Prospects were never better than now. Furthermore, our facilities for doing business are better than ever. We have just formed good connections in London, England, our agents permanently located in a most prominent locality on Charing Cross Road. This agency is formed for the purpose of sending Old Country buyers direct to our office to be supplied with properties we hold for sale. For the handling of such a business we must have exclusive agency, so as to be able to assure our correspondents that we can deliver the lands advertised by us and listed with them. Owners of real estate will appreciate this enterprise on our part. Now preparing a list for Old Country markets. Enter your properties for sale now, so as to have them before the buying public in time for the early fall trade.
