Attention teenagers: Are you looking for something worthwhile and rewarding to do this summer? Why not be a volunteer to assist residents of the Chelsey Park Nursing Home?

The Chelsey Park Volunteer Association is an organization dedicated to this cause. At present the group is made up of president Tom O'Dwyer, vice-president Anne Finley and secretary-treasurer Jacqui Richardson, as well as volunteers and nursing home staff.

They have regular monthly meetings to co-ordinate and plan activities for nursing home residents and money-raising events.

The association hopes to use $300 raised at a spring dance to purchase benches for the nursing home grounds. Members are also stocking a tuck shop cart to use in the home.

Jill Partridge, is now available to oversee younger individuals and anyone 14 years of age or over is welcome to be a volunteer.

The next meeting will be held Monday, July 24, 8 p.m., at the nursing home, 2250 Hurontario St. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. Adult volunteers are also needed.

SENIORS MEET

The Cooksville Senior Citizens Club will continue to meet at the Port Credit Secondary School cafeteria from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. every Wednesday to play cards, bingo, and billiards.

JAYCEES

Mississauga Jaycees' new president is Gerry Kott who was sworn into office by Bob Bryan, regional director of the central region Jaycees. Kott was also chosen as Mississauga Jaycee of the year.

The occasion was the annual Presidential Ball and several awards were handed out. Outgoing president Barney Johnson presented presidential awards of honour to the following Jaycees: Terrie Craig, Bob Lane, Bruce Robertson, Phil DeVulder, Gord Newman, Don Johnston, Dave Knudsen and Gerry Kott.

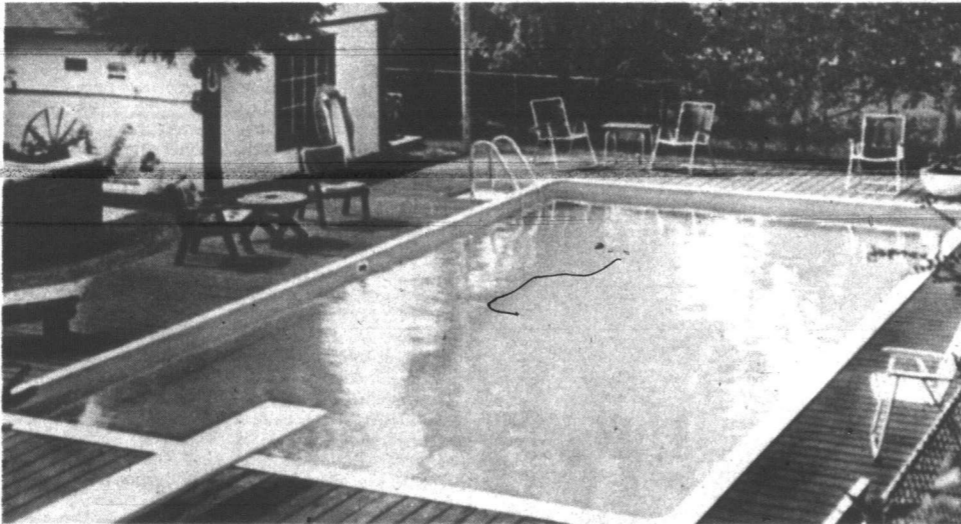

Don Elvins, Phil DeVulder and Gerry Kott received 'Spoke' awards, while Barney Johnson, Dave Knudsen, Bruce Robertson and Gord Newman received 'spark plug' awards. Ken Horrell sr. was presented with the Molson trophy for low gross golfer at the annual Jaycee golf tournament.
