FIERY MANIFESTO BY CHURCHILL

Lords and Unionists Have Many Meetings-Gladstone Foresaw Present Fight.

London, Dec. 28 .- From now onward until the day of the general election theer will by an unceasing struggle in the rival political camps until it culmirates in the polling in London on Jan. 14 and in the provinces as a whole on the following day. As will be seen from the list of speakers who took part in to-day's meetings, the Lords are not shirking their share of the work. The speakers at those meetings were Lords Milner, Rothschild, Denbeigh, Newton, Lamington, Desborough and Heneage.

The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, the leader of the Unionists, who has been leader of the Chiomsts, who has been ill for several weeks, is rapidly con-wafescing and will open his political camapign at Henley on Jan. 4 . His other engagements include speeches at Ipswich, Jan. 6; Aberdeen, Jan. 10; York, Jan. 15, and 'Trowbridge, Jan.

18. To-night Sir Edward Grey, Secre-tary for Foreign Alfairs, was the prin-cipal speaker on the Ministerial side. Sir Edward got sarcastic about Tory promises to reforme the House of Lords. If it meant the House of Lords was to be changed into a self-elected body of su-perior persons, it would not be a reform at all, and it would be worth nothing.

CHURCHILL'S FIERY MANIFESTO

CHURCHILL'S FIERY MANIFESTO. A feature of the campaign to-day was the issue of a fiery manifesto to Dundee electors by Winston Churchill. He devotes the larger part of an attack on the House of Lords. Referring to tariff reform as an al-ternative to the budget, he wants to know "is the money to be got from taxes on bread, meat and manufac-tures, or from luxuries, monopolies and superfluities?" Behind the tariff grow the trusts. The whole vast abuse, from millionaire organizers at the top, to the most pitiful investor at the bottom, sits down deliberately to coax, wheedle, bully and bribe new the bottom, sits down deliberately coax, wheedle, bully and bribe new favors from the political caucus whom it is allied. Forces of tion are out for the double with Tavors from the political caucus with whom it is allied. Forces of reac-tion are out for the double event. They are gambling with the right and freedom of the nation. They are run-ning a terrible risk to win a tremen-dous prize—that prize is no less than the complete tying up of the democracy, both through its politics and its indus-try."

try." Mr. Churchill, after eulogizing the German State insurance against unem-ployment and sickness, said it is the system which the Liberals intend to carry even further.

MANY UNIONIST MEETINGS

MANY UNIONIST MEETINGS. The Unionists held more meetings Usan their opponents to-night. The-principal speaker was Lord Roths-child, who addressed a stormy gather-ing in East-end. He said, in re-gard to the budget, what he objected to was the system of beaurocracy it introduced. He added that he would have nothing to do with tariff reform if it increased the cost of living. The Duke of Westminster, at Chester, re-minded the audience of Lloyd-George's pro-Boer days and asked ought a man of his kind to aspire to the position of leader.

LONDON A PICTURE GALLERY.

With boardings and wall fences covered with highly-colored posters and placards, London is being turned into a vast picture gallery. The Torics into a vast picture gallery. The T can claim more artistic work for posters than can the Liberals. An the new phases exhibited are the lowing:

the new phases exhibited are the fol-lowing: "The Radicals shouted against Chi-nese labor in the Transvaal; the Radi-cals don't shout Chinese pork for the British, why?" "Who shouted Chinese slavery?" The Radicals. Who shouted Chinese pork?"

"Have you heard of the Radical Free

"Have you heard of the Banna are Trade in Chinese port?" A well-known Liberal is credited with saying that half a loaf is better than no loaf. Better have a majority of Socialist and Labor men than no major.

The Liberals have made great prepara-ons for the celebration of the centen-y of Gladstone's birth to-morrow.

THE STARS NOT UNANIMOUS. London, Dec. 28.—With professional politicians hopelessly at variance as re-gards the probable outcome of the strug-gle at the polls in England next month, it is disappointing to find that even the stars in their courses are not unani-mous in their prognostications. The Oc-cult Review, which pretends to have ac-ourately foretold the Unionist disasters at the previous elections, is now equally confident that a sensational defeat of the Liberals is to be looked for. On the other hand, Mme. de Thebes, the famous French prophetess, in whose THE STARS NOT UNANIMOUS.

for years to come, and end by finding it forced upon them on different ground, and, indeed, at the very centre and cit-adel of parliamentary institutions.

THE ATTITUDE OF LABOR.

adei of parliamentary institutions. THE ATTITUDE OF LABOR. Mr. Keir Hardie, M. P., speaking at Crewe, said that the budget came as near wrecking the Liberal party as did Home Rule 25 years ago. Why was the Budget League a necessity? Why was the league formed? It was to save the Government from being defeated on the land clauses of its own. The President of the Board of Trade when Conserva-tism was popular was among the ranks, when the Liberals got into power he got into theirs, and now that Socialism was becoming fashionable he almost promised to become a Socialist. He well knew how to trim his sails to catch votes. Mr. Churchill hoged that the Labor can-didate would not be realized in this re-spect. They were told that three-cor-nered contests would let Tories in. If they had listened to that cry there would have been no Labor party to-day. They intended to continue the fight until La-bor became the dominant power in the State. He predicted that 65 Labor can-didates would by the turned at the clea-State. He predicted that the clabor serbor became the dominant power in the State. He predicted that 65 Labor can-didates would be returned at the elec-
