This society deserves a big honse, and we hope to hear of Victoria Hall being crowded on the night of the concert. The managers request a full attendance of members at the next practice, on Monday night.

Many persons in this neighborhood will remember a wager made prior to the last general election, by W. J. McCutch-eon and Chas Howson, the former staking $1,000 against $100, that the government would not have 60 of a majority, in the House. Although the government has this majority, their first division only shewed 53, and the wagar was settled by McCutcheon paying $100.

Among the names of vocalists who took part in the second concert of the Ora-torio Society of Winnipeg, held on Fri-day March 16th, we observe that of Mrs. F. S. Hick, formerly of Goderich. The Sun in its report of the concert, says: "Mrs. Hick sang 'Dost Thou Know That Fair Land' in a creditable manner. Mrs. Hick has a deep voice of large scope." The Times says: "Mrs. Hick sang 'Connais tu le pays,' from Mignon,

Presentation to Mr. John C. Currie

On Monday evening last a very pleasing event took place at Horton's hotel, Dunlop, when Mr. J. C. Currie, County High Constable of Huron, was banquetted and made the recipient of a handsome gold-headed cane by the residents of that clachan. Shortly after eight o'clock Mr. J. J. Wright, the well-knewn proprietor of the Point Farm summer hetel, was called to the chair, and that gentleman after making a very able speech explaining the object of the gathering, presented Mr. Currie with the handsome ebony walking cane, after reading the following:
