Substitution

IS THE FRAUD OF THE DAY SEE THAT THE WORD

CEYLON TEA

Is on every package. Sold in lead packets only. 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c and 60c.

"No, no; I was not offended," he interrupted, hastily. "You took me rather by surprise, you know, and—and I wasn't in a very good temper perhaps. But—but come again, and I'll treat you better; I'd rather you should come to—to—to give it to me hot than that had been deadled to the control of the contr you shouldn't come at all. Good-

"Good-night!" she replied, giving him 'Well, aren't you going to offer to kiss me?" he asked, impatiently. "What—after the snub you gave me this evening about my cold cheek?"
"I'll warm it!" said he; and he flung his arms about her and held against his breast with such yearning tenderness that she felt guilty and concience-stricken, and could not meet the passionate gaze of his eyes, as he raised her white face with one loving hand toward his. "Look here!" he whispered, humbly, "I'll be on my guard against Ledbury; and, if there's anything wrong about him-"But there isn't!" she exclaimed, eagerly, starting up and laying her right hand emphatically on his shoul-"Haven't I just told you I've had to confess my mistake and even apol ogize? You are not to take any notice of what I said—at least, please don't," she added, seeing that, after the maner of over-indulged women, she had isfied concerning the sudden change of once more toward him, and said, in a low voice, in her ear, "See how it ends—how it always ends when you forgiveness and kindness which you, who deceive me and don't care for me, ought to beg from you. I shall go back to my room, tonight, thinking, while the first glow of the pleasure of having held you in my arms lasts, that I have come a step nearer to you and the love I want you to give me; and then I shall remember this"—and he tossed up her right hand, which now hung quite limply down by her and the love I want you to give and the other chief causes of her distress, Dr. Ledbury retired, and Geraldine returned to her own room.

Ledbury went to his own room, found the case she had been sent to look for, and returned with a sleeping draught which Geraldine civilly declined to take. Then, after giving her some grave advice to compose herself and dismiss all anxiety from her mind, which sounded quaintly from the lips of the latter compensate for this.

The Sarnia road has many patrons. The portion between London and Hyde Park is hilly, but the wheeling is good. The main road to Sarnia from Hyde Park is a monotonous stretch, because there are no towns on the way, but wheelmen generally leave it about three miles from Strathroy, entering the latter now hung quite limply down by her side—"and this"—and he put his hand now hung quite limply down by her side—"and this"—and he put his hand over her calmly-beating heart—"and the passive way in which your lips received the touch of mine, and I shall execute vou for a statue and myself of the control of the passive way in which your lips attention.

"What is the matter Aurelie? What is the matter Aurelie? received the touch of mine, and I shall execrate you for a statue and myself for an ass, and be no better off than I are you afraid of?"

"What is the matter, Aurelie? What are you afraid of?"

"Nothing, madame; only, when one there are thieves in the neighthese paltry reconciliations which lead to nothing, and so on and on, I suppose, until the little brain my love has left me gives way, and you can shut me up for a lunatic and enjoy your-wretched that I can't begin to love anybody yet; but I will try as soon as But there ground, the unmistakable, measured footsteps of Dr. Ledbury were heard which, having withdrawn themselves mear to the farm, and when I reproach maid awaited her mistress, husand wife were standing. The "He told me that I know more about it than him. I tell him it is not so. hurried into her room, while Capt. Mor

"He told me that I know more about it than him. I tell him it is not so. hurried into her room, while Capt. Mor
"He told me that I know more about it than him. I tell him it is not so. hurried into her room, while Capt. Mor
And with that ultra-innocence that Crumlin. From Dorchester to Inger-for in the world-James Otway." She started

"You have shown your affection in a very singular manner."
"I have shown it by watching over

The Very Finest In the Land . . .

Nothing Like It.

Ordinary price in large cities, $5.00 per lb.

We offer a special lot at to introduce High Grade Teas.

Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co.,

169 DUNDAS STREET.

him during the past three months; by twice saving his life during that time from attacks made through the mean-est of channels—a bribed domestic; by the speed with which I hurried down there, knowing the dangers which sur-rounded him if he had strayed into the neighborhood of the woman whom he oved and the man who hated him ve already given you. sprung up in great agita-, looked at him keenly, and moved bout restlessly, not knowing what think, or to believe. "You say his life was twice attacked. How? By whom? she asked at last.

"By poison, through a woman in-he was lodging.' "Introduced by whom?"

He hesitated. She repeated the ques-"By the only man I know of who wishes James harm."

"Therefore—Lindley Fielding?" said ie, with trembling voice. "Lindley Fielding forgot his grudge ainst James the moment he heard s life was in danger." Geraldine remembered Lindley's eviatement alarmed her still more. Then whom do you mean? antly. "It is impossible!" she burst out. to Rome.

Captain Morrison—my husband—is assionate and revengeful, but he is not a coward. He would not use such he will tell you, if he isn't prejudiced, e is in his love.' hought this last suggestion a power-ul one. But a vague feeling that her usband's wish to have his affection or her returned was not altogether so preasonable as it had once appeared ther had crept into her heart during e passionate appeal he had made to er that night, so that no answering ash of indignation followed the do ay, as he is determined to do."

she pointed to the door to restrain a protest, for her ears had caught the sound of Aurelie's light footsteps, rendered even lighter than usual by a very natural wish to learn what sort of a tete-a-tete was going on between the mistress and the visitor for whom her dislike was an open secret. Here her dislike was an open secret. Her the top. The Pipe Line road is smoothforgiveness and kindness which you, who deceive me and don't care for me, Ledbury went to his own room, found surroundings of the latter compensate

But that was two days ago, Aur-me up for a lunatic and enjoy yourself."

Ah, madame; but they are cunning, the relaxed his hold upon her slightly, that he might look, half plaintively, half defiantly, into her face. But she did not remain limp and passive now; she sank down trembling on to her knees at his feet, with the tears glistening in her eves.

"O, Philip, I am so sorry! I am so wretched that I can't begin to love
wretched that I can't begin to love enough to steal again, won't try at enough to steal again, won't try at > her mistress' real alarm difficult to "However, madame, Davis, the young him that he has not arrested him, he words she was speaking froze on Ger"He told me that I know more about hurried into her room, while Capt. Morrison went back slowly to his own. A few moments later Aurelie hastened to meet the doctor, and to tell him that madame was ready to receive monsieur.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Dr. Ledbury found Mrs. Morrison in CHAPTER in Morrison in CHAPTER XXXIV.

Dr. Ledbury found Mrs. Morrison in CHAPTER XXXIV.

fect; her worn, wan face, heavy eyes, and nervous manner testified to the out Dundas street, and turning north he sent the maid downstairs to the library in search of a little case which he said she would find on the centertable.

As soon as she had left the room, Geraldine, who had been prepared with her question, said, quickly:

"If what you told me is true, why do you hide yourself under a false name?"

"For the sake of the only man I care"

"For the sake of the only man I care"

"It was a manner testified to the night of wearing, sleepless anxiety she had passed. Daylight seemed, as usual, to have cooled Captain Morrison's passion; and Geraldine, without daring to interfere, saw him leave the break-fast-room with Dr. Ledbury, and presently watched them from the windows as they strolled through the park together. Their walk was, however, so be mentioned that not long ago country be manuer." gether. Their walk was, however, so be mentioned that not long ago country leisurely, that she had reason to hope wheeling was far superior to city. But that the rumor of James' having been again seen in the neighborhood had failed to reach their ears; and, as at last, they sauntered out of sight she turned quickly from the window, left the room and ran up to the ten of the Symes had evidently been prevented comparatively speaking, has by the doctor from adding to the one creased a cent in ten years. startling disclosure she had made. She knocked at the housekeeper's door, full knocked at the housekeeper's door, full of excitement, and, as the old voice quavered out, "Come in!" she entered with the important question she wished to ask trembling on her lips. She did not utter it, for, sitting upright, stiff and Medusa-like, by the side of the bed. was Miss Elizabeth, evidently on guard and in the service of the enemy. Ger. aldine, to whom this sight was confirmation of the truth of the disclosure which had been made to her, was struck with consternation and disappointment so evident as to call up to the elder lady's thin lips a very disigreeable smile. Her visit was not quite in vain, however, for it was clear that the mere sight of her face was a relief to the poor old housekeeper, in whom the common hatred of all the household to Miss Elizabeth had become the very strongest feeling save one of which her lymphatic nature was capable. As her young mistress bent over her, looking kindly into the faded eyes, she formed with her lips rather than uttered the words, "Don't trust him!" And, with a responsive and re-assuring pressure of the thin hand, Mrs. Morrison, after inquiries as to her night's rest. left her under her grin (To be continued.)

Good Roads Around London.

First Class Wheeling on Most of the Highways.

A Description of the Leading Country Routes.

The Wharncliffe the Most Popular Two or Three Not Much Patronized -Great Improvement in City Streets.

All roads-at least, all roads of any account - around this section of the country, lead to London. The American tourist who starts either from ent anxiety about James when she ican tourist who starts either from aw him at Chiswick; and this con-rmation of one part of Dr. Ledbury's boards to direct him to London. He boards to direct him to London. He has only to follow the best thorough-'You know," he whispered, signifi- fare, and he will arrive here as surely as in the old days every highway led that they are the finest on the conti 'He will use any means to satisfy nent, and that around London are to s passions; he gives himself up to be found the choicest of them all. hichever attacks him, and is as vio-With one or two exceptions, all the nt and unreasonable in his hatred as main highways radiating from this city are first-class graveled roads, well Dr. Ledbury glanced at her as if he graded and kept constantly in repair. This is a wheelman's paradise for six months in the year. Perhaps the best and most popular country route is that to Lambeth, branching there to St. Thomas and Delaware. It is graveled throughout, and kept in prime condition by the township authorities. This is necessary to the farming community, as i or's words. He tried another tack.

"Well, you will be able to judge when e comes face to face with James Otbeth makes it uncomfortable for cy-Geraldine's composure gave way, and clists, but in the evening it affords he began to fidget and tremble. He a superb spin. saw his advantage, and was on the point of following it up, when she stopped him as he was about to speak.

"You have told me enough, thank you. It is not necessary to try to irritate me further against my husband, in order to induce me to keep research."

"You have told me enough, thank you. It is not necessary to try to irritate me further against my husband, in order to induce me to keep research."

"You have told me enough, thank you. It is not necessary to try to irritate me further against my husband, in order to induce me to keep the control of the north bank is much prettier than the north bank is much prettier than the north bank is much prettier than the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank is much prettier than the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank is much prettier than the north bank of the river, returning via Springbank and the north bank is much prettier than the north bank is much prettier than the north bank is much prettier than the north bank of the north bank is much prettier than the north bank of the north bank is much prettier than the north bank is much prettie order to induce me to keep my oath. from the south. The road on the for-I shall do that in any case, and whatever your motive for secrecy may be." constantly in sight. The Thames is "I have told you-my affection for crossed at Byron bridge. Standing on "Ah, yes, I remember! So you did," this and looking up the river, especially in twilight, the eye is delighted she said, very slowly raising her eyes by a charming bit of scenery, with the to his face with straightforward incredulity—so you did!"

She pointed to the door to restrain

The great northern highway, start- in his 77th year. knows there are thieves in the neigh-Line road, is admirable, save and exelie. The poor thief is far enough away by this time," answered Geraldine, rather uneasy.

"Ab moderate but they are cupping that everlasting in the control of the control to be climbed. From Exeter, one can strike straight through to Brucefield, thence to Varna and Bayfield. From Bayfield there is a beautiful lake shore marriage of one of Wallaceburg's prom-ford, where a slight turn to the south takes one to Ingersoll. From Ingersoll is a direct route to Woodstock, Paris, Brantford and Hamilton. This is not Of the great highways, the Hamilton road is the most avoided by wheel-men. It is not graveled and cared for as it should be, and usually it is a "rutty" ride to Dorchester. Many

Dr. Ledbury found Mrs. Morrison in the boudoir, a large, bright apartment which had once been the school-room.

Aurelie remained with her mistress while the doctor felt her pulse and asked her a few formal questions; then the doctor felt her worn, wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn. Wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn wan face, heavy eyes, and turning north the doctor felt her worn was faced by starting the doctor felt her worn was faced by starting the doctor felt her pulse and failed lamentably of its effect: her worn, wan face, heavy eyes, the doctor felt her pulse and failed lamentably of its effect.

the room and ran up to the top of the trailon, under Ald. Parnell, has been house, bent upon discovering what that the most efficient in the city history. piece of information was that Mrs. And the expenditure on the streets, Symes had evidently been prevented comparatively speaking, has not in-

LIGHTNING'S DEADLY WORK. Chatham, Ont., June 18.—While two of the teamsters of T. L. Pardo, M. P.P., were sheltered from the thunderstorm on Wednesday under two trees, lightning struck one of the trees, knocking the men senseless and kill-

Western Ontario. DOES

Detroit Contractor Gets the Big Creek Drain Job.

Serious Accident to a Four-Year-Old Boy in Tilsonburg.

Burglars Sentenced Chatham.

Lawn tennis is becoming a popular pastime in Tilbury. Tilbury will turn out twenty wheelmen at the meet in Chatham in July. Tilbury riflemen have decided to have field day on June 22, and a banquet

The wife of Mr. Wm. Shepherd died at her residence on the Goshen road, near Tilsonburg, on Tuesday, aged 7 years.

Mr. Robt. Turnbull, of Galt, left an state of between $50,000 and $60,000. He left $25,000 to the mission fund of the Presbyterian Church, and between $4,000 and $5,000 to the Galt Y. M. C. A. The Harriston Flax Manufacturing Company (Ltd.), with a capital stock $6,000, and the Wingham Farmers' Flax Company (Ltd.), with a capital stock of $7,500, have been incorporated. The little 4-year-old son of Mr. Israel Brubacher, Elmira, partook of arsenic, which had been placed in some syrup to poison rats, but an antidote soon brought the young patient out of all

As a result of the frightening of his norse, and the accident following, Sunday afternoon, Chief of Police Coates, oe, will endeavor to have a bylaw passed regulating the Salvation Army on the streets.

Brydges tendered a farewell social to and friends.
Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Mr. Kerr having been stationed at Thamesville, to Rev. J. E. Holmes.

Miss May Scully, eldest daughter of E. Scully, official stenographer of the division court at Windsor, died Wednesday afternoon. She was only 12 years of age, and had undergone an Geo. Lockerbie, contractor, of Detroit, has secured the contract for the Munyon's Kidney Cure speed dredging required on the Big Creek pains in the back, loins or groins, and drain, to be constructed in South Essex. The contractor has until November, 1898, to complete the work. His ness and builds up the system. Price bid was $20,000. At the I, O. O. F. district meeting, held at Woodstock Tuesday night, Bro.

James Smilie, of Princeton, was elected D. D. G. M. The following officers were also elected: D. B. McCarty, Thamesford district scentages B. W. Agent M. W. ford, district secretary; R. T. Agar, Ingersoll, warden; Bro. Murray, Woodstock, guardian.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates impurities of the blood. Price 25c. Munyon's Female Remedies.

It is proposed at the next meeting of he Windsor Council to present gold nedals to Detectives Campeau and Mahoney for their gallantry in arresting Moore and Brown, the bandits. Several rewards were offered, Walker-ville alone offering $550, but the detectives have not received a cent. Wilfred, the 4-year-old son of Wm. McGuire, editor of the Tilsomburg Liberal, was badly crushed about the head Wednesday evening while playing around a lumber pile, the timbers toppling over and falling on him. The lad was unconscious for several hours after with free medical advice for each disease. At Albert street, Toronto, Ont., answered was unconscious for several hours after was unconscious for several hours after with free medical advice for any dis

The death took place on Tuesday af-"What is the matter, Aurelie? What tigue, or hurger—or thirst. The latter noon at the residence of his daughter you afraid of?" about two years ago. Deceased leave a family of two sons and four daughters—John and Fred, of New Mexico; Mrs. Richmond, of Pennsylvania; Mrs.

route to Goderich, overlooking Huron's inent young men, James E. Reilly, son waters. From London to Goderich, by of Chas. Reilly, proprietor of the Tethis way, is a capital run.

Dundas street, going east, is not popular. From the city to the asylum, as cumseh House, to Dorah E. Bochus, daughter of John Bochus. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Ronan. Waringham."

But there were symptoms of intelliing. After that it improves somewhat At least the cary to the asynth, as mony was performed by Rev. J. Ronan.

Miss Reilly, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, while Frank, also a But there were symptoms of intelligence and malice too under all the While he was raising her from the While Sarnia Observer: Wednesday after-noon Mrs. Alex. Gibson and two children, accompanied by Mrs. H. V. Fairbairn, were out for a drive with Mr. Gibson's horse. While driving down Front street about 4 o'clock, the horse took fright at a passing G. T. R. en ed around the corner at McGibbon' mishap. Mrs. Gibson had her head and was otherwise considerably bruise Charles Leonard, Harry Lamont and Wm. Harris were sentenced at Chaham to seven years each in Kingst penitentiary for the Darrel, Dresde and Eberts burglaries. Leonard ar Lamont last week pleaded guilty five charges of burglary and of carring offensive weapons. Harris we convicted of four charges of burgla and had already pleaded guilty to offensive weapon charge. On each the burglary sentences the men w given seven years in Kingston, and the revolver charge three years, the sentences to run concurrently. A pretty wedding took place Tuesday evening at "Woodview." Chatham, the residence of Hooper King, when Miss Kate Gardiner King was united is marriage to Dr. Alfred Rolls, a for mer Chathamite, but now of New Mexico. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. N. Baker under an old ickory tree, where a few years ago a similar ceremony took place when sister of the bride was married. Th bridesmaid on the present occasion Miss Daisy King, sister of the brid and John Dickson, of Toronto, suppo ed the groom. Little Miss Marguerite King, sister of the bride, and King Kingsmill, of London, nephew of the ride, were maid of honor and page, respectively.

Tired, Nervous, Sleepless. Men and women-how gratefully they write about Hood's Sarsaparilla. Once helpless and discouraged, having lost all faith in medicines, now in good health and "able to do my own work," because Hood's Sarsaparilla has power to enrich and purify the blood and make the weak strong-this is experence of a host of people.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Gentle, reliable, sure.

It is a common but an impure and dangerous motive to seek personal promotion though devotion to a good

Salt Rheum Cured. Gentlemen,—Your Burdock Blood Bit-ters cured me of salt rheum three years ago. It was so bad that I lost my finger nails, and I can truly say that had no return of salt rheum since, MPS JAMES SANDERS.

MUNYON CURE?

That Seems Like a Very Untimely and Absurd Question After

All the Tests, and the Thousands of Absolute and Enquestioned Cures That Have Been Made by Munyon in Canada.

Mr. John Morrison, No. 152 Euclid avenue, Toronto, Canada, says: "For several years I was troubled with a severe form of kidney disease, and for the past year with rheumatism also. After trying a number of other things, and not being benefited, I was induced to take Munyon's Rheuma the former and two bottles of the lat-ter remedies entirely cured me, and I am now as well as ever. I can heart The Methodist people of Mount and am doing so daily to my relative Munyon's Rheumatic Cure seldom g been stationed at Thamesville, to succeeded at Mount Brydges by, and cures in a few days. Price 25c. Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure positively cures all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price 25c. Munyon's Cold Cure prevents p monia and breaks up a cold in a few Munyon's Cough Cure stops coughs operation for appendicitis a week ago. night sweats, allays soreness, and speed-

Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures Munyon's Headache Cure stops head-

Munyon's Female Remedies are Munyon's Catarrh Remedies never eradicates the disease from the system and the Catarrh Tablets-price 25c-cleanse and heal the parts. Munyon's Asthma Remedies relieve in three minutes and cure permanently. Munyon's Vitalizer, a great tonic and grain are saved in the ordinary process of wheat milling. You may loose just that vital part that you need the most, if you fail to ask carefully for the braid that's known so well. Molina Rolled Wheat is so prepared that all of the nourishing parts of the grain are saved. Your grocer sells it, of course. The Tillson Co'y, Ltd., Tilsonburg, Ont.

FILLES SALLES SALES Wilcers in Mouth, Harris Man

Navigation and Railways

Diamond Jubilee National Encampment, G. A. R., SINGLE Glass FARE Good going all trains June 21, all trains Detroit and Return, June 22, returning until June Detroit and Return, 23, 1897. TO ALL STATIONS IN CANADA.

For CANADIAN

WHEELMEN'S ASSOCIATION MEETING.

July 1st

LONDON TO CHATHAM FOR $1.50 Good to go June 30th and July 1st, return until July 5th. Proportionate rates from inger nails, and I can truly say that know of no more valuable medicine in the world than B. B. B. I have off salt rheum since.

16] Dundas street, corner of Richm office open 7 a.m. other stations.
THOS. R. PARKER, city passenger agent

The good things are coming our way thick and fast just now. Our Mr. Butler, who has been in the Eastern markets all week, has advised us of several clever deals for seasonable goods at his own price, and on Saturday and Monday, our usual bargain days, we'll hold a bargain Carnival that will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted here. Saturday and Monday, 19th and 21st.

Another new lot of Sailor Hats, newest goods, at 25c, worth $1. A second lot of Hats, 15c worth 69c. 8,000 yards Silk Ribbons, half price.

> 40 Boxes Summer Flowers, high-class goods, half price. sold for $1 25 in any store in London. Japanese Silk Table Covers, elegant goods, selling at $1. All shades in Chiffons.

Ladies' Handkerchlefs, several special-

Extraordinary value in blouse Silks at 25c, 40c, 50c, 55c and 90c. See them. New lot of Black Silk Moire Bengaline; very fashionable goods.

A magnificent range of Black Silk Brocades, 50c, 75c and $1; worth much more. Black Silk Grenadines, very special, 75c,

$1, $1 50 and $2.

200 pairs Infants' Turn Kid Slippers, tan or black, at 25c, per pair. Jubilee Flags and Tissue Decorations, all colors, new ideas.

Saturday morning to secure a choice.

Jubilee Spoons, 121c, worth 75c. The Ladies' Hats, Dress Muslins and Ribbons will be in great demand at the prices, and you should call early on

Our Table Linens can't be touched this side of the Atlantic. Just fancy, 72-inch

64-inch fine Bleached Double Damask, 45c,

Very fine 68-inch Bleached, satin finish,

60c, worth 90c, and extra fine 72-inch, 75c,

28-inch Linen Toweling, 81c, worth 121c.

Another shipment of Fine Organdie and

SHOE DEPARTMENT .- 200 pairs La-lies' Tan or Ox-Blood Oxfords, $1, worth

200 pairs Men's Bals., medium or pointed Lappet Dress Muslins, beautiful goods, less than maker's price.

toe, 98c, worth $1 50.

$1 50 to $1 75.

Half-Bleached Fine Damask, 43c, worth 60c.

Saturday and Monday Bargains in Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

BASEMENT BARGAINS-Balance of Wall Paper selling at cost to clear. One pound Imperial Blend Tea, black or mixed, and 7 pounds Standard Granulated Sugar

The Harpers will play from 7 to 10 o'clock on Saturday night; an entirely new programme. Everybody come.

Runians & Butler.

The best rest is not inaction, but Navigation and Railways ork, not a change from work; w we can refresh ourselves by takng hold of a labor that we enjoy.

If you fail, do not ask what is wrong with the world, but what is wrong

Some people are constantly troubled with pimples and boils, especially about the face and neck. The best remedy is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels all humors through the proper channels, and so makes the skin become soft, healthy,

Navigation and Railways Trains leave 10:05 a.m., 1:00 and

MICHIGAN CENTRAE Special Round Trip Excursions

Chattanooga, Tenn., AND RETURN, July 15, 16, 17 and 18,

Nashville, Tenn., Ju 9 15 to Oct 31,

All Stations in Canada Single Fare.

July 1,

San Francisco, Cal.. Y. P. S. C. E. Excursion, Special Low Rates

DOMINION (Elder, Dempster) LINES. Montreal to Bristol (Avonmouth) Direct. S.S. GERMANIC. July 7

Cold Storage Accommodation provided on all Bristol steamers. For rates of freight and other particulars apply to ELDER, DEMPSTER & CO., Montreal, or R. DAWSON HARLING, 23 Scott Street, Teronto. Telephone 2,845.

DIAMOND JUBILEE EXCURSION ---TO

Tuesday, June 22.

Royal Mail Steamships, Liverpool, Call-ing at Moville.

.....July 31 Carthaginian ... RATES OF PASSAGE. First cabin Derry and Liverpool, $52 50 and upwards; return $105 and upwards. Second cabin, Liverpool, Derry, London, $34. Steerage, Liverpool, Derry, Belfast, Glasgow, London, everything found, $22 50 and $23 50. everything found, $22 50 and $23 50.
Glasgow-New York service — From New York: Mongolian, June 25. State of Nebraska, return $90 York: Mongolian, June 25. State of Nebraska, July 9. Cabin, $45 to $65; return $90 to $123 50; second cabin, $35; return, $64 13; steerage, $23 50. AGENTS—E. De la Hooke, "Clock" corner Richmond and Dundas, Thos. R. Parker, southwest corner Richmond and Dundas streets, and F. B. Clarke, 416 Richmond street.

TUESDAY, JUNE 22, 1897.

Return tickets will be issued between al. Single First-Class Fare Good going Monday, June 21, and Tuesday, June 22, 1897, returning leaving destination not later than Wednesday, June 23, 1897.

Full information on application to E. DK LA HOOKE, City Agent, "Clock" corner, Richmond and Dundas streets, or G. T. Re

S.S. BRITANNIC, June 23 S.S. MAJESTIC, June 30

E. De La Hooke,

Sole Agent for London. "Clock" Corner.