

A Word to Stock-owners

Which is of interest just now when so many animals are being fitted for approaching Shows. Lovers of the BEST are specially interested, and they do not require to be told who or what Mr. Robert Beith, ex-M.P., is to the stockmen of Canada. He is the RECOGNIZED AUTHORITY; his winnings of last year are proudly proclaimed from one end of Canada to the other. YOU wondered, and so did everybody else wonder, how he got his stock in such excellent condition, but Mr. Beith knew, and here it is:

Waverly Farm, Bowmanville, Oct. 25th, 1904.

To the Carnefac Stock Food Co., Winnipeg and Toronto:

Gentlemen,—We have been using Carnefac Stock Food for the past six months, and I take much pleasure in telling of the wonderful results we have experienced since we commenced to use it. Our Hackney horses, led by Saxon, being prizewinners at the World's Fair, St. Louis, Mo., require and get, besides the best possible attention, the best possible diet, and this necessarily guides us in our selection of either Stock Food or Condition Powder.

We first used Carnefac for some horses that had the distemper, with the result that it kept their stomachs in splendid condition and that they kept feeding, so the disease was thrown off quickly and the horses did not go back in condition.

To owners of high-class horses we can cheerfully recommend Carnefac.

(Signed) ROBERT BEITH,

BE STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

BE A MAN AMONG MEN.

Nature intended you to be a strong man. You have the physique, the constitution, and yet you do not feel the vim, the sand, the ambition one would expect in a man of your age. What is it? Why, a lack of vitality—the foundation of vitality. You have lost it, no matter how. Get it back; feel young, look young, act young. Life is beautiful when you have health. I can help you.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT
Has brought strength, ambition and happiness to ten thousand men the past year.

Men, why will you be weak? Why do you not listen to the echo of thousands of grateful voices raised in thanks to Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt? Why do you go on from day to day realizing that you are losing your nerve force, your strength, when you see a cure within your grasp? Reach for it, take it to your heart and feel the life blood flowing, jumping, dancing through your veins; feel the exhilarating spark of renewed vigor, the bright flash come to your eye, and the firm grip to your hand—the grip which grasps your fellow-man and tells him that you have found your Mecca—you have regained your strength.

"I have found a complete cure for sciatica, rheumatism and back trouble from the use of your Belt after three and a half years' suffering and doctoring. I am also restored completely from that tired feeling."—JOSEPH C. ARMSTRONG, 173 Rectory street, London, Ont.

"Your Belt cured my weak back, and I will recommend it to all suffering as I did."—FRED COX, 460 Logan avenue, Winnipeg, Man.

I don't ask you to take any chances. I am willing to do that, because I know my belt will cure any case I undertake if given a fair chance. All I ask is that you secure me while you are using it. Remember.

IT DOESN'T COST YOU A CENT TILL CURED.

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

You cannot do badly without first thinking badly.

One of John Sharp Williams' recent stories tells of an old darky who applied to a former employer for a recommendation. The old colored man had been faithful and his record was clean, so the employer wrote a recommendation lauding him to the skies.

The old darky read it twice, and then ran his fingers through his wool.

"U-m-m," he muttered. "Boss, dat's a good rec'mendation. Don' yo' reckon yo' could gib me a job yo'self if I's good as all dis says?"

Mrs. J— was very nervous and a light sleeper. One night she thought she detected the odor of gas. For once in her life she acted bravely. She got up and went downstairs without awakening her husband. Finding the odor of gas stronger in the lower floors she ran back to her bedroom. She shook her dozing spouse two or three times very roughly, crying at the same time:

"John! John! Get up! the gas is leaking, and we will be smothered to death."

"Is it leaking very much?" sleepily asked John.

"No; not so much."

"Then put a bucket under it and come to bed."

The luxury of physical inactivity appears to be fully appreciated in the South, writes Mr. Bradford Torrey in "Nature's Invitation"; and as an illustration, he tells of a walk he took near Miami, Florida, and of a conversation he overheard.

I was walking away from the city at a rather brisk pace one morning, when I passed a lonesome shanty. A white man sat upon the rude piazza, and another man and a boy stood near.

"Are you going to work to-day?" asked the boy of the occupant of the piazza.

"No," was the answer, quick and pithy.

"Why not?"

"I ain't got time."

I do not expect to hear the philosophy of indolence more succinctly stated if I live a thousand years.

The detective in the automobile stopped at a little repair shop by the roadside.

"Have you seen anything," he asked, "of a short, chunky fellow with a gray suit, in a light touring car with no number on it?"

"Yes, sir," said the man behind the leather apron. "He stopped here about two hours ago to get a bolt tightened up."

"Did he give you any idea of where he was going?"

"No, sir; he didn't seem to know himself. He was kind o' tangled up about the roads, and wasn't certain which direction he wanted to take."

"In a quandary, was he?"

"Er—no; it didn't look like one. It was one of these dinky little runabouts."

In a toast on "The Sow and Her Son," Colonel Woods, the noted American live-stock auctioneer, recently made the following statement: "There has been more improvement made in hog-breeding during the past twenty years than in any of our other domestic animals. It would seem that in quantity and shape, perfection had been reached. The problem now is the scientific blending of the fat and the lean. A hog is a comical animal, and like a man, stubborn. Josh Billings once said that the more he saw of men the better he liked hogs." Col. Woods, in his peroration, dropped into poetry and quoted:

"A sow and a cow, and a good laying hen
Provide financial salvation for men.
And if, in addition, you have a good wife,
There's nothing to hinder your enjoying life."

The veterinary-in-chief to His Majesty the King of Italy, writing to Mr. Stevens, of London, England, says: "After using your Ointment for sixteen years for all diseases of horses' legs, I have always had splendid results follow its application." DR. VICCHI.

Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Berlin, Ont., says: "I suffered for five years with palpitation, shortness of breath, sleeplessness and pain in the heart, but one box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills completely removed all these distressing symptoms. I have not suffered since taking them, and now sleep well and feel strong and vigorous."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure all diseases arising from weak heart, worn out nerve tissues, or watery blood.

Instead of a burning desire to "get even" with some one who has wronged you, it is better to realize if possible that the wrong was done through ignorance—and that you should feel sorry instead of resentful.

The one who does another a wrong willfully is pretty sure to get what ought to be coming to him without the one who is injured trying to bring about vengeance.
