It is rumored that Mr. Wm. Elder is to be appointed to an office of some kind shortly, and that Mr. John Livingston is to assume control of Mr. Elder's paper. Some assert that a vacancy will be made for Mr. Elder by the removal of Mr. Hanford, Mr. McMillan, or some other official, and others profess to know that he will be sent abroad as an Emigration Agent. Both Mr. Elder and the Telegraph will be warmly congratulated if the rumor prove true.
