GOVERNOR, WILLIAMS -Our new Governor r Wm. Fenwick Williams, arrived by the Cuba aday evening-and on Wednesday to k outh of office. A very cordial welcome has been given to the Gereral.

IMPORTANT DE PATCH -The despatch relave to the app intment of General Williams as seemer of Nova Scotia clearly indicates the hey of Her Mejesty's Government to be the federation of these Provinces, and that the deneral is not to expect to hold the position for the usual per od of six years, but only for such shorter period as may intervene before the settle-ment of the question of Confederation.

RIBLE SOCIETY -The Annual Meeting of the N. S. Bible Society was held in Temperators Hall on Monday evening, the President, R-v. R F. Unsoke m the chair. The meeting was addressed by the Chairman, by His Worship the syor, by the Society's Agent, Mr. Russell, and
