Ottawa, December 5, 1917.

Sir,-

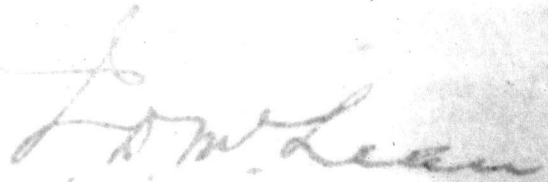

The Department is informed that Mrs. John Cocco, of Maniwaki, is willing to take her sister Jeannette Simard to live with her. This girl is at present in an orphanage in this city.

Kindly interview Mrs. Cocco at once and if you find that the Department has been correctly informed, you should tell Mrs. Cocco to come to Ottawa to get Jeannette Simard.

If she is coming you may purchase for Mrs. Cocco a return ticket from Maniwaki to Ottawa and instruct her to come to Room 501 Booth Building, 165 Sparks Street, where full information in regard to her sister will be given to her.

If you purchase a ticket for this woman, you should submit to the Department, a certified account in duplicate, for the expenditure involved.

Your obedient servant
