

RECEPTION TO KAISER.

VISIT TO ENGLAND WILL BE MARKED WITH POMP.

Police Watch Socialists—Section Has Threatened to Make Hostile Demonstration When He Visits London.

London, Nov. 3.—England is to be invaded by royalty during the month of November. The German Emperor and Empress, who it is expected will be accompanied by the Imperial Chancellor, Prince Von Buelow, and to whose visit some political significance is therefore attached, will arrive here on Nov. 11, and will spend a week as guests of King Edward and Queen Alexandra at Windsor Castle, which has been considerably altered and improved for their reception. A staff of several hundred workmen are busy in and around the historic riverside home of the British sovereign, and have already greatly altered the appearance of the grounds and building.

A series of the most elaborate entertainments has been arranged, including theatrical performances and a great State banquet. The visit to the City of London is the cause of some apprehension for a section of the English Socialists have declared their intention of making hostile demonstrations along the line of procession from Paddington Station to the Guild Hall. The police have been forewarned, will make every effort to prevent their carrying out their intentions, but it may prove a matter of some difficulty.

The German Emperor and Empress will land at Portsmouth, where they will be welcomed by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught. The approach to the landing stage will be through lines of British men-of-war, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford having been ordered to take the channel squadron to Spithead to greet Emperor William, who is an Honorary Admiral of the British navy. Three divisions of the Home Fleet will also be present, making it all a considerable display. The visitors will proceed directly from Portsmouth to Windsor. There are to be accompanied, in addition to Prince Von Buelow or some other representatives of the German Foreign Office, by the chiefs of the Emperor's three Cabinets—military, civil and naval; two aides-de-camp, the Minister of War, Lieut-General Von Eimann, who was invited personally by King Edward, a doctor and the usual subordinate suite.

The other royal visitors are coming before the German sovereign, but will remain longer so that one at least of the great entertainments Windsor Castle will shelter no fewer than four ruling European monarchs—the German Emperor and the Kings of England, Spain and Norway. The Kings of Spain and Norway, with their consorts and the infant heirs to their respective thrones, are coming on unofficial visits, but with all the members of the British royal family will go to Sandringham for the celebration of the King's birthday, Nov. 9.

Another event of the month, that will bring together many royalties is the wedding of Don Carlos of Spain and Princess Louise of Orleans, which takes place at Woodnorton, the English home of the Duke of Orleans.

DESPERADO GETS A PARDON.

Emmett Dalton, of Notorious Gang, Free After Long Imprisonment.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—Gov. Hersh issued a pardon yesterday to Emmett Dalton, the ex-desperado, who has been in the Kansas Penitentiary for fifteen years. Dalton has been a model prisoner, and has been "trusty" for years in Lansing.

In 1892, with his brother Bob, and three other companions, he tried to rob the two banks in Coffeyville, Kansas. He and Bob got $22,000 from one and started away, but the other three men had a fight at the other bank, and the Daltons in trying to help the other men lost their opportunity. Bob Dalton was killed and Emmett captured. Emmett was only 20 years old. He was sentenced to death.

Dalton's mother, 92 years old, who lives in Oklahoma, has spent the last two years working for her son's pardon.

U. S. RAILWAYS MUST SHOW CAUSE

Why They Should Not Issue Two-Cent Fare Mileage Books.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Every railroad operating in New York State will be summoned before the Public Service Commission on November 25th to show cause why they should not be directed by the commission to issue interchangeable mileage books of 1,000 and 500 miles at a uniform rate of two cents and without many of the restrictions now placed upon the sale of mileage books by some of the larger companies.

The two-cent fare bill passed by the last Legislature was vetoed by Governor Hughes largely on the ground, as stated in his message, that the subject required a full and fair investigation. Before passing the resolution calling the railroads before them an investigation of fares and mileage throughout the State was undertaken by the commission and an elaborate table was compiled.

Recipe is Easily Prepared at Small Cost, and Many Swear by It.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle and taking in teaspoonful doses after meals and bedtime: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless, ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from any good prescription pharmacy.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

PRINTERS OF 1870.

The Men Who Then Composed the Hamilton Typographical Union.

Mr. Ben. Brass, of the Times job room, has in his possession a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the Hamilton Typographical Union, No. 120, adopted 23rd December, 1869, and printed at the Times office in 1870, which is a curiosity in its way. The officers of the union for 1870 were: William H. Cliff, President; Walter Peddie Campbell, Vice-President; William McAndrew, Recording and Corresponding Secretary; Cornelius Donovan, Financial Secretary; John Horsnell, Treasurer; Alfred Hipkins, Daniel G. Mitchell, Rees Evans, Justus Griffin, Charles Kidner, William S. Nixon, James Doherty, Managing Committee; William C. Hooper, Sergeant-at-Arms. The former President, Mr. Cliff, is still hale and hearty, and is now rated as the oldest printer in the city. The Vice-President, the Secretaries and Treasurer of these days, however, have all finished their "takes," and the rush of getting out the paper troubles them no more. The Vice-President, Mr. Campbell, was for many years foreman of the Times news room, and the Treasurer, Mr. Horsnell, was also a foreman of the Times news room. The Recording and Corresponding Secretary, William McAndrew, was father of the present William McAndrew, also a printer before he became a city employee. Mr. McAndrew, sen., was a good speaker, and was often invited on public platforms advocating Hamilton interests. The Financial Secretary, Mr. Con. Donovan, father of Father Donovan, was foreman of the Times job room before becoming Separate School Inspector. He was also an alderman. Mr. Donovan was an M. A., a well-informed and well-educated man. Four of the Managing Committee are dead—Mr. Charles Kidner (father of Mr. Kidner, proof reader on the Spectator), Daniel G. Mitchell (father of Mr. Charles Mitchell, on the editorial staff of the Herald), William S. Nixon (late Health Inspector), and James Doherty (a former Times employee). Mr. Hooper, the Sergeant-at-Arms, has also passed away. He had been employed on all the city papers at one time or other, and was perhaps one of the best known printers in the city.

Omitting the names of those already mentioned, the following was the list of members in 1870: David Bradford, Ben. Brass, J. C. Buchanan, N. Buchner, John Cronin, James Craig, Joseph Dodson, Archibald Davis, John Duncan, David English, George Ennis, John Flynn, T. L. Hinchliffe, Jasper Hurrell, Thomas Harris, J. V. James, James Kay, Thomas Lawless, David Lee, James Lockman, John E. Lyons, George Matthews, Alex. McPherson, Silas Read, Geo. O. Rieth, Wm. Robb, Robert Redman, James Small, J. Stirling. About half of these are supposed to be still alive. In 1870 the wages were $9 for a week of sixty hours, paid partly in cash and partly in orders for goods on advertisers.

Another event of the month, that will bring together many royalties is the wedding of Don Carlos of Spain and Princess Louise of Orleans, which takes place at Woodnorton, the English home of the Duke of Orleans.

SWINDLED MEN.

OPERATIONS OF OSCAR FREDERICK SPATE AT MONTREAL.

Dominion Building Society Advertised for Collectors and Applicants Were Required to Put Up Money as Security—Spate Fled to Watertown, N. Y.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—The operations of Oscar Frederick Spate, who was chased last night by the police from Montreal to Watertown, N. Y., were unearthed on Sunday morning, when hundreds of young Englishmen, who had been victimized by him, swarmed into Chief Detective Carpenter's office and told their tale of woe.

Spate operated in Montreal under the name of Frederick Sterling. He fitted up handsome offices in the Ottawa Bank building, St. James street, and started what he called the Dominion Building Society. He had also a dozen or more side lines. It is thought that he must have carried away about $30,000 belonging to men who could ill afford to hand over their hard-earned savings.

Spate's plan was to advertise extensively for young men to act as collectors for the Dominion Building Society. Upon application the young men would have to put up a cash guarantee of from $800 to $900 each, and if they proved satisfactory they would be paid from $15 to $20 a week. With the money his collectors put up he skipped.

Spate was arrested a few days ago on a charge of fraud, and last night jumped his bail. He has been traced to Watertown, N. Y., and the police feel sure of securing him.

SHORTAGE IN CASH.

CITY CHAMBERLAIN OF ST. JOHN, N. B., SUSPENDED.

The Audit Shows a Shortage of Ten or Twelve Thousand Dollars—Mr. Sandall, the Official Concerned, Says He Can Explain All Matters Satisfactorily.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 3.—There is excitement in civic circles over the fact that a snap audit of the Chamberlain's books revealed certain discrepancies which have not yet been satisfactorily explained, although an explanation may be forthcoming to-morrow. It appears that at present those who have examined the accounts find that there is from $10,000 to $12,000 not clearly accounted for. This relates to current results.

It may be, and is stoutly maintained by many, that a more thorough examination will show that the larger portion may be accounted for. But it is reported that the books show that several persons in the employ of the city have had advances on their salaries in various sums, mostly under $100, and that the list includes both members and officials of the city government.

The Chamberlain, Mr. Fred. Sandall, not only secures any suggestion of wrongdoing on his own part, but says that within a day or two everything will be satisfactorily explained. The Chamberlain's reputation for honesty has never been questioned. He says: "I am not at liberty to discuss the matter, as it is entirely in the hands of the treasury board. As far as I am concerned I am prepared to go into all the details which may require explanation or adjustment, at the pleasure of the board, and I have no doubt with satisfactory results."

As a precautionary measure the Chamberlain has been temporarily suspended, a course to which he readily consented.

DEATH OF MRS. WIMAN.

Widow of Late Erastus Wiman, Once of Toronto.

New York, Nov. 3.—The funeral of Elmore N. Wiman, formerly capitalist, financier and promoter of New York and Toronto, was held from the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. M. W. Cran, at Rosbank, Staten Island, to-day. She died at her daughter's house after a lingering illness from pneumonia, the same ailment to which her husband succumbed four years ago.

She was a Miss Galbreath, of Quebec, where she was born 32 years ago, and was married to Mr. Wiman in 1880, coming to New York with him when he was made managing partner in the H. G. Dun mercantile agency in 1872. She took very much to heart Mr. Wiman's sudden loss of property and position, through his failure to realize on the great project of developing Staten Island, which led to his complete breakdown and final incarceration in jail on the charge of forgery.

Erastus Wiman founded the old Wiman bath in Toronto.
