LONDON, Nov. 24.

Apparently fearing that the delay in the statement Sir Edward Grey will make in regard to Anglo-German relations would increase anxiety in Germany and Britain, and would develop further ill-feeling, the Government has put the olive branch into the hands of Sir J. A. Simon, Solicitor-General, with instructions to wave it publicly in a speech at Bath last night, after disavowing any intention of forestalling the statement of the Foreign Secretary, the Solicitor-General said: "We rejoice in a good, firm understanding with France, but the fact that we are friends with France does not mean that we are the enemies of anybody. The Democracy of this country does not allow such distortion of our relations with one Power as would involve us in any unfriendliness with another. Let us send the Democracy of Germany a message that we are holding the same faith as a majority of them, and cannot tolerate even the idea of mutual ill-feeling." The speech was interrupted frequently by enthusiastic cheers.

LONDON, Nov. 24.

Not for a generation have foreign affairs aroused so much intense excitement in parliamentary circles as at present. Grey's statement as to the Morocco incident on Monday next is anticipated with the liveliest interest, and is not untinged with anxiety. The Minister's resignation is regarded in many quarters as the possible outcome of the situation, but his position is strengthened by the fact that his retirement from the Cabinet will be signalled by Germany as a decisive triumph, comparable only with that which was achieved in the case of M. Delcasse. The immediate danger is a further outbreak of resentment at Berlin, which many say will sweep Germany's Government from the pacific standpoint it has held. The reception of Sir Edward Grey's speech is thus a matter of grave moment as regards the question of Europe's speech.

Champions Dined.

Last night the Old Boys of the Methodist College entertained at Woods West End Restaurant for their prowess in winning the Inter-Collegiate Football Championship for three years in succession and becoming owners of the Cup presented by the Newfoundland Football League. The tables were appropriately decorated, the Trophy and a photo of the winning team occupying a prominent position. Principal Harrington presided and was supported by some guests chiefly clergy and old boys. Besides these and the team there were present representatives from the other college teams and Referee Horwell, Messrs. H. E. Cowan, H. Bastow and F. J. King, who also presided at the piano, contributed songs which added gaiety to the banquet. The Rev. Charles Lench was quite at home in a happy, humorous and witty vein, showing the large part played by the Clergy in the making of the nation in the old days. Indeed by their presence and their encouraging speeches the Clergy were to the fore in fraternising with those who are making for a good clean healthy sport in our midst. The toast list was as follows:—

The King—Prop. The Chairman; Resp., "God Save the King."

The Methodist College—Prop. Mr. H. E. Cowan; Resp. Mr. J. D. Davies.

The Methodist College Football Team—Prop. Mr. T. Duley; Resp. Mr. G. Hayward.

The Newfoundland Football League—Prop. Mr. G. Peters; Resp. Mr. W. Pippy.

Sister Clubs and Referee—Prop. Mr. Goodman; Resp. Messrs. Horwell (referee), Halley (St. Bon's), Rendell (Feldiana).

The Clergy—Prop. Mr. J. P. Blackwood; Resp. Rev. C. Lench.

Old Boys—Prop. Mr. S. J. Tucker; Resp. Mr. J. Mitchell.

The Press—Prop. Rev. M. Fenwick; Resp. Representatives.

The Ladies—Prop. Rev. J. Bartlett; Resp. Rev. F. R. Matthews.

The festive meeting was brought to a close about midnight by the singing of the National Anthem and Auld Lang Syne.

Cascarets Work While You Sleep.

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills are violent—they act on bowels as pepper acts in nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

I. O. G. T.

The open meeting of Onward Lodge which was held last evening in Victoria Hall was attended by a fairly large and enthusiastic audience.

The Rev. Dr. Rogers, upon being introduced by the Chairman, Lodge Deputy Stirling, received a genuine and hearty "Cead Mile Failte." The rev. gentleman started out with a review of his earliest connections with the Temperance movement, and in eloquent diction traced the progress made in all these years up to the present, and from exordium to peroration held the close attention of his audience.

Mr. I. C. Morris followed, and after welcoming Dr. Rogers to a Good Templar platform, gave one of his earnest addresses, and made an eloquent appeal to those who had not already done so to join the Order.

Lodge Deputy Pike, of George Boyd Lodge, in a short but interesting speech moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Rogers for his able and encouraging address. This was carried by a standing vote. The addresses were interspersed with several well known hymns which were heartily sung by all present. If last night's meeting be an index of what Onward Lodge intends doing in the future then a successful winter's work will doubtless be recorded.

After a few words from the Chairman the meeting was closed by Dr. Rogers pronouncing the Benediction.

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

I had taken ponds of poison, I had taken loads of pills, in a fierce, prolonged endeavor to alleviate my ills; from a thousand drugstore flaggers I had blown the costly foam, and I talked about my symptoms. THE CHRONIC toms till the all-fired cows came home. And I used to INVAID grieve me vastly that my friends refused to stand while I talked of my diseases and my aches, to beat the band. Then my Uncle Jeremiah came and sat beside my cot, and he said: "I will not listen to a string of tommyrot; you have talked about your ailments, you have brooded o'er your pains, till you think them living issues, and they've soured your poor old brains. I have come around to cure you, and I will," my uncle said, and he took me by the ankles and he hauled me out of bed. Then he made me don my raiment and he chased me out of doors, and he urged me with a pitchfork till I helped him do the chores. All the day he kept me humming and when I paused to tell of my handsome line of symptoms, he would simply give a yell, and look around him for a dornick; so I learned to hold my peace, and I also learned the value, as a cure, of elbow grease!

The Farewell of Lt.-Colonel Rees.

To-morrow (Sunday) will be an extra special day at the Salvation Army Citadel, New Gower Street, the occasion being the farewell services of Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Rees. On Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, a great final public meeting will be held in the Citadel, when the Minister of Justice will preside, supported by a large number of public gentlemen to wish God-speed to the Colonel and his wife.
