"If you do, I'll tell my mother and the teacher, so there!"

"I don't care if you tell your mother, my mother, and all your relations, and the president," said Rebecca, gaining courage as the noble words fell from her lips. "I don't care if you tell the town, the whole of York county, the State of Maine and—the nation!" she finished grandiloquently. "Now you run home and remember what I say. If you do it again, and especially if you say 'Jail Birds,' if I think it's right and my duty, I shall punish you somehow."

The next morning at recess Rebecca observed Minnie telling the tale with variations to Huldah Meserve. "She threatened me," whispered Minnie, "but I never believe a word she says."

The latter remark was spoken with the direct intention of being overheard, for Minnie had spasms of bravery, when well surrounded by machinery of law and order.

As Rebecca went back to her seat she asked Miss Dearborn if she might pass a note to Minnie Smellie, and received permission. This was the note:—

Of all the girls that are so mean
There's none like Minnie Smellie,
I'll take away the gift I gave
And pound her into jelly.

P. S.—Now do you believe me.
R. RANDALL.

The effect of this piece of doggerel was entirely convincing, and for days afterwards whenever Minnie met the Simpsons even a mile from the brick house, she shuddered and held her peace.

MISCELLANEOUS QUERIES.

1. Mare paws continuously in the stable and throws all her bedding behind her.
2. Same mare, when bedded with straw, eats it, and I have to bed her with shavings.
3. I keep two cows in the same stable with the mare, and use shavings and sawdust for bedding. All the droppings are put in one pile under cover. A considerable amount of heat is generated. Is there any danger of fire from this heating?
C. E. H.

Ans.—1. This is a habit which is very hard to check. In some cases, buckling around the pastern a strap with about eight inches of chain attached, will be successful. Boring a few holes in the sides of the stall about six inches above the floor, and putting green switches in these so that when she paws she will catch the switches, and in their rebound they will strike her shins, may also be effective. It is a case in which a man has a good opportunity to exercise his inventive powers to devise means to check the habit.
2. This is the case with most horses that are not given all the hay they can eat. Your method is a good one. Either this or putting a muzzle on, is the only preventive.
3. We have not known fire to result in such cases, but there may be a danger of spontaneous combustion, but we think it very slight.

NO GOOD AT EXCUSES.

"I had to be away from school yesterday," said Tommy.
"You must bring an excuse," said the teacher.
"Who from?"
"Your father."
"He ain't no good at making excuses; he catches him every time."

This Home-made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly, and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes 16 ounces—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16-ounce bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualcol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.
