HOSPITAL SHIPS SUNK.

LONDON, May 10. Two further hospital ships have been torpedoed by German submarines since British airplanes raided the town of Freiburg as reprisal for the previous sinking of hospital ships. Andrew Bonar Law, member of the British War Council announced to-day in the Commons.

IN MACEDONIA.

LONDON, May 10. Attacking on a front of about four miles in the Lake Doiran region, in Macedonia, British troops on one wing took Teutonic Allied trenches on a front of two miles and on the other flank advanced on a front of about a mile, according to the official statement from the Macedonian front, issued to-night. The communication, which is dated Salonika, Wednesday, says: After artillery preparation lasting several days, our troops attacked the enemy's trenches from a point southwest of Lake Doiran on a front of about four miles. On the left we captured the enemy's trenches on a front of two miles and advanced our line to an average depth of five hundred yards. We consolidated these new positions and during the night we captured the enemy's trenches between the Lake and Petit Nouvonne on a front of about a mile. The enemy, however, heavily counter attacked our new position on this part of the front, and after determined hand-to-hand fighting, in which our troops inflicted severe losses, they were forced back by superior numbers on their own trenches. Bombing raids by airplanes on enemy tents, sheds and transports caused much damage. One and a half tons of explosives were attacked with good effect.

BRITISH PROGRESS.

LONDON, May 10 (Official). Further reports show that the fighting in the neighborhood of Bullecourt yesterday was severe and continuous. We made progress in spite of repeated and costly efforts on the part of the enemy to shake our hold on his positions, none of which met with success. During the night our line was advanced by local fighting east of Griecourt and south of the Souchez River, where we captured a portion of the enemy's front support lines with a number of prisoners. Hostile raiding parties were driven off last night, northeast of Givency les Basse.

The official from the British Headquarters in France to-night reads: We advanced our line slightly during the morning on the south bank of the Scarpe. At noon to-day under cover of a heavy bombardment the enemy renewed his attack upon our positions on the Hindenburg line east of Bullecourt. His attack was completely repulsed by our troops. Further hostile counter attacks delivered during the night near Fresnoy were equally unsuccessful. A part of the enemy raided our trenches early this morning southeast of Ypres. A few of our men are missing. There was again heavy air fighting yesterday. Six German machines were put out of control. Five of our airplanes have not returned.

NAVAL PROGRAMME.

LONDON, May 10. During a discussion of the shipping problem in the Lords to-day, Earl Curzon said the Admiralty had the first claim and the first call on the national shipbuilding resources. The result of the British naval program, he stated, would be that after the war Britain's naval tonnage would exceed the naval tonnage of all other nations of the world. In the Commons, where the tonnage question also was under discussion, Sir Leo G. Chinoza Money, representing the Shipping Controller, informed the House that 92 per cent. of the total available tonnage had been placed at the disposal of the Food Controllers, War Office, Admiralty and the Minister of Munitions, leaving only eight per cent. for other uses in conveying commodities.

DESTROYERS IN ACTION.

LONDON, May 10. A destroyer action, in which four British destroyers pursued eleven German destroyers to within range of the land batteries of Zeebrugge, is announced by the Admiralty. One enemy destroyer was hit. The text of the Admiralty statement reads: A scouting force consisting of light cruisers and destroyers from Harwich, under Commander Tyrwhitt, while cruising between the Dutch and English coasts this morning, sighted a force of eleven German destroyers at about four o'clock, Greenwich time, parallel with her course and to the southward. Our forces immediately closed, and on our opening fire the enemy at once made off at full speed southward under cover of a dense smoke screen. The chase continued for an hour and twenty minutes, and the enemy was engaged at long range but our force was unable to overtake them. Four British destroyers chased eleven German destroyers to within range of the guns and batteries of Zeebrugge. Our casualties were one man slightly wounded. Enemy destroyers were seen to be hit by our fire.

ON THE SERBIAN FRONT.

LONDON, May 10. The Serbian official dated May 9, reports artillery duels along the whole Serbian front. The Bulgarians again bombarded Monastir with asphyxiating shells, the statement adds, and a number of civilians were killed.

HUNS REPULSE ATTACKS.

BERLIN, May 10. A British local attack at Bullecourt says the official issued this evening, and a French attack northeast of Fresnoy were repulsed.

GERMANY AND FOODSTUFFS.

LONDON, May 10. Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of Blockade, stated in the Commons to-day that the British Government had no reason to believe any American foodstuffs or feeding stuffs would be passed by neutral countries into Germany. The question of the conditions under which the import of American supplies by neutrals would be permitted in future, he added no doubt, would receive the closest attention by the United States Government.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE PRESIDENT MENCAL.

HAVANA, May 10. An attempt was made last night to assassinate President Menocal, of Cuba, by means of a bomb explosion. Nine arrests were made before the conspirators could carry out their plan.

REPORT DENIED.

BERLIN, May 10. The report that recently an attempt was made to assassinate the Emperor, is denied officially in a statement made to-day.

SLIGHT PROGRESS.

LONDON, May 10. Progress was made last night to the fact that the British plans for the Arras offensive were completed in February, before the German retreat began. Despite the German claims, we have continued our offensive, according to plans prepared during that month. Since the offensive began we have taken twice the amount of prisoners, four times the amount of ground, five times the number of guns taken in the Somme offensive. The British and French between them have captured fifty thousand prisoners, and 450 guns. If this is the result of defeat, then we are willing to go on being defeated. We have kept on going and we are going to keep on going. The Arras offensive is much bigger than the Somme. Our next offensive will be bigger than the Arras. Regarding the German casualties it is impossible of course to give figures, but there is no disputing the fact that they have been terrible, incomparably

GERMANS HOLD FRENSOY.

BERLIN, May 10. Fresnoy is completely in our hands, says an official statement.

SINN FEINER ELECTED.

LONDON, May 10. Joseph McGuinness, Sinn Feiner, was elected to the House of Commons for the Southern Division of Longford, Ireland. The figures were: McGuinness, Sinn Feiner, 1,498; McKenna, Nationalist, 1,461.

GERMAN REPRISALS.

BERLIN, May 10. Official statement: In reprisals for placing a German General and fifteen staff officers on French hospital ships, German authorities have placed thrice this number of French officers at points especially subject to aerial attacks.

THE WAR SITUATION.

LONDON, May 10. The recent partial success of the Germans at Fresnoy on the Arras front in France, has not upset the British plans of operation, nor has it caused surprise, said Major-General Frederick B. Maurice, Chief Director of military operations at the war office, in his weekly statement to-day. As a matter of fact, the General added, the British staff has been surprised that the Germans have not succeeded before in making gains in view of the tremendous counter attacks which they have been hurling against the British front. Large bodies of Teutons continually have been sent against the British over open ground, without any apparent regard for casualties, but the British have held their line, when it might have been expected they would give way, and have inflicted heavy losses on their opponents. The Germans have hurled great reserves into the Arras conflict, employing people from Belgium and other conquered territory to release more Germans for military service. The British forced the Germans to use up twice as many reserves as were employed in the Somme offensive, which ranks next to the present one in magnitude. The Germans claimed that by their so-called strategic retreat they inflicted great defeat on the British with respect to their plans and that the Teutons held the situation in their own hands. Let me point again to the fact that the British plans for the Arras offensive were completed in February, before the German retreat began. Despite the German claims, we have continued our offensive, according to plans prepared during that month. Since the offensive began we have taken twice the amount of prisoners, four times the amount of ground, five times the number of guns taken in the Somme offensive. The British and French between them have captured fifty thousand prisoners, and 450 guns. If this is the result of defeat, then we are willing to go on being defeated. We have kept on going and we are going to keep on going. The Arras offensive is much bigger than the Somme. Our next offensive will be bigger than the Arras. Regarding the German casualties it is impossible of course to give figures, but there is no disputing the fact that they have been terrible, incomparably larger than ours. General Maurice was asked whether the Germans appeared to have withdrawn troops from the eastern front for use in the west. He replied there was no indication of this. On being asked whether the Russian crisis was causing any uneasiness in military circles, he said, naturally there must be some uneasiness until the new Government is firmly on its feet.

Fads and Fashions.

They are even combining organady with serge. Pongee collars in two colors are the newest. Blue and black checks make a chic street dress. Summer evening wraps are always of silk.

There should be one wide-brimmed hat in the wardrobe. Waistbands and corselet belts are very deep and distinctive.

Forced on Shore Through Illness.

The fishermen of the Labrador, from Battle Harbor north to Nain, will be sorry to hear that their old friend Capt. Parsons, who for close on fifty years has sailed in and out of their harbors, will not be able to visit them again this season. The veteran captain, who was taken seriously ill at North Sydney some weeks ago, has not yet recovered and as a consequence will be forced to remain on shore this season. Capt. Burgess, who was in charge of the Neptune on the Labrador service last year, will command one of the steamers on that route this season. Evening coats are lined with Georgette crepe.
