he underwent examination before Police Magistrate Richardson and was committed for trial. M. N. Power of Refusing Cases Seems to Lie in Hands of Young House Doctor From Whose Decision There is

No Appeal.

About 7 p. m. last night car No. 74 was derailed at the corper of Charlotte and Princess streets. Traffic was delayed for some time owing to the difficulty experienced in replacing the car.

In this week's issue of the Royal Gazette notice is given of the dissolution. The Commissioners are alike ineffective and Princess indicate that there is pressing need of reform in the methods used in admitting and excluding patients at the General Public Hospital. At present this power seems to be vested in a young house surgeon and appeals from his decisions made to the superintendent, the visiting physicians, and the commissioners are alike ineffective.

In this week's issue of the Royal Gazette notice is given of the dissolution of partnership of John F. Estabrook and Son. The business will be hereafter carried on by William G. Estabrooks under the old name.

We have been informed that one hundred and ten men are at work in the granite sheds and quarries, and total pay roll is $5,000 per month. From this we infer that all the orders were not secured by the "Seotch granite men."—St. George Greetings.

The Royal Gazette contains the resignations of John H. McFadzen as police magistrate of Shediac and the appointment of William A. Russell to that position, Alexander P. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Hipwell and family will be sorry to learn of their removal from Woodstock. They will leave the first of next week for St. John, where they will permanently reside. Miss Annie Hipwell's position as stenographer in the office of the Baird Co. will be filled by Miss Shaw, daughter of Walter S. Shaw.—Despatch.

The weekly meeting of La Tour Sec. J. T. of H. and T. takes place this evening in W. C. T. U. hall, West End, for initiation and nomination of officers. The name and positions of the ball team will be read out. Entries are coming in for the La Tour Section intermediate road race. The course is from Spruce Lake to Parsons; corner, West End. Two fine mecals will be awarded. The date decided is May 18. Entries may be left with R. H. Parsons, Parsons' shop, W. E.

A very pleasant time was spent on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. W. Hartin, Union street, W. E., when about forty friends called to wish Mrs. Hartin bood-bye, as she leaves for a trip on the Empress of Britain to her old home in England. Mr. Christopher, on behalf of those present, gave Mrs. Hartin a beautiful gold watch, chain and belt pin, after which supper was served. Mrs. Hartin will be accompanied by Mrs. Bastin, also of England.
