

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province, to advance and pay to such proprietor, by Warrant under his hand, and out of any monies in the hands of the Receiver General, a sum equal to that at which the said arbitrators shall have so estimated the value of the said Island; and another sum equal to that at which they shall have estimated the loss so sustained by such proprietor, in consequence of the occupation aforesaid; and that so soon as the said sums shall be so paid, the said Island shall be the property of His Majesty, for the public uses of the Province.

LIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person who shall contravene any provision of this Act, or any Rule or Regulation made under the authority thereof, to the contravention of which no special penalty is hereby attached, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding pounds currency, and if such penalty be not forthwith paid, shall be imprisoned for a time not exceeding months, or until such penalty be paid, with costs of suit.

LX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for the purpose of defraying the expense to be incurred in carrying into effect that part of this Act which regards the system of Quarantine hereby established, and the Salaries of the several Civil Officers who shall be employed in enforcing the same, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, by warrant under his hand, and out of any unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver General, to advance and pay such sum or sums as shall be necessary to defray such expenses and salaries to the persons to whom the same shall be due, or to whom he shall entrust the settlement of the accounts of such expenses :
