BAD MAN IS GT. BRITAIN

Trying to Cause Germany and France to Fight.

So Says the German Press, Which Like wise Announces That Relations Between Germany and Great Britain Were Never Worse Than at This Moment - Germany to Make Many Concession to France to Avert War.

Berlin, June 27 .- The second interview stains from giving any information regarding the results reached. It is semi-officially stated that the German answer has not yet been drawn up.

The Government and press, therefore, resent the assertion in the London newspapers that the German Governo embroil Germany and France. It is to embroil Germany and France. It is noted with satisfaction that some of the French statesmen begin to interpret Great Britain's interest in the France-German difficulty in the same way. The newspapers quote approvingly the words of Gen. De Gallifet, the former War Minister of France, that Great Britain alone wants war between France and Germany for it would be France and Germany, for it would be to her own advantage and at France's Similar views are expressed in the terman press, the writers arguing that reat Britain, having gotten rid of Great Britain, having gotten rid of Russian for a generation through the war in the Far East, is deliberately working to fan the flames of the old hate between France and Germany, and cause another war which must weaken er only formidable rivals in Western Ber only formidable rivals in Western European politics. It is noted that the relations between Germany and Great Britain have never been worse than at this moment. Hints dropped in official circles indicate that chagrin was felt at the Berlin court at the fact that King Edward sent no more inproving representative to the Crown inportant representative to the Crown Prince's wedding than the young Prince Arthur of Connaught, while it is plainly intimated that the failure of Emperor William to send any representative at all to the wedding of Princess Manyaret of Convents was Princess Margaret of Connaught was intended to give expression to his re-sentment at this slight.

But Japs Didn't Stop Firing on Russians For All That.

Linevitch's Men Dislodged Near Manchenzou, But, Although Enemy Holding Hills to West Offered Stubborn Resistance, They Were Finally Taken by Assault - Retreat Intercepted-Russian Loss Fully 200.

Tokio, June 26.-The following official despatch has been received from the Japanese headquarters in Man

The enemy holding the northwest eminence of Manchenzou was attacked and dislodged on the afternoon of June 22, but a portion of the enemy holding the hills to the west offered stubborn resistance, and the hills were finally taken by assault. Another force of the enemy holding the hills due north was attacked from the front and we simultaneously resorted to a turning movement from the northeast intercepting his retreat and causing him heavy loss. The enemy in confusion hoisted the red cross flag, but this did not stop our firing, and he fled north in disorder.
