UBC Librarian Vetoes Mid-Hip Mini

VANCOUVER (CUP) - When is mini-skirt too mini? According to the university of British Columbia library circulation department, it's when the length of the skirt is not "decent beyond doubt."

Ruth A. Butterworth, head of the circulation department issued a memorandum this week:

"While matters of dress are normally left to individual discretion, some of the short, short skirts which have been seen lately make it necessary to remind staff that in a public service division, you are expected to be decent beyond doubt."

"Generally speaking half way between the hip and the knee is too short."

"Knee length or up to three inches above the knee is preferable."

Miss Butterfield and I.F. Bell, of the librarian's office said the reason for the memorandum was a lack of decency.

"When a mini-skirted girl bends over, her garters show," said Miss Butterfield.

"Phooey!" said one mini-skirted staffer. "We all regard the memorandum as a joke."

Library officials said the memorandum was not a rule but a reminder and offenders would not be punished.

RCMP, INTERPOL OPPOSE POT LEGISLATION

OTTAWA (CUP) - The RCMP received unanimous support for a resolution opposing legalization of marijuana submitted to the annual meeting of Interpol Tuesday.

The motion was introduced by the delegations of Canada, the U.S. and Mexico at a closed plenary session of Interpol (International Criminal Police Organization) held in Kyoto, Japan.

RCMP Commissioner M.F.A. Lindsay, head of the Canadian delegation, was also elected one of three vice-presidents of the organization.

Government sources in Ottawa told CUP the Canadian delegation's position on the matter at the convention was an internal matter of the RCMP, and was not in any way dictated by the Canadian government.

The government's position is in accordance with existing legislation on the matter.

A representative of the Attorney-General's department told CUP as far as he knew the laws are "not up for reconsideration" at the present time.
