St. Thomas Branch

THE alterations to this Branch which have been in progress for some months are now completed and we are in a position to offer exceptional banking facilities to the public.

Savings Department. We make a special feature of this department and offer every inducement to depositors consistent with sound banking. Deposits of $1 and upwards received and interest added to accounts four times a year.

Banking for Women. A private room has been provided for ladies where they may transact their banking business without interruption.

Farmers' Business. For the convenience of farmers a large room has been furnished above the bank. Those desiring to make appointments with their friends, to hold special meetings or to transact private business are invited to make use of this room.

In depositing money with the Dominion Bank you are assured of courteous treatment and undoubted security.

We invite your business.

Yours truly,

E. S. ANDERSON, Manager.
