PROTECTIONVILLE.

Having seen no notes from this place in your paper for some time, I thought I would write a few.

The weather here has been very favourable for the crops, and everything looks fine.

We are very sorry to learn that our school teacher Miss McLean is not coming back, and some of the boys are very sad over the matter.

Some of the oldest citizens of this place are leaving.

Mr. John McKay left for Gloucester Mass.

Mr. Thomas Laurie sold his fine farm to Charles Smith. He intends to reside in Chatham in the future.

There are two or three good farms in this settlement now for sale. We would like to see good neighbors have them.

Mr. Henry Newbury has built an addition to his house.

BATHURST

Rev. Wm. Harrison and family leave Bathurst Thursday morning. They intend spending a couple of months at Eastport, Maine, before going to the new circuit at Dorchester.

Mr. Barry and family also Mr. T. Bert and family have gone to Youghall Point for the summer.

Already the "Cottages" at the Point are commencing to fill. Many arrived last week and beside these, there are a number of tourists in the town.

CAPT. SANTIAGO

The World's Highest and Longest Diver.

This astonishing individual, Captain Santiago, uses no parachute, like ordinary, everyday aeronauts; he leaps into no river's open bosom, like your tiresome bridge jumper; he carries no let-me-down-easy balloon paraphernalia, but simply ascends the towering structure, the climbing of which alone is a feat few men would undertake, and reaches the summit of the very topmost pinnacle, appearing to those far below him no larger than an eagle on a mountain's crest. He shouts gaily, throws out his arms, bends forward slowly over the great, frightful, yawning, gaping space between him and the earth, ever so far below him; plunges down, down, down! falling swiftly as the swallow darts; coming rushing, sweeping trackless through the awful void, heels top, head down—surely, every frightened observer chinks, to instant death. Suddenly he turns; swift as lightning is the turn made, and as swiftly made back again, and for many yards this fearless, fighting fireman turns somersaults—He suddenly makes his body rigid, and seems to stop his fall momentarily by doing so. Now he loosens again and descends slower, and with an agility scarcely to be believed, even when seen, he lands safe and sound. Capt. Santiago can be seen by all, free as the air you breathe, doing this twice—once in the morning, once in the evening—on the circus grounds at Newcastle on July 17th with Lemen Brothers' World's Monster Shows.

I HAD A DREAM

It was to the effect that I bought a fine serge suit of clothes, a pair of socks, shoes, underwear, shirt, collar buttons, cuff buttons, collar, necktie, braces, hat, watch and chain.

All for $10.00

I awoke and found that the dream was true; with one exception and that was that I had offered SCHACHTER, the bargain King a $10 bill for all the articles and got a dollar back.
