the last 24 hours. These forces come from the Western war theatre. Other German troops from the Eastern theatre are rushing to the Southern front through Innsbruck. AT HOME.

I pity the fellow who has a home! No wonder gray hairs are upon his dome! No wonder he grumbles and grunts and sighs, and brushes the briny from both his eyes; I'd rent no palace of brick or stone; for an odd caboose I can call my own, is better far, though it's cheap and small, than a fine hotel or a rented hall. I want to sit on my dinky porch, and pull away at a five cent torch, and mark the growth of the sparrowgrass, or pull the weeds from the garden sash. I want to tinker around at dawn, and nail a board where I see one's gone, or tie a string to the pumpkin vine, and know that everything there is mine. I'd rather live in a shabby cot, with a lop-eared cow in the stable lot, and a barbed wire fence and a row of trees, and a swayed dog and a swarm of bees, and have no debts that would spoil my sleep, than have a hall with a donjon keep, and a mortgage big as the village square, though pomp and splendor were reigning there. To have a home and be out of debt—well, that is truly the best scheme yet!

CABLE SHIP HERE.

The cable ship Minia arrived in port at 8 p.m. yesterday having put back from Baccalla owing to ice conditions. The Minia is on the way to Trinity Bay to repair the cable connecting New York and Heart's Content and which was damaged by a large iceberg grounding thereon some time ago.

Amusements.PANTOMIME AND CONTEST AT ROSSLEY'S.

The gala night in St. John's is the contest night at Rossley's for every one is anxious to see their own talent, and there is lots of it. Jack Rossley, the popular proprietor of the East and West End Theatres, is making those contests very enjoyable.

In the first place they are conducted in good style, and no noise or anything rough is tolerated, therefore patrons are assured of a good night's enjoyment. To-night there will be the double contest; there will be the six first prize winners to compete, beside the usual contest to make up another six; there will also be the full pantomime. The early doors will be open at 6.45 p.m. to avoid the crush and those intending to sing must come in by the side door. Patrons will be delighted with the pantomime for it is the event of the season and its at Rossley's East End Theatre.

TWO SONGS AT THE POPULAR CRESCENT.

Mr. Delmonico sings two songs at the popular Crescent to-day. (a) "Don't Blame it all on Broadway" and (b) "Play in the Game of Love," illustrated. Both are new and popular songs selected with a view of pleasing Crescent patrons. The picture programme consists of seven first class pictures the productions of the best film manufacturing companies, made up of drama and comedy; read the regular advertisement for particulars then go to the Crescent and see this big show.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

There was a crowded house as usual at the popular Little Theatre. Miss Kathleen Barnes sang sweetly and was loudly applauded. To-night there will be an entire change of programme. The contest at Rossley's East End Theatre promises to be the best yet. A large number of names have been handed in, and with the grand pantomime is one long night's entertainment.

A MASTERPIECE.

"The Curse of Greed," by the Gaumont artists at the Casino Theatre last night was seen by hundreds of people who were exceptionally well pleased with this magnificent production. There is a well defined moral aspect to this story, for in unmistakable manner is shown the fact that crime never goes unpunished, and that those who suffer eventually receive reward and justice. If anyone has any desire to see how far a person will go along the road of crime in order to satisfy any particular passion then this is the opportunity—visit the Casino and witness "The Curse of Greed." It is a marvellous production and should not be missed by anyone.

MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY AT MATINEE TO-MORROW.

Then there are four other beautiful subjects including a two-reel mm. Besides the pictures there will be high class singing and music. The bumper matinee takes place to-morrow afternoon when "The Million Dollar Mystery" will be put on as an extra. They will be delighted to see this most interesting film. All the older folk are delighted with it and the children are sure to be pleased, too.

Heroic England.

"To the Heroic England," by Newman Howard, in the Athenaeum, has reference to an incident in Dostoevsky's "The Brothers Karamazov":

Zossima, speechless, dying, rose and blest His kneeling flock, the mundane men of worth; But to one youth he bowed him to the earth— Mitry, whom now the frolic rogues possess: For light from some new life made manifest A sleeping sorrow in that soul of mirth. A travail and a sacramental birth. A door flung open and a sudden Guest

Ah, so dear sons of Britain, you that cry Gay on the march: "Are we down-hearted? No!" Your lives flung down lest Liberty should die— Mirth crowns with majesty your sorrow. That I, grown old before the Teuton woe, Bow my gray head as when the Host goes by.

WHEN DINNER COMES

One Ought to Have a Good Appetite.

A good appetite is the best sauce. It goes a long way toward helping in the digestive process, and that is absolutely essential to health and strength.

Many persons have found that Grape-Nuts food is not only nourishing but is a great appetizer, and children like the taste of it and grow strong and rosy from its use.

It is especially the food to make a weak stomach strong and create an appetite for dinner.

"I am 57 years old," writes a grandmother, "and have had a weak stomach from childhood. By great care as to my diet I enjoyed a reasonable degree of health, but never found anything to equal Grape-Nuts as a standby."

"When I have no appetite for breakfast and just eat to keep up my strength, I take 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with good rich milk, and when dinner comes I am hungry. While I go without any breakfast I never feel like eating dinner. Grape-Nuts for breakfast seems to make a healthy appetite for dinner."

"My little grandson was sick with stomach trouble during the past summer, and finally we put him on Grape-Nuts. Now he is growing plump and well. When asked if he wants his nurse or Grape-Nuts, he brightens up and points to the cupboard. He was no trouble to wean at all—thanks to Grape-Nuts."

Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
