

- Q. Where was he when he fired that pistol?
A. He was running all over the street.
- Q. Was he running after anyone in particular or just running?
A. I could not say, he was running in the street.
- Q. Was there any people in front of him in the direction he was firing?
A. There was a girl on a bicycle.
- Q. Where were you at the time this happened? Were you sitting down in the truck or outside the truck?
A. I was outside the truck.
- Q. Where did Brisson go?
A. He went about 75 yards away from the truck and then came back to the truck by himself.
- Q. What happened to the little girl?
A. I didn't notice, I didn't see.
- Q. What did he do next when he came back?
A. He came back with a Sten.
- Q. Wait a minute, he must have misunderstood this; he is still 75 yards away with a pistol and I am asking what did he do next?
A. He has already said a while ago he went away 75 yards and then came back to his truck.
- Q. And then what did he do?
A. On coming back to the truck he got into it and got out again with a Sten Gun.
- Q. When he got in for the Sten did he still have his pistol?
A. I didn't see.
- Q. What did he do with his Sten?
A. He fired four or five rounds automatic and then I told him to stop.
- Q. And then what happened after that, did he stop?
A. He kept on running and firing.

Q. Did you actually ~~see~~^{see} him go anywhere in particular? Did he stay on the street, did you see him go somewhere outside the street?
A. He got off the street. There is a track outside or by the street and he ran, he crossed that track over and over again.
- Q. And then what did he do?
A. Then I left him alone and I took my truck back here, back to HQ to get more RPs.
- Q. What happened then?
A. I first stopped at the Regimental HQ where I reported the incident to the Duty Officer.
- Q. And then?
A. He told me to go and fetch RPs.
- Q. And then?
A. I went back to the scene of the incident with the RPs.
