SATURDAY, Jan. 25, 1913.

Notes and Comments.

Union is strong.
The Empire Review for January quotes the Morris 1910 Loan at 91.

The firing of joy guns last Friday and Saturday at Bay Roberts has annoyed the Morris supporters. They disapprove of it. When joy-guns were fired for Morris it was just the thing. That was another story.

"The Hon. Robert Bond, an able and honest Colonial statesman, sufficiently independent in point of wealth to be able to resist the inducements of rich capitalists." What better testimonial could a political opponent give a statesman?

What does the coup at Constantinople mean? If war is resumed the result will probably be that the Turkish Government will be kicked bag and baggage out of Europe, where they have been encamped for over 500 years.

Where are the new markets that Morris promised to open up in Mexico, Central and South America, and other parts of the world where our fish does not enter. Answer echoes where?

Where are the bait freezers that Morris promised some four years ago to establish at points around the coast that would be easily accessible to fishermen, when the ordinary source of bait was lacking?

The Hon. Donald Morison in discussing the position of Newfoundland with a representative of the Montreal Gazette some little time ago said "it was the impression that the Morris Government had more than held its own before the people of the Island of Newfoundland." The Hon. Donald Morison forgot the 15,000 Union men of the North who have lined up against the Government. He also forgot the big demonstration and resolutions passed against the Morris Government at Bonaville. The big demonstrations at Port de Grave and Bay Roberts he will hear of by and bye. If the Hon. Donald had said there was a general dissatisfaction at his acquirement of the holding in the Anglo-American Development Co., he would have been nearer the mark, or said that he had advised that the prospective buyers of the Orange Bay property could hold more than his own, he would have opened the eyes of the Gazette reporter.

Why does the Board of Trade find it necessary to protest so vigorously and so often about the way the Bait Act is being enforced by the Government? It is clear enough that those interested in the fishery are not satisfied with the way the Government have been acting.

This clipping is from the Annual Report:-

"The Council with every desire to conserve the welfare of the Colony, have felt it their duty to make a strong protest against the diversion of the Flona from her bait protection service unless replaced by a suitable substitute. It is well known that the appearance of bait on our coast cannot be predicted with any certainty, and it frequently happens that when it is least expected, it strikes in abundance. After very careful inquiry, and the obtaining of the fullest possible information, the Council became convinced that a considerable quantity of squid had been carried to St. Pierre by the fishermen of some parts of Placentia and Fortune Bays; the Council are also credibly informed that a considerable quantity is now stored in St. Pierre for use of the French Bankers next Spring. Not only has this bait been carried in contravention of the law, but its presence in St. Pierre is a menace to the successful marketing of our Bank fish next year. The Council therefore urge as strongly as it is possible for them to do, that the law should in future be rigidly enforced, for it is only by the greatest possible vigilance that our bait fishes can be preserved for the use of our own people.

At the City Hall.

The weekly session of the Municipal Council was held yesterday afternoon. W. Sparkes submitted plan of house to be erected on Springdale Street. Deferred.

Inspector Rooney reported that the P. N. Co. was fitting a salt water pump at dock for testing ships tanks. This will conserve city supply; he also reported that fresh water had been used on board H. M. S. Calypso for flushing the decks. Ship's Commanders will be written.

City Appraisers Godden and Kelly asked for increase of pay. Deferred. The Sanitary Supervisor reported on the weeks work and asked for repairs to the lighting system at the stables. Referred to Engineer to enquire into condition of wiring.

Engineer will execute plan of Sanitary Stables, for estimation of value of the property as the Council may get clear of it soon.

Parties allowing taps to run, and wasting water must comply with regulations. The Imperial Tobacco Company can place ashes on the vacant land opposite factory.

No more night soil will be dumped at the head of Pleasant Street. With the passing of pay rolls and bills the meeting adjourned.

LONDON, To-day.

Special Evening Telegram.
WASHINGTON, To-day.

There is some expectation in official circles here that the British Foreign Office will greatly facilitate the conclusions of negotiations regarding the Panama Canal tolls by referring Secretary Knox's note to Ambassador Bryce with instructions that will give him practically a free hand in dealing directly with the Secretary of State and Chancellor Anderson who was instrumental in framing the American note in an effort to reach a satisfactory conclusion.

Special Evening Telegram.
CONSTANTINOPLE, To-day.

Nazim Pasha, Commander of the Turkish army, received a death wound while expostulating with a crowd of demonstrators for having become embroiled in a conflict at Grand Vizierate. The official version of the affair termed it a "Regrettable Incident." When the demonstrators headed by Enver Bey, one of the leaders of the Young Turk party, penetrated the Grand Vizierate in the attempt to enter the Council Chamber, they were stopped by Fazil Bey, Aide de Camp to the Grand Vizier, who, drawing a revolver, fired a shot at them. The A.D.C. of Nazim Pasha also fired at the crowd; his bullet striking Mahmud Nedjir, one of the demonstrators. The demonstrators thereupon repelled and Nazim's Aide de Camp was instantly killed. Nazim Pasha, who was in the Council Chamber heard the shot rushed out side and facing the demonstration he upbraided them, calling them all manner of curs. While he was speaking a bullet cut short his remarks. He fell dead. A secret police agent and attendant of Sheikh-ul-Islam, head of the Mohammedan clergy, was also killed.

The Police Court.

Five young men were charged with the larceny of a goose on the 22nd inst. Two pleaded guilty and the other three pleaded not guilty. The charge against one of them was withdrawn, and he was put in the witness box. Two of the others were each fined $20 or 30 days. The others were discharged.

Two drunks were discharged.

An assault case was dismissed and another was withdrawn.

Two lads were convicted on three charges of larceny. They were sentenced to 6 months for each offence, or 18 months in all.

McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, Jan. 25, 1913.
The Olwara Nail Brush is certainly the best and most serviceable brush of the scrubber type for the hands that we have seen. Owing to its "many sidedness" it will stand much more wear than brushes of the ordinary type. It is convenient to handle and does its work with thoroughness. Price 25c. each.

McMurdo's Shampoo Powders are one of the best things for a quick and good shampoo. They cleanse the hair and scalp entirely from dust, dandruff and scurf, and so help the growth of the hair. With the occasional use of Cantharine Hair Tonic in connection with the Shampoo Powders you will be able to keep your hair in good condition for an indefinite period. Price (Powders) 5c. each, 6 for 25c. (Tonic) 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

Attila Towed to Port.

The barg. Attila, Capt. Morgan, was towed to port at eleven o'clock to-day by the tug D. P. Ingraham. She came from Pernambuco in ballast to Baine Johnston & Co. and was thirty-seven days on the passage. The vessel had moderate weather until reaching the Grand Banks when severe storms were encountered. The Attila was knocked about badly but behaved splendidly and sustained no damage. On Saturday last, the vessel, was nearing this port when suddenly a terrific storm raged with a heavy sea running and Capt. Morgan decided to put into Cape Breton for shelter, at which port she was detained for a week by rough weather.

FINE ACROSS COUNTRY. — The snow which we experienced here prevailed across country and a good deal of "the beautiful" fell. The trains are running with plows. The weather to-day is fine all over the country and all the trains are on time.
