FOOD CONTROL COMMITTEE IN SESSION YESTERDAY

The matter of food controls largely in the hands of the women and it is to them we must look for co-operation and conservation," said R. E. Armstrong yesterday at the meeting of the food control committee which was held yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office. His Worship Mayor Hayes took the chair.

R. E. Armstrong, who is a member of the advisory council on food control, said that the meeting was called together to complete by the election of officers the committee formed at the meeting at which Professor Robertson was present.

He then told of the work being done by the Local Council of Women in the distribution of posters, literature and printed matter. This is done in Ontario by the resource committee.

L. P. D. Tilley corroborated this statement, saying that the work is being carried on by the National Council of Women.

Mrs. Richard Hooper spoke for Miss Haley, who was absent through illness, telling of the work accomplished by the Housewives' League, who, as they are affiliated with the Local Council of Women are attending to the distribution for St. John. Miss Haley as secretary of the Local Council of Women, has organized the league.

Mr. Armstrong showed posters to be placed in the shop windows and pamphlets to be distributed in the homes.

Mrs. Lawlor asked if a new organization was to be formed, but questioned whether it would not be better to use existing organizations. The Housewives' League for seven months has been doing just such work, and are perfectly willing to continue.

Mr. Armstrong replied that it had been suggested that the Housewives' League was at a disadvantage in not having a central place of meeting, and that the rooms of the High School had been suggested for this purpose. It was, however, the idea of the food controller to use all existing patriotic societies.

Mrs. Kuhnring spoke in favor of a central committee formed of men and women, at which all societies might be representative and the work shared.

Mrs. George F. Smith also favored this.

Both these speakers paid a high tribute to the Housewives' League and what it has accomplished, but felt that no one society should be chosen.

Miss Alice Fairweather offered the services of the Young Women's Patriotic Association to assist in any possible way.

Some discussion as to the jurisdiction of a food control committee was entered into by L. P. D. Tilley and Walter Foster.

L. P. D. Tilley proposed a committee of five who should be composed of both men and women to whom complaints should be made of local prices, then the food controller could send his representative to find out the cause of increased prices.

R. E. Armstrong stated that our first duty is to conserve food for the soldiers and our allies. The food control committee is organized to co-operate with the Dominion Food Controller to carry out his plans.

The enforcement of laws will not be carried out by this committee, but will be forced by the power of the law. The orders prohibiting the serving of bacon or beef on certain days and the selling of canned goods are to be enforced by the government.

A motion was passed to form a central food control committee. The following officers were appointed:

Dr. J. H. Frink, chairman; F. B.

Ellis, vice-chairman; R. E. Armstrong, secretary. The executive is to consist of the officers already elected, and representatives of various patriotic associations with power to add to their number.

It was moved that the distribution of literature should be left to the Housewives' League, as they are so efficiently organized and have already begun this branch of patriotic duty.

A representative of the provincial committee of the food controller's office will make a household canvass and forward a copy of the following pledge to the provincial headquarters as a record.

Food Service Pledge.
Realizing the gravity of the food situation and knowing that Great Britain and our Allies look to Canada to help to shatter Germany's threat of starvation, I pledge myself and my household to carry out conscientiously the advice and directions of the Food Controller that requisite foodstuffs may be released for export to the Canadian Divisions, the British forces and people and the Allied armies and nations.

The cards to be given out in the homes have the following inscription:

"To win the war this household is pledged to carry out conscientiously the advice and directions of the Food Controller."

Excellent recipe from a member of the Housewives' League:
Tomato Soup—Keeps All Winter.

First part:
14 quarts of ripe tomatoes, cut up; 14 stalks of celery; 14 sprigs of parsley; 14 Bay leaves; 7 medium sized onions; 14 salt spoonsful of salt; 2 even cups of flour; 12 teaspoonfuls of salt; 2 salt spoonsful of pepper; one quarter of a teaspoonful of Red pepper; Melt butter, add flour and cook without browning.

Mix all the ingredients together. Bring to the good "Boil up". Bottle and seal while hot. This soup can be served as it is; or with the addition of some light stock or with some milk; But in all cases when heating for the serving add a pinch of Baking Soda.

WEST SHEDAC

West Shediac, Sept. 13.—A number of building operations are in progress. Arthur Magriddle is building a residence for himself near the Baptist church. Nearby, Samuel Teed is building a house and John A. Berman, who has disposed of his dwelling will erect a new one.

Conductor Albert J. Wellings has erected a cottage on his property at the Cape.

David McGovern and family and Duncan McQueen were recent visitors here. They came from Cambridge, Mass., by motor.

Others from the United States who are always welcomed at the Cape are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan, who have a large summer home. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan came all the way from Brooklyn by automobile.

The severe frost of this week has caused much damage throughout the parish, especially in districts removed from the salt water. Many garden crops were ruined.

Rev. Mr. Green of St. John was the preacher at St. Martin's Anglican Church, Sunday, in the absence of Rev. Frederick Ellis who was in that city.

The engagement is announced of George L. Wellings, Jr., and Miss Winifred Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murray. The wedding is to occur in St. Martin's Church on Wednesday, Sept. 26.

Earl Johnson was baptised in Scott's Brook on Sunday.

Many of the summer colonists have left, although a number still remain. The many friends of Major Charles F. Hannington, formerly of Shediac, Cape, are pleased to hear that he is enjoying good health overseas. He recruited several hundred foresters in St. John and has been in France, recently returning to England for a short time. Major Hannington is a brother of A. H. Hannington, K. C., and T. B. Hannington of St. John and is an uncle of Major C. Lionel Hannington, recently stationed at Sussex in command of the foresters.

YOUNG'S COVE ROAD

The Young's Cove Methodist Sunday school has invited the county convention to meet here the 22nd and 23rd of this month.

LOGGIEVILLE

Loggieville, Sept. 11.—The special feature of the week just passed was the rink party held on the 6th. The affair was under the management of the Red Cross Society and was a most successful undertaking. The building was partitioned off with greens in an attractive manner. Small tables were arranged around the tea room. The decorations in this department were in yellow and white. A large number of people patronized the supper tables. Other places of attraction were: Refreshment counter, goose exchanges, fortune teller's booth, shooting gallery and "hit the cats." Excellent returns were realized from all the above mentioned. The affair in general netted about $250. This amount is to be used for the purchasing of Red Cross supplies.

Labor Day was generally observed as a holiday in this town, practically all places of business being closed for the day. Locally there were no attractions. Many spent the day out of town, while several visitors from outside points called on friends here.

The weather since the opening of the month has been cool and fall-like. Those who have been summering at "Washbourne" are breaking up camp and returning to their homes.

Rev. W. B. Rouborough was called to North Sydney on Sunday, owing to the serious illness of his uncle, Dr. Jack.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage—Favorites and What They Say and Do.

SIR JOHN HARE IN "CASTE" AT IMPERIAL

Every mother, father and grandparent in town will find a special appeal in "Caste," the Greater Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature which will be the attraction at the Imperial theatre today and Saturday because a six months old baby is the means of wiping out the centuries old class pride of England. The story deals with the marriage of an aristocrat to a girl of the people and the consequent horror with which the man's proud mother regards the union. However, when the baby arrives he proves that love is greater than family trees and brings the two social elements to a common level. Peggy Hyland, one of the popular stars of Greater Vitaphone, appears in the stellar role of the piece, playing opposite to Sir John Hare, England's greatest character actor.

THE UNIQUE

The first thing one is impressed with these days in visiting the Unique, is the excellence of the music rendered by the Arlington Orchestra. Their efforts represent something entirely different and certainly delightful. The rendering of Huckleberry Finn was an inspiration for the first time, while the various other numbers could not help but delight. The Arlingtons are a wonderful addition to the programme's show at Unique.

The Perils of the Secret Service was the headline attraction yesterday, and this is the last of the series. I am sorry for they were without exception particularly good. The final adventure of Kingsley Benedict, (Yorkie Norroy) was entitled "The International Spy."

The plot allowed plenty of scope for action and the director certainly took advantage of it. I was particularly pleased with the massive settings used, for it is not often that such expense is lavished on a "B" reel production. Next came a Lonesome Luke comedy, "Take the Plumber."

It pleased the children and some of the grown ups, but did not exactly appeal to me. It was quite funny in spots, but many excellent opportunities for the presentation of good clean fun were unfortunately lost sight of by the producer. Still there is a laugh or two in it, and I suppose that is quite sufficient to make it "go."

CASTE, THAT BARRIER OF PREJUDICE, built on a false pride and the honors of birth has brought much of earth's unhappiness. But love is too sacred to be cheated of its fulfillment. Occasionally a man or a woman, strong enough to tear down the bars that convention has set between the rich and the poor, teaches the world that caste is the creed of fools, the safeguard of weaklings. To see "Caste" is to see a world-famous play that has become a classic of the modern theatre—a drama that every man and woman will be the better for having witnessed.

"Saving our Shad Industry"

gave an interesting insight into this industry, while some views of a town in China rounded out a very good programme.

Saw Miss Kellerman Make Picture. Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Anglin who have recently returned from a motor trip through Maine visited Bar Harbour and while there saw the famous swimmer and actress, Miss Annette Kellerman making her new picture. It was the attraction for visitors from miles around, and the cliffs near the scene of the picture were black with people watching a photo-play in the making. There was anchored just outside the harbour an old ship from which this human mermaid takes several high dives and is rescued from various perilous situations.

A Woman Censor? An agitation is going on, very quietly as yet, in the city, for the appointment of a woman on the New Brunswick Board of Censorship. There is a very strong feeling among women who think that a woman is the best judge of pictures when such a large percentage of the Motion Picture audiences is composed of women and children. The views on this subject are being strongly expressed and it may be that decided action will be taken by several of the Women's Clubs who have the welfare of the city at heart.
