

EXTRACT OF THE WILL OF THE LATE JEFFERY
HALE, ESQUIRE.

"I hereby give, devise and bequeath my property known as the Lecture Hall, in St. Anne Street, together with my Middlesex, London and Hamilton debentures, unto the said Christian Wurtele, in trust, and upon condition that he shall realize and dispose of the same to the best advantage, and apply the proceeds thereof to the establishment, at Quebec, of a Protestant Hospital, for the relief and cure of all sick and infirm persons professing the Protestant religion, without regard to sect or denomination; the same to be for ever under Protestant control, and to be organized under the said Christian Wurtele, assisted by the said Reverend David Marsh and Dr. John Racey, or of a majority of them, and subject to such regulations as they shall deem most fit and proper. To have and to hold the same unto the said Christian Wurtele, his heirs and assigns, for ever, in trust, for the uses, ends and purposes herein above set forth. It is my desire, in order to secure the permanency of the objects I have contemplated, that the said Christian Wurtele, assisted as above, should consider the propriety of applying for an Act of Incorporation for each of the said Sabbath School and Protestant Hospital, with such provisions as he shall deem necessary to secure the establishment of both upon a sound Protestant basis, free from all sectarian or denominational bias, and in a manner consistent with my own private views, with which he is well acquainted."
