

an intelligent method of dis-profits. No class suffers to benefits to another class.

BRE

as, barrister, Market. att (John Workman, James mnfrs, Colborne.
hn, confectioner, George.
B, shoemaker, Queen.
stone (Frederick Wright, stone), groceries and crock-
, butcher, Market House.
H, druggist, Colborne.
er, cor West and Queen.
sic teacher.

RD JUNCTION. The B & L E div and the B &
T Ry, in North Norwich
County, one mile south 26 north-east of Port a post office.

CROSSING. A country goode township, Carlton south of Ottawa, the nearest banking point, and tation, the nearest ship-ed in 1884. It contains byterian and Catholic ic and separate schools, d produce. Population,
ly. C Bray, postmaster.

ANE. A country post
nship, Glengarry County, Cornwall, the county seat,
xandria, on the C A Ry, and banking point. It e route from Alexandria Population, 50. Mail mpbell, postmaster.

village in Mara townnty, 50 miles north of seat, and 1 from Brechin div G T Ry. Orillia 13
s the nearest banking Catholic and Methodist and separate schools, and stock. Population, 200.
Express, Canadian.
nard, postmaster.

s and shoes.
General Store.
J H Seagers, prop.
ilor.

ic).

HITBY, ONT.

NORTH BRITISH AND MERCANTILE FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE CO.

78 ST. FRANÇOIS XAVIER ST.
MONTREAL.
26 WELLINGTON ST. EAST, TORONTO.

BRE AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

BRE

185

Doyle Dennis, flour and feed, furniture and undertaker.

Doyle John, groceries and produce.

Foley James P, justice of peace.

Forrest L & Co. General Store.

Gattie Anthony, hotel and pumpmaker.

Gaudrie Wilfred, railway agt and grain.

Giles G, harnessmaker.

Gilpin Wm, physician.

Gleason P, waggonmaker.

Grand Trunk Railway.

Harrison & Leslie, general store.

Luck Samuel, carriagemaker.

Lytle John, blacksmith.

McBride Misses, dressmaker.

McDonald Daniel J, blacksmith.

McPhee & Reeves, agricultural implts.

O'Neil Peter, blacksmith.

Orr Wm, general store.

Roach Thomas, hotel.

Seagers John H. Flour Mill.

Smith Neil, agricultural implts and stoves.

Sutherland Donald, tailor.

Tisdale E, general store.

BRECON. A small place on the L H & B line, G W div G T Ry, in Middlesex County, 16 miles north-west of London.
Post office name Denfield, which see for Directory.

Grand Trunk Railway.

BREMNER. A station on the CP Ry in Algoma District, 233 miles east of Port Arthur. Express, Dominion. Not a post office.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

BRENTWOOD. A village on Spring creek, in Sunnidale township, Simcoe County, 15 miles west of Barrie, the county seat, and 2 south-east of New Lowell, on the N line N & N W Rys, its shipping point. Stayner, 9 miles north-west, is the nearest bank location. Settled in 1830.
It contains Catholic and Methodist churches, and a common school, and ships produce,
hay, lumber, lath, shingles and grain.
Population, 200. Mail daily. John O'Connell, postmaster.

Forest Mrs & Miss, weavers and milliners.

Hewlett Wm, blacksmith.

Lacini Daniel, fruitgrower and dairyman.

Maxwell Wm, news agent.

O'Connell John. General Agent.

Roantree Thomas, general store.

Warner John, general store and saw mill.

BRESLAU. A village on Hopewell creek—at its junction with the Grand river, and on the G T Ry, in Waterloo township, Waterloo County, 4 miles west of Berlin, the county seat, and nearest bank location. The creek supplies power to run a flour and saw mill. Settled in 1857. It contains Lutheran, Mennonite and United Brethren churches, and a public school, and ships produce, grain, flour and lumber.
Stages daily to New Germany and Weissen-burg. Population, 300. Telegraph, GNW.
Express, Canadian. Mail daily. Joseph Bieth, postmaster.

Bechtel A M, general store.

Betzner Jacob, agri implt agt.

Burnett John. Flour and Saw Mill.

Clemmer A G, tinsmith.

Dobbin & Co, dry air refrigerators.

Dobbin & Stengel, charcoal mnfrs.

Durst Frederick, waggonmaker.

Gerster Henry, hotel.

Grand Trunk Railway.

Kraen Anthony, carpenter.

Kramp Louis, tailor.

Melinke Charles, shoemaker.

Reiner Matthais, merchant tailor.

Schaefer Frederick. Carriagemaker.

Stengel August, builder.

Uffelmann Jacob, general store,

Whitmer Henry, harnessmaker.

BREWER'S MILLS. A small place on the Rideau canal (which furnishes power) in Pittsburgh township, Frontenac County, 16 miles north-east of Kingston, the county seat, and nearest railway and banking point.
Settled in 1833. It contains Catholic and Methodist churches, and a common school, and ships grain and live stock. It is on the daily stage route from Kingston to Newboro, fare 50c to either place. Telegraph, GNW.
Mail daily. Robert Anglin, postmaster.

Anglin Robert. General Store and Saw Mill.

Brewer James, machinist.

Desaunhae Rev Father (Catholic).

Milne Charles, general store.

Murray John, hotel.

BREWSTER. Also known as Port Blake, is a village on Lake Huron, in Stephen township, Huron County, 28 miles south of Goderich, the county seat, and 10 west of Exeter, the nearest banking and shipping point. Cordwood, tanbark and

LIVERPOOL AND LONDON AND GLOBE INS. CO.

LARGEST FIRE INS. CO. IN THE WORLD.
Invested Funds, $34,500,000.
G. F. C. SMITH, Res. Sec., MONTREAL.