Ottawa, March 10, 1909.

Rev. Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th ult., inclosing a statement showing the reserves from which the pupils in attendance at the St. Joseph's Industrial School are recruited.

It is noticed that sixteen of these children are given as belonging to no reserve, and the Department desires fuller information as to what points they come from and to what bands they belong, which you will be good enough to furnish at your earliest convenience.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

Rev. J. Riou,
Principal,

St. Joseph's Industrial School,
