It is not necessary to say anything concerning his qualifications for the position, as it is well known that he is in every respect well-fitted for it, and has what very few others have, plenty of time to attend to the cuttes required of one holding the office, and we have pleasure in bringing his name before, the public. We only hope name before the public. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately fl vored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourisned frame. —"Civil Service Gazette."
