REPORT

Of the Officers of the Benevolent Irish Society for the Year Ending February 17th, 1912.

Your officers congratulate the Society on attaining its 106th anniversary, and beg to present the following

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated with the time honored parade. Meeting at 9.15 a.m., and accompanied by the Church Lads Bridgade and Catholic Codes. Cadet Corps bands, the members pro-ceeded via New Gower and Hamilton Streets to St. Patrick's Church, where High Mass was offered by Rev. Fr. Pippy, who was assisted by Rev. Dr. Greene and Rev. Fr. Kelly; His Grace the Archbishop occupying the Throne. After Mass the Rev. Fr. McDermott preached the panegyric on the Saint of the Day presenting. the Day, presenting a discourse which for depth of thought, richness of expression, and true oratorical construction has rarely, if ever, been sur passed in all the able efforts which have annually been offered to the Society. From the Church the Society proceeded via Water, Cochrane and Gower Streets to Government House, where their Excellencies Sir Ralph and Lady Williams graciously received the body. The President tendered the Society's expression of loyalty and good-will to the person and Throne of His Majesty, and the King's representative in his response expressed an especial pleasure in meeting a Society whose aims he so much admired. Continuing via Military Road His Grace the Archbishop was visited at the Episcopal Library as usual, and to the ongratulations offered by the Presilent made an interesting and topical reply. Rt. Rev. Mgr. Roche and Rev. Brother Kennedy also made short addresses. As in the past, the day was happily concluded by a presentation in the theatre at night by the Society's when on his last inspection of our dramatic troupe of an appropriate Irish drama. The troupe's high stanschools declared them second to none amongst the many conducted by this dard of excellence was again maintained and the financial result was this connection we feel sure we voice the sentiments of the body when we likewise successful. On June 22nd and 23rd, the Sosay how pleased we are that the es teemed Superior, Rev. Brother Ken ciety joined with the various other organizations of the city in the reoicings in honor of the Coronation of heir Most Gracious Majesties, King George the Fifth and Queen Mary. The Hall was appropriately decorated beday and illuminated at night. Your of ficers also represented the body at the State service held on the occasion. On Friday, July 21st, the member assembled at the King's wharf at o'clock a.m., and, in union with the arious Catholic societies, escorte com there to the Palace the Apostoli Delegate His Excellency Mgr. Stagni At. 7.30 p.m. on the same day the members assembled at the hall and took part in the joint parade of the same bodies through the city in honor of the distinguished visitor. The mani-festations of popular welcome exceed-ed anything in the memory of the old-st member on the roll, the entir he illuminations and other evidence joy being of magnificent splendo On Sunday July 23rd, in company with the representatives of the othe societies your officers attended Ponti fical High Mass at the Cathedral where an address of welcome from the itizens of St. John's was presented t

The officers met at 9.45 a.m. of Sunday, July 29th, and with the Ex cutives of the different Catholic bod-es proceeded to St. Patrick's Church where his First Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Mos Rev. Dr. Power. After Mass a con gratulatory address from the societie vas read by the President of this in titution, which was suitably replie to by the new prelate.

It was the sad privilege of your officers to take part in the funer obsequies of two much esteemed mem bers of the Catholic Priesthood, or fonday, August 14th, in the case of the late Mgr. Browne, Vicar-General of St. George's diocese, and on Janu ary 29th, in that of the Rev. E. F. Cur ran, Curate of Pouch Cove, whos tragic end was so generally regretted On both occasions your officers at tended the Requiem Mass, afterward cting as a Guard of Honor at the unerals.

During the year the Society als ost the presence of one of its most conspicuous members in the person of the Rev. Fr. Clarke, for very mai the Rev. Fr. Clarke, for very many years parish priest of Torbay. In accordance with the resolution adopted at a meeting of the Society an address was presented to the rev. gentleman before his departure for Ireland expressive of our appreciation of his great services in the cause of Education when the services in the cause of Education was according to New York and Torband Torba on during his long sojourn in New snow storm raged, as Martha Mignette a spinster aged 60, of 2 Bambrick Street, was passing up New Gower Street, she was seen by the few persons about to stagger and fall in the drifts near Buchanan Street. As she did not make any attempt to rise. Mrs. Hogan, who was the first to notice the woman, called a man named Bartholomew Halfyard as he passed by and he with another man picked her up and placed her on a team which was near, and as they saw that the poor creature was very ill, drove-quickly to Dr. Campbell's surgery, which is quite near. She was taken into the surgery and Drs. Cowperthwaite and Stafford, who were called by telephone, quickly responded but found that life had been extinct for several minutes. As a
