Auburn.

Isaac Cassaday, baggage man at the G.T.R. Station, Goderich, is rusticated at the old homestead, Auburn.

Dead.—We regret to have to state that Jackson Stitt, well known in Brussels, died on Wednesday night of this week, after a brief illness of about 10 days. The cause of his death was inflammation of the lungs. Mr Stitt had been a resident of Brussels for about 10 years, moving from Auburn here He was unmarried and lived with his mother.—Brussels Post.

Bayfield.

A large three masted American vessel came ashore at 5 o'clock Thursday morning three miles south of Bayfield. She is loaded with 600 tons of pig iron. There were nine men on board of her. It was three in the afternoon before they were all got ashore. The ice banks were forming very fast and had already made a wall 10 feet high. The men were brought ashore in a chair from the croastrees of her rigging, but in such a storm it was a very hard job for the men. The Captain's name is Ketchum, the vessel is the G. W. Davis. A tug was up from the St. Clair river Tuesday to lighten the vessel of some of her cargo. She lies in an easy position and will likely be got off without any very great injury being done to her.

Bluevale.

A political meeting was held in the town hall on Wednesday evening last by Mr Gibson, the nominee of the Reform convention of East Huron. Mr Gibson spoke for a time on the administration of the Mowat Government. He then made room for Dr Bethune, of Wingham, who spoke in the interest of Mr Hays. He gave a very comical address, and kept the house in roars of laughter, especially on repeating his assertions the third time. Dr McDon. aid then took all the points claimed to be made by Dr Bethune, and showed by the books, how Dr No. 1 was wrong. But it appears the Conservatives are not going by books this time. The Dr then went on to say that he soon would be before the people himself, therefore he asked the privilege of showing something of the workings of the Government at Ottawa. The best of feeling prevailed. Two ministers were in the hall, and afterwards all repaired to the church, where they were treated to a fine literary entertainment. On Tuesday evening a social was held to get rid of the scraps, when again the house was crowded. The receipts amounted to about $59.

O'Donovan Rosses has been expelled from the Fenian Brotherhood and denounced by Michael Davitt.
