George Ade Fables

The Thoughtful Wife Who
Trick'd to Give Henry a Restful Vacation.

(Copyright, 1902, 1903, by Robert Howard Russell.)

HATED TO PLAY DOMINOES.

Any one, to look at Jessamine, would have said that she was rather frail and weakly, while the head of the Sketch looked husky enough to pull a Dray. At any rate, the cute and dainty little Jessamine, with a Waist Measurement of 11 inches, was all hooked up with the human Mastodon who went by the name of Henry and looked the Part.

Now it happened that Hen and Jess lived in a nice little Town, where there were a great many lovely Old Families and a great deal of Wealth, but it was pervaded at all Hours by a Cemetery Calm. The Social Gayeties of the Place revolved slowly around a Miscellaneous Society. Any one desiring to mix a Cocktail had to pull down all the Blinds and disconnect the Telephone, and also it was advisable to wear Masks at a Poker Party.

Jessamine would often become restless and chafed at the B.T. She had attended a Select School for Girls, at which she had learned how to turn Hand Springs and do other Parlor Tricks. No wonder that she hated to play Dominoes all Evening and then turn out the lights at 9:30 P.M.

Now it chanced that Jessamine had a Chum. They had eaten Olives out of the same Bottle while attending the Select School for Girls. Chum had gone against the Municipal Game, the same as Jessamine, only, instead of landing in Sleepy Hollow, she was up in the City, taking in the Big Show.

She wrote to Jessamine, urging her to come up and put in a busy Week. At working up the Handwriting for several Days, Jessamine succeeded in reading the whole Letter, and she began to tease Henry to knock off for a Week and take her up to the hoop in the City, taking in the Big Show.

Large Bodies move slowly, and several Days elapsed before Henry came to her Way of Thinking, although it was a Pipe from the beginning that she would bring him around.

Jessamine got busy and put six Women to work building a new Evening Gown for her. It was a Pale-Blue Ce-rose, with Battenberg Insertion, yoked with Mayonnaise and Valenciennes, the Flowers being gathered in with Passementerie and the Bodice hand-painted. When Henry got a Flash at the Bill he allowed that, instead of taking a Vacation, it would be better for him to play at Home and work about twice as hard. But winsome Wifery had everything packed, so she took him in Tow and they boarded the Flyer.

"Ain't this Grand?" asked Jessamine, as they sat in the palatial Parlor. Clara and watched the Scenery spin by.

"AIN'T THIS GRAND?"

Henry, who was a mile Henry, was engaged nineteen times before she finally hooked up, and since she got Married People come for miles to get her to act as Chaplain.

"What is the Programme?" asked Henry, who was a mile Henry. "There'll be something doing every Minute, all right, all right," said the Child-Wife. "Ask no Questions, but follow little Bright Eyes. I haven't had a touch of Real Life since I crawled down the Lightning-Rod at the Select School for Girls."

At that time Henry did not realize that a bright young Thing with a Boarding-School Education can give the staid Business Man any kind of a Handicap and then leave him somewhere back of the Flag.

Clara met them at the Train with a Buzz-Wagon. She had framed up a List of Engagements that made the Roosevelt Itinerary look like Open Time. Clara had arranged to give them a little of Everything except Sleep. Jessamine was tickled nearly to Death. She was waiting all over the Track, waiting for the word "Go!"

So high for Henry, but Jessamine threw a Constriction Fit every time Signor Dagolmi climbed up and hit a Top Note. They went back to the Apartment and ate Stuff out of a Chafing-Dish until 3 a. m. When they turned in, Henry was on the point of Passing Away, but Jessamine was just beginning to warm up and be kitchinish.

"We shall have Oodles of Fun tomorrow," she said. "First we have a Breakfast at the French Restaurant, then a small Luncheon at the Club, then a Musical, then a Dinner at the biggest Hotel on Earth, and then a Show, and then we are all going out Stumping."

"I drop out," said Henry. "One day has put me to the Bed."

"Don't be a Quitter," said Jessamine. "Stick to me and I'll give you the Time of your Life."

Next Day she took him over the Jumps, and he followed with his Tongue hanging out. He did not like to admit that he was not keen up with a 50-pound Canary who was somewhat of an Invalid. But when he sat and watched her eating her fourth Henry Meal and chatting gayly, he tried to figure out how any one with a Waist Measurement of 11 inches could manage it, but the Problem was too much for him.

The third day of Rest included the usual number of Eats, and wound up with one of those Dancing Parties that last until the Germans become peevish and refuse to play any more.

Henry was off in a Corner eating Soda-Mint Tablets and holding on to a Chair to keep from falling off. Jessamine was right out in the center of the Mix-Up, looking as fresh as a Dollar Bunch of Russian Violets. After every Dance she would tear out and get a few Glasses of Knock-Out Punch and eat a couple of Sandwiches, after which she would be ready to do some more two-stepping. When the Orchestra finally struck and she had to pull out, she found Henry in a Comatose Condition leaning against the Hat-Rack. She aroused him and told him the Glad News that they were to get a very Early Start and go out to a nice Road-House and have something to Eat.

Whereupon Henry fell in a Heap and asked to be counted out.

All the way Home in the Carriage she teased him and charged him with a Lack of Appreciation.

"You act like a Dummy," said the indignant Jessamine. "Why don't you cut in and have a Good Time, the same as I do? I don't want People to think that I married a Rube."

"I can lift 1200 pounds in Harness and I can play 72 Holes of Golf without turning a Hair," said the fallen Giant. "But when it comes to eating Little Birds and taking a new kind of Salad every twenty minutes and holding animated Conversation with Perfect Strangers, I am not in your Class. Send for a Trained Nurse. In a Week or so I shall be able to Travel and get back to Hard Work and rest up. In the mean time, go it alone."

So Jessamine put the Weakling on the Shelf and went out and had a Happy Week.

EAT SAUSAGE OR NEW BREAD

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapensin after eating.

Your meals will taste good and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Bloating, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bilelessness, Heartburn, Water-brash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapensin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Paper's Diapensin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

I am going to DOTY'S

FOR ALL MY CANDY. It is made every day in their own Factory, which they have recently fitted up for the making of all kinds of Chocolates—and they are the best I ever ate. No more stale chocolates for me! They also carry a full line of Fruit, Nuts, Fancy Box Chocolates, Toys, etc.

We want Factories here. Are we giving those already located our patronage? Ask your Grocer for DOTY'S Chocolates. Take no substitutes; there are none just as good. Note the excuse he makes for not keeping fresh home-made goods. Ask him if he will vote money to bring in new factories and refuse to buy from these already here.

Build up Medicine Hat. Don't send all the money to Calgary, Winnipeg and the East.

Announcement

G. M. Johnston

Having bought out the CITY business is going out of the feed business and will confine himself strictly to the livery business, at his present quarters North Main St. He will be glad to serve his customers. He would recommend customers to go to Mr. Nichol of Williamson and Nichol when wanting feed as he will continue that branch of the business at the city stables.
