House hunting used to be toil.

Many a woman has endured hardships during the period of house hunting preceding the period of moving that has told heavily on her strength. Do not wear yourself out looking for a house. Save your strength. You will need it in these first few days when you want to straighten up your new home.

Instead of trudging up one street and down another, simply turn to the Classified Columns of this newspaper. There you will find houses that are for rent.

If the kind of a dwelling that you want is not published, place your own advertisement stating what you want in next day's paper. Some landlord will see your advertisement and will come to you.

Losing the Use of Our Legs? A French journal gloomily prognosticates that we shall have lost the use of our legs in a generation or two. The tendency of the age is to invest means by which human beings are conveyed from place to place as quickly and cheaply as possible. People certainly walk far less now than they did twenty-five years ago; they will walk less in fifty years' time. When a century has passed, perhaps, our French contemporary suggests, we shall altogether have forgotten how to walk, and our descendants will hop like birds when they are on the level and fly
