Applications For Sweepstakes and Raffles Refused

We understand that several applications have been made to Judge Morris for permission to hold sweepstakes and raffles of poultry and other goods during the Christmas season, but that permission has been withheld in all cases. The Orphanages and the War Veterans, however, have been granted permission to hold raffles from the eighteenth of December until the end of the month.

The Judge's decision will, we think, meet with the cordial approval of the general public. While it is not our intention to enter into a discussion of the merits or demerits of the Lottery Act, the fact is patent to all that the practice has in the last year or two not only been overdone but abused, and the effect of restricting it will be beneficial without a doubt.

Everyone who patronizes the Annual Regatta deplores the presence of the numerous wheels of fortune; the magnetic influence of which has tended to make the athletic contests of secondary consideration, and the result of a race important only so far as it decides the value of the ticket held. No one who has watched the poor people spending a few pennies on a ticket in the hope of securing a cheap goose or a turkey, but must feel sorry for them when, searching in vain for another coin, they realize that some more ordinary bill of fare must take the place of the bird on Christmas Day.

Apart from the influence exercised by the raffle, it has materially interfered with legitimate business on the street, and while a few may be deprived of a cheap bird by closing down on the wheels, it is certain that the great majority will be considerably less out of pocket in connection with the expenses at Christmas time.

Women and the Vote

On Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Nfld. League of Women Voters, Mr. J. L. Paton, the President of the Memorial College is delivering an address in the Casino on "Women and the Vote." A small entrance fee will be charged to defray expenses in connection with the hiring of the Hall and the net proceeds will be devoted to the Permanent Marine Disaster Fund.

The philanthropic object of the meeting is one upon which nothing can be said, particularly at this season of the year, that will add to the solicitude of the citizens for those who "go down to the sea in ships and do business in great waters," nor is it necessary to write at length upon the importance of making the women of this city and the country generally realize fully the privilege and power which they possess by having secured the franchise. That side of the question will, we feel certain, be adequately covered by the learned lecturer. We should, however, like to emphasize the necessity for the women to take their full share of interest in public matters and to make their influence felt now that they have the vote. It is not some form of ornamentation, and it adds nothing to their importance unless they use it, and use it with discretion and judgment. There is no privilege, but carries with it responsibilities, a fact which is only too often forgotten.

Rev. Dr. Chown at Cochrane Street

The congregation of Cochrane Street, Continental United Church is to have the honor of hearing the Rev. Dr. Chown of Toronto, who laid the foundation stone of the "peace" church, preached at both Thanksgiving services to-morrow. Dr. Chown up to June 19th last, when union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches was consummated, was the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada and Newfoundland. At the great union gathering held on the above mentioned date, the learned Doctor came up for decision, graciously refused to allow his name to go in nomination and immediately on doing so, had the honor of nominating the Rev. Dr. Pigeon, who was unanimously elected Moderator of this great reunited Church of Canada. Dr. Chown is a pleasing and forceful speaker and his many friends in the city should not miss hearing him to-morrow. There will be special solos and anthems by the choir. Offering will be devoted for the further reduction of the debt on the Church building. Visitors always welcome at this church.

Presentation to St. Mary's ex S.S. Teacher

A very enjoyable surprise party was tendered to Mrs. Ralph Butler (nee Miss Violet Williams) at her residence, 100 St. Mary's Street, on Wednesday evening last. The party was comprised of all the gentlemen and lady teachers of St. Mary's Sunday School, accompanied by Rev. A. B. S. and Mrs. Stirling, Rev. J. Goodland and Superintendent G. H. Badcock and K. Payne. Mrs. Butler was taken completely by surprise, but heartily welcomed her unexpected guests. Rev. Stirling on behalf of the S. S. Teachers and in a very happy speech presented Mrs. Butler with a beautiful silver nut dish and made special reference to her work while a member of the Sunday School staff. Mr. Butler on behalf of his wife responded, thanking one and all very sincerely. Games of various descriptions were then indulged in, after which supper was served, then a short sing-song, "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem brought to a close, what was voted by one and all a very enjoyable evening.

CHILD WELFARE

HEALTHY BABIES

"An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure."

Cold Weather—And Babies!—Sunshine and fresh-air are wonderful factors in a baby's life. During the cold weather many mothers keep the baby indoors—this fear baby will catch cold—this is all wrong. If comfortably dressed, with a hot-water bottle, or hot brick in the perambulator or sleigh, baby may safely spend a portion of each day in the open air.

Draughts are a common cause of colds, guard baby against them, and there is little fear of his catching the dreaded enemy cold.

St. John's possesses a great advantage in having been built on a hill. Utilize this gift of fresh-air and sunlight by giving baby a chance to grow healthy, strong and happy.

Life Savers for Dancers

During the dance at the Fair last night Mr. W. A. McKay presented all the dancers with complimentary packages of Life Savers and judging from the enthusiastic manner in which Mr. McKay was welcomed on the floor by the dancers the Life Savers were highly appreciated. During dancing, at the theatre, after smoking, after eating, anytime, anywhere, Life Savers are always appreciated, for this delicious confection, is more than a candy, it is as well as a LIFE SAVER, and that covers a multitude. oct24,31

Nfld. Runners Tendered Splendid Reception at Star Hall Last Night.

The Newfoundland Track Team which brought fame and glory to their island home at Halifax on October 17th, were tendered a reception at the Star Hall last night by the Halifax Marathon Sweepstakes Committee in honour of their great achievement. At the appointed hour of opening the Hall was filled with an enthusiastic gathering of citizens, and when the athletes and Manager Robertson appeared on the platform they were the centre of an admiring crowd. Mr. P. J. Myles, chairman of the Sweepstakes Committee, and amongst those on the platform were Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan, His Worship Mayor Cook, Sir M. P. Cashin, Hon. J. J. Long, J. M. Tobin, E. Churchill, H. J. Wyatt and T. J. Rolls, Secretary of the Committee. Mr. Myler opened the proceedings at nine o'clock, and in his remarks thanked the gathering for their presence. It was the celebrating of the homecoming of men who had placed Newfoundland on the map athletically, and in this the audience showed their great sense of appreciation by rising and giving, hearty cheers for the team. Manager Robertson, in speaking on behalf of the team, graphically outlined the trip from the time he and his charges left St. John's until their return. He told of the almost unmountable difficulties which they had to face, and how they were overcome through sheer doggedness and perseverance. In conclusion he thanked the audience for the manner in which they had been received and passed over the smiles won by the Newfoundland team to Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan, who in turn presented it to His Worship the Mayor, to be placed in the City Hall for the next twelve months. The occasion was a unique one in the annals of local sports, and the hope was expressed that the trophy would always find its resting place in St. John's.

Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan and Mayor Cook took occasion to make brief speeches, in which they heartily congratulated the team on their splendid showing, and the hope was expressed that the team would return next year twice as strong.

The drawing of tickets for the balance of prizes occupied the rest of the evening. This was watched by a considerable number of citizens. Further particulars of this will be found in our advertising columns.

Last Night's Hurricane

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IN CITY AND SUBURBS.

Damage to the extent of thousands of dollars is reported as a result of the N.W. storm which swept over the city and country side shortly after midnight. At times the wind reached a velocity of 80 miles per hour. The city was plunged in darkness about 1 a.m. due to the snapping of a pole near the Sub Station, which carried the transmission lines from Petty Harbour House. The street car service and all electric power machinery was in consequence kept at a standstill until repairs were effected at 11 a.m. Wild reports of vessels being lost were circulated this forenoon, but so far as can be ascertained the rumors are without foundation. Vessels in the harbor rode out the gale without sustaining any injury. The storm was most severely felt countrywards and thousands of trees were uprooted; many barns, hay barracks and root cellars were wrecked. Constable Whelan who was serving summonses along the Petty Harbor Road reports the road from Kildride all through to the Goude is blocked with fallen trees. A large number of hay barracks and one barn belonging to a farmer named Welsh were destroyed in this vicinity. Practically all the hay in the barracks went before the gale. At Torbay considerable damage was done to trees and fences and root cellars. One motor boat there broke from her moorings and drifted to sea. A barn on the Freshwater Road belonging to Mr. J. Cramp was blown down and several tons of hay swept away.

In the city innumerable fences, chimney tops and skylights were wrecked. The high fence on the western end of the penitentiary was blown down. A flag pole at Gower St. Church crashing across the iron fence at the western end of the edifice broke in three pieces and smashed the railing. The rink at St. Bon's College was partly moved from its foundation and thrown out of plumb. The eastern side of the building was as a result badly buckled.

The scaffolding around Duff's new theatre crashed to the ground, and pieces of wood flew around in all directions. A large pane of glass was blown out in the top flat of the General Post Office, while a large plate glass was also broken in with the force of the wind at the store of C. R. James on Water Street. An outhouse at the Holy Cross Schools had the roof blown off. On Topsall Road large trees were uprooted from the ground and hurled across the roadside. Mr. Crocker, who came to town this morning, reported that Cowan's barn was badly damaged on Mundy Pond Road, whilst fences and other property suffered badly. On the Higher Levels the gale was probably felt the most, although very little damage has been reported. It is known, however, that 100 feet of fence, surrounding Mr. Donald Butler's property on LeMarchant Road, was laid to the ground. A 30-foot section of the fence recently erected at the Marine Agencies' premises is also listed amongst the property destroyed.

The Cape Report has further mention of damage in that locality. The Morning News was unable to issue at the usual hour but will, we understand, appear on the street at 4 p.m.

Left to mourn are a wife, 3 daughters, 1 son in Boston, 2 brothers and 1 sister. Funeral on Monday at 2.30 p.m. from his late residence, 6 Central Street. Boston papers please copy.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. Nicholas and Michael and Miss May Aylward, and Mr. Michael Walsh wish to thank Rev. Fr. Rawlin for his great kindness to their dear mother and sister during her illness. They also wish to thank Dr. Sharpe for his kind attendance and for many kind acts shown, particularly Sir Michael Cashin, Mrs. W. Sinnott, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. J. Skanees, and the following for spiritual comfort: Mrs. Michael Walsh, Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Mrs. Ed. Volsey, Mrs. Densmore, Mrs. Annie Murphy, Mollie Walsh, Miss Nurse. Letters of sympathy from Miss Beale Street, Mrs. I. Reddix and for a beautiful wreath from Mrs. W. Soper, and to all kind friends who had turned out to show their respect to the deceased lady who had spent the last 38 years among them at Kildride.
