Hood's Pills

Local Market.

London, Thursday, Aug. 30. Excepting in those places where fruit was being sold, there was an air of apathy about the market square today. The attendance of farmers was not small, bu the number of purchasers was limited. In the offerings nearly all the staples were fairly well represented, with the exception of dressed meats, which were quite scarce. There was also a marked scarcity of butter, and a corresponding upward tendency in prices. There was not a great deal of fruit sold from farmers' wagons, but the dealers offered it in great quantities. The prices were varied. Peaches were selling all the way from 50 to 75 cents. The largest quantities sold for 60 and 65 cents. Plums brought anything between 50 and 70 cents. Some excellent fruit sold for 55 and 65 cents. Pears were slow at 30 cents per basket. Melons were plentiful at 50 and 60 cents per dozen. Prices of vegetables, poultry and hides were unchanged.

The supply of oats was good today

The supply of oats was good today, and the price was a little easier again, 70c being the ruling price for new; old brought 90c to 95c. The demand for both was good. Wheat sold at $1 to $1 05 for new and $1 10 for old; receipts were only fair, No other kinds of grain came in, and the prices quoted for them are based latest transactions.

Hay-Receipts were quite steady, and the demand nicely absorbed all that came in; $8 per ton was paid for all good stuff. No straw offered.

Rumor says prices will go lower shortly; the decline to $6 for the best grade in Toronto market is the of this expectation. No little pigs came in. Quotations:

In the struggle for popular rights that will follow the return of the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the ensuing elections, however, Hon. Mr. Mills will have a far more important influence in securing justice for the people of Bothwell, as well as for those of Canada, as a whole, as leader of the government in the second chamber, than would be open to him in the House of Commons, and Bothwell, therefore, loyally spares him; resolving to do the next best thing, send him a coadjutor in the House of Commons in the person of Mayor Gordon, whose candidature he so warmly advocated at the convention. We have not the slightest doubt that the veteran leader's wishes in this regard will be carried out.

PRETTY WEDDING

Was That of Mr. James R. Boyce and Miss Lydia F. Rossiter-It Was Celebrated Last Evening.

One of this summer's prettiest weddings was solemnized at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of Mr. Frederick Rossiter, of Frances street, the bride being his daughter, Miss Lydia Faircloth, and the groom, Mr. James R. Boyce, bookkeeper at Ald. Gerry's planing mills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Harrison, pastor of the Empress Avenue Methodist Church. The bride was charmingly gowned in white French organdy, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Love Rossiter, and her cousin, Miss Ella Robinson, who also were attired in white organdy, and carried white asters. The groom was attended by Mr. J. B. Aikenhead, and his cousin, Mr. Murray Gibson, of Brucefield. During the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Rose Friend. The house was daintily decorated with wild flowers and evergreens. The wedding luncheon was served upon the lawn in a large marquee that was adorned very beautifully. The bride's table was set for 60 covers. The number and beauty of the presents that were received by the young couple testified to their popularity, and to the esteem in which their many friends hold them. Those that the groom received from his employer and fellow-workmen were particularly handsome. The groom's presents to the bridesmaids were beautiful rings, one set with sapphires and diamonds, the other opals and emeralds. This morning Mr. and Mrs. Boyce left for a trip to eastern cities, and when they return they will make their home at No. 158 Wharncliffe road, South London.

STRIKE ENDED

Schedule Signed and C. P. R. Men Return to Work.

Hamilton Laborers' Trouble To Be Settled by Arbitration.

Hamilton, Aug. 30.—There was a general tie-up of city work at Hamilton yesterday as a result of a strike of the laborers at the city quarry. The board of works met in the evening, and decided to arbitrate with the dissatisfied employes.

The Cataract Power Company's workers, who were on strike at Hamilton, have returned to work, both sides having made concessions. Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 29.-The C. P.

R. strike is practically over. The schedule will be signed today, and the men return to work tomorrow. Mr. McConnell, of Peoria, Ill., as arbitrator for the men, and J. A. Aikens, Q.C., for the company.
Toronto, Aug. 29.—Dealers in anthracite coal are very anxiously watching the situation in the Pennsylvania fields, where the employers and workmen are preparing to fight over the men's demands that their organization be recognized. The employers have refused to meet delegates from the men, and a strike is almost inevitable. Detroit, Aug. 30 .- Agent Shea, of the Building Trades Council, has informed the county auditors that the trades unions of Detroit would consent to the last election in 1896 by the marrow majority of 57, and we are quite sure that whereby marble shall be cut in Chiff the honorable cago by union men not affiliated with the trades council, and the work done in Detroit by the regular union men at the union scale. It must, however, be specified by resolution, that this compromise shall not be used by other contractors to evade the requirements that none but union labor is to be employed on the county building.

DOMINION "MINISTER OF LABOR." Ottawa, Aug. 30.-Mr. Mulock's appointment as the minister to take charge of the conciliation act, and all matters arising out of the Labor Bureau, has led to his being called the minister of labor, and as such he was appointed Mr. E. Williams, the wellknown labor man of Hamilton, a special officer to enforce the alien labor law, and also Mr. P. J. Jobbin, inspector of factories, and R. J. Little, both of Quebec, as correspondents of the new Labor Gazette.

Day's Daring Deed

An Errand of Mercy Shows a London

Writing to the Woodstock Sentinel. Pte. Victor Odlum, of that town, one of the returned warriors, has this to say of one of the London boys:

"On the same train on which we arrived came a fourth member of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Joe Day, of B company. Describing him, we might say that he is fair-haired, is a soldier, a moralist, a hero and an Englishman the last but not by any means the least.

"To prove that he is a hero the following story will go a long way. On the mbrning of the 18th of February, at Paardeberg, the Canadians were in the firing line. Capt. Arnold, of A company, was amongst the first wound-Four stretcher-bearers picked him up to carry him to the rear, but about a mile away at the hospital tents. Johnson, of B company, first volunteered, but Day sprang up and was off like a shot.

"Through the storm of bullets, past line after line of soldiers stretched out in extended order, he tore; reached Dr. Fiset, delivered his message, received word in reply that the doctor could not leave his post, and then calmly turned round to walk back through that grim fire to the company which he had left. "A walk of a mile through whizzing bullets cannot be a pleasant thing. Many a British soldier shouted at Joe to lie down but he sang back, 'A close shave, my bonnie boy,' and walked on. Before he reached the firing line he passed Lieut. Ross, who also told him to get under cover. Three rows ahead lay the firing line, and Day doubled up, found himself amongst the Seaforth Highlanders, picked up a dead soldier's rifle and commenced firing. Shortly after he was shot through the right lung-a very dangerous wound.
