We notice that W. Marshall Black, Esq., has recently had a handsome ship-rigged flag pole erected on his grounds at "Elmhurst." He evidently believes that the old flag "that's waved a thousand years, the battle and the breeze" deserves a decent pole to float from. The spar work was done by Mr. O. G. Cogswell, of Port Williams, and the rigging work by Mr. Henry White, of this town.

House to let—One lately vacated by Mrs. Mitchell. Nine rooms and bath, set range. Apply to L. W. Sleep.

The finest automobile yet seen in Wolfville, made its appearance on our streets on Friday last and created considerable interest. Its occupants were Mr. Marshall Field, of New York, Dr. DeCosta, of Philadelphia, and the chauffeur, an experienced electrician. The automobile is a German make, a "Mercedes" touring style, and equipped in the best style. The seats are fitted with springs and high comfortable backs. The car is a high priced one, having cost $10,000. The party left New York, Aug. 3rd, and after spending Friday night in Wolfville continued their journey to Capt. Breton. The car makes about a hundred miles a day, and its passengers are no doubt having a very pleasant trip.

A number of new ads. appear in this issue, which will be of interest. In fact our ads. are always worthy of careful perusal.

The pulpit of the Baptist church was filled last Sunday by Rev. C. W. Jackson, of Bellows Falls, Vermont, a graduate of Acadia in the class of '96. Next Sunday it is expected that Rev. M. Morse, will be in his place.

An unusually severe storm of wind and rain occurred on Saturday night and early Sunday morning, and did considerable damage to crops, particularly apples. A great many apples were blown off, in one case as high as 500 barrels in a single orchard being reported.

The interior of Mr. Shaw's tonorial establishment has been newly painted this week and presents a very fine appearance. The work was done by Mr. Ernest Caldwell on whom it reflects much credit. Mr. Shaw has added to his staff Mr. Vantassel, of Digby, and now has three chairs in operation.

Two well rendered solos were given at St. Andrew's church last Sunday evening by Mr. William Zink, of Haverhill, Mass. Mr. Zink, who is a member of the Allington Quartette, a musical organization of the services of which are in considerable demand in Boston and elsewhere. Mr. Zink is a guest while in Wolfville of his friend, Mr. S. A. Stevens, of Acadia street. It is hoped he may sing in St. Andrew's church again next Sunday.

MISS B. K. SAXTON.

visiting in Wolfville during the past week, the guest of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. G. H. Gillmore.

Misses Gertrude and Josephine Heales have returned to their home in Town Plot, having spent the past summer months in St. John.

Miss Thomson, of Pleasant street, Halifax, and Mr. Mackinson of Harbor Grace, Nfld., Mrs. Smith's brother, are visiting at the home of Mr. J. Elliot Smith.

Rev. Joseph Hogg, of former pastor of the Canard Presbyterian church, is now travelling in the North West, in behalf of the King Memorial Fund of the Manitoba College.

Rev. and Mrs. Isaiah Wallace, who have been living in Wolfville for some time past, left on Saturday for Aylesford, where they will reside with their son, Rev. Lew Wallace, who has recently accepted a call to the Baptist church at that place.

Mr. M. H. Ames, of Portland, Me., has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. F. W. Woodworth, during the past week. Mr. Ames, who has been quite an extensive traveller, is much pleased with the "Evangeline country" which he is now visiting for the first time.

Mr. C. Edgar Chipman, arrived home from New York on Monday, on a visit to his parents Mr. and Mrs. X. Z. Chipman, Mr. Chipman, who graduated at Acadia with the class of '92, fills a responsible position in New York, and does not often find it convenient to visit his old home.

The many friends of Mr. James Leard, of Grand Pre, were very glad to see him in town one day last week. During the winter he has been in poor health, and this coupled with his advanced age prevents him from being often in town. Mr. Leard is one of the best informed men in the county, and has been closely connected with the business interests of the community during his whole life.

The many friends of Miss Annie H. Murray in town will learn with regret that she is about to leave Wolfville for a time. She goes to New Glasgow to-morrow to accept a position in the choir of one of the churches of that town, and give private lessons in vocal music. She will be missed very much in musical circles, especially from the choir of the St. Andrew's church, where she has been of great service. The solo rendered by her last Sunday morning, as on all occasions, was very much enjoyed. THE ACADIAN joins a host of friends in best wishes for her success in her new home.

One of the matters which received attention at the meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade last week was the need of a daily service across the Bay of Fundy during the whole year. A resolution was passed asking the government to increase the subsidy from $1200 to $17,466 to provide for this. The advantage of a daily steamer across the Bay during the winter as well as in summer is well understood by the public, and it is hoped the endeavour of the Board will be successful.

An Important Change.
Owing to the great number of orders for clothes received in response to the remarkable advertisement in this paper the Wolfville Clothing Company has been compelled to change the terms of its offer. As first stated, the coupon in their ad. was only to be accepted as the equivalent of a five dollar bill when a suit or overcoat was ordered and paid for before September 1st. But the orders already received have been so unexpectedly numerous that the firm finds itself utterly unable to fill them before that time, and has accordingly decided to amend its offer so that the coupon will be taken at its face value in part payment for any suit or overcoat ordered before Sept. 1st and paid for as soon as the clothes are completed.

But this privilege will positively not be extended to any whose orders are received after Aug. 31 or who do not pay cash.
