ACCIDENT BY A RUNAWAY. — The Forgus Express says that on Thurs-day Mr. Edward Boggs, Marsville. In Flannels we find exhibitors in the Garafraxa, in company, with Mr Spires, were looking at a colt hitched to awaggon, on the off side. A piece of paper frightened the young ani-mal, and it jumped back breaking the halter. Mr. Boggs attempted to catch the lines, when the horsee started forward and he was thrown on his back, the front wheel running over his head, and the hind wheel passing over his body. The poor man was carried into the hotel and medical aid was called. His mjuries the hature of the accident would lead one to infer, and he will be around in a short time. The horsee continued up the street and off to wards Elora, when they fell down in tuming a corner. The animals were considerably injured and the waggon much shaken. POLICE COURT.
