

should be made strenuously rich by this transaction. This man had a white elephant on his hands and was glad to get rid of it. But that did not cross the government's mind.

Hon. Mr. Foster rose to ask a few questions. Was anything more to be paid to the Grand Trunk? The house thought Hon. Mr. Blair had stated the whole case, but he caused further surprise by announcing that fifteen per cent. additional was to be paid to the Grand Trunk.

Mr. Albert Reid, Angus, Ont., was for two years a sufferer from Asthma. A friend of his, Mr. J. H. O'Brien, who was speaking at a meeting of the Intercolonial Association, advised him to take the medicine.

In the Royal Military tournament terminated at Lillingston, England, on the 10th inst., the Canadian military men signally distinguished themselves, defeating in different events, all competitors, both Australian and British regulars.

Mr. Blair made a rather forceful, diverting half an hour in an attack of Sir Charles Tupper and a recital of the opposition leader's alleged misdeeds. When Mr. Blair passionately declared that Sir Charles Tupper had charged him with incompetence, Sir Charles, interrupting, observed that he had made no such charge.

business all over Canada. He was willing to stake his reputation and position as a public man on the success of this business venture, which he said would entail no increase of debt, because it would pay its way even if it did create a debt. He had not supposed Sir Charles Tupper was afraid of debt.

Mr. Blair made no reference to this. Hon. Mr. Foster made rather light of Mr. Blair's heroics, showing that Mr. Blair was still withholding information as to the condition of the railway he had purchased.

Mr. Blair's heroics, showing that Mr. Blair was still withholding information as to the condition of the railway he had purchased. The discussion on this subject closed, to be renewed when Mr. Blair brings down his measure.

SALT RHEUM CURED. GENTLEMEN.—Your Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of salt rheum three years ago. It was so bad that I lost my fingers and I can truly say that I know of no more valuable medicine in the world than B.B.B. I have had no return of salt rheum since.

The Company is one of the most substantial in Canada. Its affairs are controlled by a Board of Directors composed of some of the foremost men in the Dominion. Valuable Mines are Owned by the Company in all principal mining districts in the West, and include:—

Victoria, Daisy, Toronto, Alberta—In the North Fork of the Salmon District. The Voyager—In the Sloan District. The Wellman, the Iva Lenore—In the Boundary Creek District. The Niagara, Rothchild's, Rothchild's Extension, Whiskey Tom—In Colville District.

And other very important purchases are now under the consideration of the management. Development work is progressing rapidly on the properties in every district under the superintendence of mining engineers and superintendents. Several hundred feet of work have already been carried out. Cabins and boarding houses for about 50 men are erected. Large contracts for further work are being let as the old ones run out, and every foot of work reveals improved Ore, and more strongly defined leads.

Shipping Ore is now on the dump of many of our properties, and the value of ore on the others improves every day. The Amount of Cash Capital in the Treasury is sufficient to pay for the whole of our properties, also to spend many times over on each of its development.

The Brokerage Department is all that the Company would wish. The Western Manager is now in the city, and will be pleased to answer personally all and any questions relating to the Company's properties.

HERBERT GUTHBERT, WESTERN MANAGER. C. B. MURRAY, EASTERN MANAGER. Dec. 30, 1896—6 moe.
