When Butter Sold for Eight Cents a Pound

At Hynes' auction rooms down on Water Street it was possible at one time to buy a pound of good butter for eight cents, "must be a long time ago," you say. Yes, it was. But still in that far away time there was one product very popular which is still a favourite with many people and that is

IVORY SOAP.

Ivory has stood the severest tests of time and is now used extensively by modern mothers who realize that the delicate faces and hands of children require a soap that is pure and soothing. Ivory is pure and soothing and delightful to wash with.
