"As in a Looking Glass."

William Bachanan, a Cobourg youth, appeared at the Police Court yesterday as a prisoner, charged with an attempt to rob the till of the Revere House bar. Mr. J. B. Jennings, the proprietor, said he was sitting in the adjoining room yesterday afternoon and by the reflection of a mirror saw the young man standing on the footrail reaching with hand over the counter where the till was situated. He ran out and cuffed him two or three times over where the till was situated. He ran out and cuffed him two or three times over the head. Buchanan stoutly affirmed his innocence. He, with a companion named Ayers, wanted a drink, and the latter, who was an intimate friend of Jennings, proposed to attract his attention by making play of robbing the till. The magistrate gave the prisoner the and dismissed him.

Zera Semon Coming.

Zera Semon's show will be here for one week, commencing Monday evening. The Hamilton Herald says: "Just about as many people were turned away from the opera house last ovening as gained admission when Zera Semon opened his Hamilton engagement. The audience was just as delighted as it was large. Zera Semon is a whole show in himself. Johnny Patten and Edgar Nelton were good and provoked long, continued applause. In fact the whole performance is a unique gem, interesting and attractive from first to last, not the least amusing part of it being the closing act—a minstrel performance by a company of marionettes, whose sprightly wit and antics kept the audience in a protracted state of laughter."
