THE DEAD SENATOR.

Ion. John Macdonald, the wellchant and philanthropist. He ordinary man, for he made his in-felt over the whole country, and it By a Cloud-Burst at Tsin Li wariably for good. Mr. Macdonald as a Scotchman by birth, having first seen the light of day in the year 1824 in Perthshire. Coming to Canada with his parents at an early age, he received his education first in Halifax and afterwards in Toronto. His mercantile career was begun in ananoque, but after two years' sidence there he went to Toronto, and entered the house of Walter Macfarlane, in whose employment he re-mained for half a dozen years. Then he was compelled to seek health in Jamaica, bit coming back to Toronto-over 40 years ago-he established himself in the drygoods trade, and ever since, up to his death, he had been engaged in that business, and the best known in the Dominion.

Mr. Macdonald was honored by his fellow-citizens in being twice elected to Par-liament. In 1863 he defeated Hon. J. B. Robinson in West Toronto. At the first election after Confederation, he was an unsuccessful candidate against Mr. (afterwards Chief Justice Harrison) for the same division; but in 1875, when a vacancy took place in Center Toronto, he was returned by acclamation. On the strength of the N. P. cry he was defeated in 1878, his being Mr. Robert Hay. political questions, as in private life, Mr. Macdonald was thoroughly independent, and his actions in Parliament ever bore out his professions. In 1887 he was called to the Senate.

with uniform success. His house is one of ments intended for the moral and religious elevation of the people that Senator Macdonald was best known. By tongue, by pen and by purse he was ever ready to do his share in any good work presenting itself movement he led when others, of perhaps apprehensions regarding the results, though he had no misgivings. He was a member of in specie and bonds were stolen. the Methodist Church, and for many years a local preacher of that body, and as a matter of course his first care was for its interests, but he was not of a bigoted or exclusive frame of mind. He lent a hand to every vation of his fellow-men. The Evangelical Alliance, the Bible Society, the Y. M. C. A. movements, temperance reform, all had his sympathy and support. He was a progressive educationist, too, and did good service for the Provincial University, for Upper Canada College and for Victoria College. He supported the scheme for the federation of the last-named institution with the Provincial University, on the ground that he believed it would increase the influence of the Methodist Church and be of decided benefit to her clergy.

Mr. Macdonald leaves a widow and family of ten-five sons and five daughters. Three of the daughters are married. The bereaved ones will have the sympathy of the people of Canada in a loss that is very

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Moody and Stebbins are this week holding meetings in Association Hall, New York City. Large crowds are in attendance at every service.

A recommendation that the votes and proceedings of the Manitoba Legislature be not longer printed in French was adopted in that House on Tuesday without a division.

So exceptionally mild is the weather in the Vale of Liangollen, Wales, (we learn from an English newspaper) that primroses, daisies, asters, stocks, roses, sweet wil-liams and other flowers are now in bloom, and wild strawberries are gathered on the

The late Senator Macdonald, while M.P. for Center Toronto, laid the foundation Wellington Street Methodist Church in this city, and contributed a handsome sum to the building fund. Rev. John Kay was pastor at the time.

The Equal Rights Association, of Toconto, have nominated Ald. Bell, a wellknown local Orangeman, to be candidate to represent Toronto in the Ontario Legislaother of the Clarkes to get ready to step

Mr. Bailev, the manager of Barnum's show, now in the British metropolis, told a cable correspondent this week that bonus enough had been offered him by railways and others who profit from the show to pay expenses for six weeks beyond Feb. 15, if he could stay in London. He says that 50,000 people were turned away from the toors this week. The show will close in ten days, and sail in the Furnessia.

Rev. Dr. Dewart, editor of the Christian Suardian, in an interview with a Globe representative, recites the circumstances ander which the late Senator John Mac donald donated $40,000 for the purpose of establishing a new hospital in the northwestern portion of Toronto. "The circumstances that led to this gift," says Dr. Dewart, "are very beautiful and very touching. While his late daughter, Miss Amy Macdonald, was on her deathbed, she Amy Macdonald, was on her deathbed, she suffered all through her illness very severe pain. Shortly before her death, while her was in attendance at her bedside, she 'Pa, if I had lived you would have me some portion of your property, dn't you?" "Yes, dear, I would," the der fondly replied. "Then," she said, I should just like you to give what you would have left as my share to some good charable institution, established to alleviate the pain and sufferings of persons.

HE DEAD SENATOR. (as systained a severe loss by the Hon. John Macdonald, the well-

Chow.

A Widespread Conspiracy Against Corea's Sovereign.

Demonstrative Sociability of Bismarck and William.

Russia Orders a Brace of British-Built

London, Feb. 5 .- Mrs. Lucas, a sister John Bright, and an agitator and speaker in the cause of temperance, is dead. Not While Pedro Lives. St. Petersburg, Feb. 5.—The Czar has declared he will not recognize the Brazilian Republic during the lifetime of Dom Pedro.

New Riflemon for Eastern Siberia.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 5.—A decree has been issued providing for the formation of two new rifle battalious in Eastern Siberia. A Great Triumph. London, Feb. 5.—W. P. O'Brien, M.P., spoke at Manchester yesterday and said Mr. Gladstone's reconciliation of England and Ireland, was one of the greatest triumphs of the century.

Belfast Has a Scandal.

Belfast, Feb. 5.—A scandal similar to that unearthed in London is coming to the surface here. Twelve youths have been arrested and remanded for examination.
Other arrests will be made.

Another Steamer Missing. London, Feb. 5.—Much anxiety is felt concerning the safety of the British steamer McGarel, from Belize via Norfolk for Lon don, which has not yet arrived. She has not been heard from since Jan. 12.

A Great Robbery.
London, Feb. 5.—There was a great robbery on the steamer La Plata on her voyage from Buenos Ayres to Antwerp.

The Times-Pigott Conspiracy. Dublin, Feb. 5.—The Freeman's Journal says that at the opening of Parliament next week Mr. Parnell will demand the appointment of a commission to inquire into the Times-Pigott conspiracy.

To Curtail the Slave Trade. BRUSSELS, Feb. 5.—The committee of the African Anti-Slavery Conference, to which the subject was referred, has agreed upon the establishment of measures of surveillance over the caravan routes in order to prevent the overland transportation of Probable Wreck of the Steamer Cape Clear.

London, Feb. 5.—A number of lifebuoys, atches, cabin fixtures, etc., have come ashore on Lundy Island and the coast of Wales. The appearance of the wreckage is taken to indicate the foundering of the steamer Cape Clear, from Liverpool Jan. 20, for Rosario, now overdue.

Russia Prefers British-Built Boats. London, Feb. 5 .- Russia has ordered two large ironclad frigates to be built in England, to be provided with the biggest engines and the heaviest Krupp guns. Four of the greatest firms in Europe estimated under the contract, but the Czar insisted the ships should be built in England.

Against Uncle Sam. COPENHAGEN, Feb. 5.—Sir E. J. Monson, British Minister to Greece, to whom, as arbitrator, was referred the dispute between the United States and Denmark, arising from the Butterfield claim for damages for vessels lost near St. Thomas, W. I..

nany years ago, has decided in favor Denmark on all points involved. The Duke of Montpensier Dead. MADRID, Feb. 5 .- The Duke of Mont nsier, Antoine Marie Phillippe Louis De Orleans, died suddenly at San Lucas. He was the fifth son of Louis Phillippe and was 66 years old. He was the father-in-law of the Count de Paris. His third daughter vas the first wife of the late King of Spain He had been a conspicuous figure in Europeince 1846, when he married the sister of Queen Isabella of Spain. Montpensier was one of the candidates for the Spanish throne when Amadeo of Savoy was chosen.

Conspiracy in Corea. Advices from China say Li Hung Chang s considering a project for the introduction of silver coinage in China.

A violent earthquake took place at Nagano, Japan, Jan. 7, destroying several houses.

Chinese newspapers state there is a wide Chinese newspapers state there is a wide-spread belief among the mass of people in Corea that the reign of the present dynasty is drawing to a close. It is reported that the late conspiracy to assassinate the present King has ramifications throughout the en-tire Corean Peninsula, and that several Million of State are implicated.

Ministers of State are implicated. The Kaiser and the Chancellor.

BERLIN, Feb. 5 .- Prince Bismarck gave grand dinner last night, at which the Emperor was present. The Emperor gave his arm to Princess Bismarck in going in to dinner, and sat upon the left of the Princess and opposite the Chancellor. The Emperor conversed with the Chancellor in the most affable mood and repeatedly took wine with him. After the dinner, at the Emperor's particular request, Bismarck smoked his pipe and the conversation became general. Dr. Miquel, the Burgomaster of Frankfort, and one of the leaders of the National Liberal party, was present. The Emperor had a long talk with him.

One Thousand Persons Drowned peror was present. The Emperor gave his

One Thousand Persons Drowned. The Shanghai Mercury gives an account of the great cloud burst near Nanking. In the langtsee River near Nanking at about 10 a.m., Dec. 7, when the weather was bright there was suddenly heard a rushing noise as of water. Two large black clouds appeared and soon enveloped everything like a tog. The waters were much disturbed, and the river was full of large waves. The two clouds eventually reached a place called Tsin Li Chow when they burst asunder, making a loud report. During the disturbance many heart were less than the property of the disturbance many hearts were less than the property of the pro ing the disturbance many boats were lost and 1,000 people drowned. More than 500 were picked up in an exhausted condition by the Chinese Life Preserving Association. Parnell's Victory. London, Feb. 5.—The Star (T. P. O'Conner's paper), in an article on the victory of nor's paper), in an article on the victory of Mr. Parnell in his suit against the Times, says that Mr. Parnell has legally reinstated his character in the face of a tribunal packed by his enemies on the Treasury bench. If he had failed to establish his case he must have quitted the House of Commons. Having succeeded, he must be reinstated with appropriate honors. The Star further says that the first duty of Mr. W. H. Smith, the Government leader in the House of Commons, is to propose a resolution acquitting Mr. Parnell of the charges against him.

Old World Wirelets. The Duke of Montpensier left a fortun $20,000,000.

In the Spanish Chamber of Deputies, a nember directed the attention of the Gov ernment to the continued presence of the British squadron at the Canary Islands.

RAILWAY CATASTROPHES

An Awful Disaster on a California Road.

Ten Persons Killed and Sixteen Injured

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 5 .- Heavy rains and floods are reported in Oregon.
A telegram from the Dalles states that a onstruction train, with a gang of laborers, which left there to work on the track, went through a bridge 68 feet high on Sunday. The engine passed over safely, but the tender fell on the caboose and killed ten men and injured sixteen. A train with three doctors left for the scene of the acci-

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Feb. 5.—A north-bound northern Pacific Passenger train struck a hand car between here and Cleark Lake yesterday morning. Three section men on the hand car were killed. Their names have not been ascertained.

A TERRIBLE DEATH.
PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 5.—As the Ohio, In-Peoria, Ill., Feb. 5.—As the Ohio, Indiana and Western freight train was crossing the bridge at Bridge Junction Monday evening, the first span of the bridge gave way, precipitating the engine, tender and three cars into the river. In the cab were Engineer Wm. Neville, Fireman C. O'Brien and Brakeman R. M. Lewis, all of Urbana. The fireman and brakeman were buried under the engineer wis pinned in the cab with his head above the water. A large crowd soon collected, and it was found that the engineer was standing on the dead body of the fireman, but held in such a way that he could not be extricated. Willing hands worked all night to extricate him, applying hot water and pouring branch were him for the product of the product of the pouring branch with the set of the product of t cate him, applying hot water and pouring brandy down his throat to keep him from being chilled to death. He died, however, before he could be released from his terrible position.

on the Illinois Central ran into the rear end on the Himois Central ran into the rear end of a stock train near Peoria, III., yesterday morning, smashing the caboose into kind-ling wood, and seriously injured the five stockmen who were in it. Three of them are believed to be fatally injured.

WORK AND WAGES.

Compromise Between Mr. Chaplean and the Printers-Strikes in London and Glasgow.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The compositors of the Government Printing Bureau met to receive the reply of the Secretary of State to their demand for an increase of wages from $11 to $13 a week and allowance for holi-$11 to $13 a week and allowance for holidays. Mr. Chapleau's reply was an offer of $12 a week and full pay for three statutory holidays. This was accepted by the men. In conversation subsequently Mr. Chapleau stated that he was going to make this offer conditional on a promise that no further demands would be made during the session. Asked if the compromise would be permanent, he said the rules of the union forbade the printers from making any contract, for the printers from making any contract for fixed term.

GLASGOW, Feb. 5.—The rivet boys em. Glascow, Feb. 5.—The rivet boys employed in the shipyard of the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company, went on strike yesterday, forcing 1,000 shipwrights to be idle.

London, Feb. 5.—The owners of docks, wharves and warehouses here have formed a union to combat the labor unions. It is supposed before you one hand and strikes supposed lockouts on one hand and strikes the point of the tribute of tribute of the tribute of tribute

Crushed by a Falling Out-House.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 5.—During the gale which prevailed here this morning Kate Sullivan, a domestic, was fatally crushed by an out-building, which was blown over

Died in His Sleigh, OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Jas. McDowall, a young shantyman, died in a sleigh yester day while driving around town. He had not recovered from an attack of the influ-

An Edge-Tool Trust. An Eage-rool Trust.

Boston, Feb. 5.—A dispatch from Nashua, N. H., says: A deal will be perfected in Pittsburg, Pa., this week whereby the control of the edge-tool trade of the United States will be monopolized and parceled out to different concerns.

Atchison, Kan., Feb. 5.—Heavy ice has formed above this city in a narrow place in the river, and almost the entire volume of the river, and almost the entire volume of water backed up, so that it was forced through the Government works, constructed on the Missouri as a protection to the city. The current is rapidly cutting this away. Unless the ice dam breaks the Government works, costing $150,000, the railway bridge and the town of East Atchison will be at the mercy of the river.

Steamers Arrived.

CANADA'S CAPITAL.

Doings and Sayings of Members of Parliament.

Expenditures Looked Into-The High Commissioner's Pocket Money-Sir John's Cab Hire.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, Wednesday, Feb. 5. annual meeting of the Dominic Rifle Association is in session to-day in the lower room of the Parliament buildings. Military men from all parts of Canada are in attendance. Lord Stanley rode down from Rideau Hall accompanied by his suite and was warmly received. He addressed the meeting, congratulating the asso-ciation on its success in the past, especially the winning of the Kolapore cup at the last matches to be held on the historic ranges of Wimbledon. Gen. Sir Fred Middleton was also present, and in answering a vote of thanks for his assistance to the association, called the

The British Columbia representatives are said to be concentrating their efforts for a combined disapproval of any increase in duty on flour. They propose to show that the millers are not likely to be greatly benefited by the increase, as they say the Eritish Columbia flour mills, although not numerous, are successfully competing with American flour in the Provincial markets. It is also said they will assist the Opposition in securing a removal of duties on min ing machinery.

It is expected that the great C. P. R. arbitration will close this afternoon

Business of the House

OTTAWA, Tuesday, Feb. 4.
In the House of Commons to day bills were presented and read a first time:

To incorporate the Tilsonburg, Lake Erie and Pacific Railway Company — Mr.
Brown.

To incorporate the Mount Forest, Mark-dale and Meatord Railway Company—Mr.

Sproule.

Hon. Mr. Tupper presented his promised Hon. Mr. Tupper presented his promised bill regarding the sawdust nuisance.

Hon Mr. Laurier asked whether the refect of the commissioners who visited Holland and Scotland to inquire into the best means of catching, packing and curing fish would soon be ready.

Hon. Mr. Tupper explained that the report was in type, and would be ready soon.

port was in type, and would be ready soon. Hon. Mr. Laurier asked if it was proposed to issue the report in sufficient num-bers to make a general distribution among the fishermen.

The Minister did not like to promise so much as this, but said he hoped there would be a general distribution at least in localibe a general distribution at least in localities.

Petitions were presented from the Trades and Labor Council, of London, and also from Local Assembly, No. 3,305, of the Knights of Labor, London, asking for legislation in the interest of labor; one from the County Council of Grey, asking an increase in the per diem allowance to volunteers who drill in camp, and several from Montreal and Toronto, in favor of Mr. Brown's Pigeon Bill.

Mr. Brown's Pigeon Bill. The House then went into Committee of estimates.

The discussion was confined mainly to the cost of civil government, and the effort of Ministers was to prove that the present Government was as careful and as economi-cal in its expenditure as its predecessor. But the fact remains that the total cost of But the fact remains that the total cost of civil government in 1878-79 was $861,170 and the cost of the same service for the last financial year was $1,281,713.

The very first item was the occasion for a rather lively talk. It was an appropriation of $2,000 as the temporary required to provide for the service.

'amount required to provide for the contin-

000 at once. The public accounts were re-ferred to by Mr. McMullen, Mr. Somerville and others to show that everything that anybody could think of as likely to come under the head of contingencies was paid by the Government, and there was no way apparently in which this $2,000 could be spent for contingencies. spent for contingencies.

Hon. Mr. Foster protested that he had no further information to give, and he de-clined to listen to the proposal that the item should be left over until he was better informed, and the item was declared carried. Objections were made by Mr. Casey to the item of $4,000 for the expenses of civil service examinations; that under the present system civil service examinations were a farce. The examiners might be dismissed at the will of the Government, and the men appointed to this service were officers under the Government. There was a nominal Board of Examiners, which, in fact, afforded no guarantee that the candidates it passed would obtain a position in the civil service. If it was a real check on the service he would not mind. But he had certain information, the source of which he could not divulge that the Government used its influence with the Board of Examiners to so arrange matters that certain persons would be certificated. He was also informed that certain civil services might be dismissed at the will of the Gov vants were debarred at the instance of the examinations.

Hon. Mr. Foster and Sir John Macdonald both denied the charges in general donated both denied the charges in general terms.

On the item of $48,000, Governor-General's salary, Mr. McMullen protested against the payment of $144 for advertising in Ottawa papers of Viceregal reconsticute.

Mr. Somerville drew attention to the Mr. Somerville drew attention to the charge of $600 for postage in the Governor-General's office, and asked if his Excellency had not the privilege of franking his letters. Hon. Mr. Foster said the postage account was charged to each and every department, but subsequently corrected himself by saying that only the foreign postage was charged.

harged.
Mr. McMullen figured this item out to represent 66 letters a day as written by the Governor-General and staff. Dr. Landerkin—I notice that Gunner Dr. Landerkin—I notice that Gunner Morrison receives 25 cents a day, but when he attends balls he gets $4. (Laughter.) I also notice an item charged to the Privy Council of $250 paid the Almonte Gazette for printing address on satin for Mrs. Leyden. Who, he asked, was Mrs. Leyden? Was she a clerk or an orderly? Hon. Mr. Foster—She is not a gunner. The matter of Sir John Macdonald's cabhire was brought up by Mr. Somerville on assistance to the association, called the attention of the meeting to the fact that in actual battle stationary targets are not had to shoot at. Hence, shooting at fixed targets at known distances will not make effective soldiers; and he pointed out that in England they were already adopting the plan of having at least one match at moving targets. Addresses were made by Sir John Thompson and Hon. C. H. Tupper. Lieut.-Col. Kirkpatrick, M.P., who presided, was re-elected president of the association and the vice-presidents of last year were similarly honored with the exception of the vice-president for Nova Scotia, who was replaced by Gen. Laurie, M.P.

The British Columbia representatives are ersons whose names could not be given. Hon. Mr. Colby, said he had investigated count.

Sir John said: "I do not object to th Sir John said: "I do not object to the honorable gentleman bringing up this question or to the course he has taken. He is performing what he believes to be his duty and he is quite right to do so. With respect to this item I can give him no information. Whether this expenditure represents services to the Department of the Privy Council or not I cannot say. With regard to ash hire for

Department of the Privy Council or not 1 cannot say. With regard to cab hire for myself I may say, as I have said before, so long as I am Premier the over-burdened taxpayers of Canada will have to pay my cab hire, and they are quite willing to do it. (Ministerial cheers and laughter.) In winter I drive from my house to Parliament and back. In order to economize last summer I occasionally took a In winter I drive non.

Parliament and back. In order to economize last summer I occasionally took a conomize last summer I occasionally took a conomize last summer I saved a little that way, but the winter economize last summer I occasionally took a ride in a 'bus. (Laughter.) I saved a little money for the country that way, but the 'busses are too cold for my feet in winter time—(renewed laughter)—and I am using a cab just now, and I hope the House will excuse me if I continue to do so."

Mr. Somerville suggested that the Premier must have been out of pocket when he took a 'bus, for there was no charge for a 'bus in the account. bus in the account.
The item passed and the House ad-

The Senate.

The Senate reassembled this evening, with a fair attendance of members.

Hon. Edward Murphy, of Montreal, a Senator appointed last autumn, but who was too ill to attend the opening of Parliament, was presented by Senator Smith and signed the roll. Senator Abbott was absent, and it devolved upon Senator Smith to refer to the death of the late Senator Rodier.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 5.—John Grant, living at Masquodoboit, N. S., had a fierce encounter in his barn with a wild cat on Sunday. The animal sprang at him, and subsent, and it devolved upon Senator Rodier. The Senate reassembled this evening, Capital Notes.

It is likely that no State ball will be held

Hen. J. J. C. Abbott, leader of the Government in the Senate, is reported to be seriously ill in Montreal. Mr. Patterson, of Essex, was in his place to-day after an absence of several days on account of a bronchial attack.

Madame Laurier and Mrs. Mackenzie will receive their friends at the Grand Union Hotel every Saturday evening during the session, beginning on Saturday evening next. Hon, Alexander Mackenzie took a very "amount required to provide for the contingent expenses of the High Commissioner."

Mr. McMullen asked that the details of this item should be given.

Hon. Mr. Foster, the Minister of Finance, in effect, stated that there were no details in his possession, and it had not been customary to give any.

Mr. McMullen declared that if this money was spent for the public service the House and the country had a right to know what was done with it. If it was simply handed over to Sir Charles Tupper as a gift, the straightforward, business.

cases. The Brantford, Waterloo and Lake Erie Company is asking for power to construct a line from near Hamilton to a point in the county of Brant, and that their capital stock be raised to $500,000 and the bond issue to $40,000 per mile.

Mr. H. H. Cook will ask the Ministry if the P. Lesuer who draws $1,024 30 for annual superannuation allowance is the tary to the Examiner, at a salary per an num of $1,258 33.

The report of the Minister of Works puts the total expenditure for the year at $3,517,297; all in Canada except $564 on the High Commissioner's house in London, Eng. The expenditure for public buildings in Ontario amounted to $78,672, and on harbors and rivers $364,716. In Quebec the figures were $290,133 and $188,088.

A deputation of Montreal boot and shoe dealers waited upon Messrs. Foster and Bowell urged that the duty on boots and shoes be increased from 25 to 35 per cent., claiming that as the duty on the raw material was now 20 per cent., the present duty of 25 per cent. on boots and not sufficient. The Ministers pursual consideration.

Money saved by buying furniture etting upholstering done at Trailord's

Coughs. Colds, - Croup,

Influenza. Tolu, Tar and Tamarack

Is the peer of all remedies for a chronic or recent cold. For sale by all druggists. PRICE, 25 CRETS. TOLU, TAR and TAMARACK

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Feb. 4—11 p.m.—The depression which was over the Northwest Territories last night has developed with a very important storm, which is moving east across Northern Canada, while an area of high pressure, with lower temperature, is setting in over the Northwest. Rain has fallen in Southern and Western Ontario, and snow in the Citawa Valley. Temperature, is and snow in the Ottawa Valley. Temperatures at 8 p.m.: Calgary, 10°; Qu'Appelle, 4° below; Winnipeg, 4° below; Toronto, 36°; Montreal, 14°; Quebec, 16°; Lakir... 9

Toronto, 36°; Montreal, 14°; Quebec, 16°; Halifax, 26°.

LOGAL TEMPERATURES YESTERDAY.

For 24 hours ending Sp.m.—(Observations taken at 3 a.m. and 8 p.m.: Highest, 58°; lowest, 30°; mean (daily), 47°.

For the next 24 hours for the lakes: Strong winds and gales from the west and northwest; fair weather, turning colder, with a few snow flurries.

Chin Tom Becoming Naturalized.
CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Chin Tom, a Chinese gambler, has disappeared with $5,000 belonging to Celestials in this city, and has taken the white wife of a fellow-countryman with him. Scarlet Fever Raging.

CANAJOHARIE, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Scarlet fever is raging alarmingly in sections of the Mohawk Valley. Three children of Philip Glennan died in Canajoharie and his only remaining child is beyond recovery.

Lost His Arm in a Clover Mill.

BLOOMFIELD, Ont., Feb. 5.—As a young man named Charles Bowerman was engaged in feeding a clover mill in Mr. Burr's barn yesterday, his left hand got caught in the cylinder, tearing it off near the elbow.

The Brank Accident

Too Boat Accident.

Belleville, Feb. 5.—Prof. S. S. Green, f the Institution for Deaf and Dumb, was Monday thrown from his ice boat by one of the skates catching in a crack. His head struck the ice with great violence, and he is still unconscious is still unconscious.

Revising the Creed.

New York, Feb. 5.—The New York Presbytery after a brief discussion adopted without change the recommendations contained in the report of the Committee on Revision, and which followed chapters three and ten of the confession of faith adopted on Monday.

Extel Explosion

Fatal Explosion. Fatel Explosion.

ALTOONA Par, Feb. 5.—While filling a gasoline tank at Gallitzin yesterday, Miles Aldelsburger was overcome by gas. Frank Gillon went to bis assistance with a lighted lamp. A terrific explosion followed. Joseph Bangle, owner of the tank, was fatally, and Aldersburger, Gillon and two other men were seriously hurned.

other men were seriously burned. Missionaries for China. Missionaries for China.
TORONTO, Feb. 5.—The Chinese Inland
Mission send out four missionaries to-day.
They are Miss Lydia Kay, Jamestown, N.
Y; E. M. McBrier, Lockport, N. Y; C. J.
Stephens and Robert Randall, Toronto; Miss Rose Power, who was taken sick when recently on her way to China and has been in the hospital at Winnipeg, will join this had it by the throat. Grant was fearfully lacerated.

Suicide of a Defaulting Bank Teller. Suicide of a Defaulting Bank Teller.

New YORK, Feb. 5.—Teller Geo. A.

Dennison, jun., of the National Bank of Orange county, N. Y., who committed suicide at Goshen, N. Y., on Monday proves to be a defaulter in about $20,000. The bank officers never suspected him. He never played cards nor drank, was always on alter and never took a vacation. It is say. duty and never took a vacation. It is sup posed the money was lost in speculation

Death of Senator John Macdonald. Tonorro, Feb. 5.—Senator Macdonald died last evening. Last week he underwent an operation to relieve him of an abscess, and it was probably the result of Hon. Alexander and the had to be driven to the Grand Union in a cab. To-day he is to the Grand Union in a cab. To-day he is the shock to his system that caused his death. Mr. Macdonald was appointed to the Senate about a year ago. He was at death. Mr. Macdonaid was appointed to the Senate about a year ago. He was at the head of the well-known wholesale dry-goods firm of John Macdonald & Co., and was regarded as one of the merchant princes of Canada. He was a weaithy and public-spirited gentleman, and has left in Toronto many evidences of his munificence.

Funeral of Mrs. and Miss Tracey. at the Executive Mansion. The caskets were hardly visible because of the mass of flowers which were heaped on them. The regular Episcopal services for the dead were recited. by Dr. Douglas, of St. John's. Dr. Elliott read the lesson. The remains were placed with brief ceremony in the receiving vaults, where they will rest for the present. Second retary Tracey, after the ceremony to his apartments in the White Hou

YOUR "GRIPPE" On the chance we offer to buy the very best

ORDERED CLOTHING

Gents' Furnishings Very Cheap at

WILSON