

Dyspepsia

Is difficult digestion, due to a weakened condition of the stomach and its inability to properly churn the food; or to unhealthy condition of the gastric juice, too much or too little acid, too much or too little pepsin.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all the distressing symptoms of dyspepsia because it promotes the muscular action of the stomach and intestines, aids nature in the manufacture of her own digestive secretions, which are far better than any artificial pepsin, unlocks the bowels, stimulates the kidneys and tones up their mucous membranes.

So prompt is its effect in many cases that it seems to have almost a magic touch.

Begin to take it NOW.

Suffered Everything.—"I was troubled with dyspepsia, suffered everything but death, could not eat without terrible distress. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I eat heartily and I am well." Mrs. E. B. BROWN, Danbury, Conn.

Eat Three Times a Day.—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of dyspepsia and I never felt better. Can eat three good meals every day." FRED POEHLER, 457 South Penna St., Indianapolis, Ind.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Is sold by all druggists. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

AROUND THE CITY.

From Saturday's Last Edition.

—H. Marshall Graydon and Dr. J. S. Niven have returned from Chicago.

—J. Allison Doreford, baritone soloist, of Detroit, will sing in the Wellington Street Methodist Church tomorrow morning.

—Mr. George C. Gibson's horse, which ran away from Queen's Park yesterday and broke its rider's leg, was caught later in the morning.

—Rev. Dr. Saunders will preach in Dundas Street Methodist Church tomorrow evening, his subject being "A New Song." An appropriate programme of special music will be rendered by the choir.

—Lieut.-Col. Buchanan, who leaves tomorrow for his new post at Toronto, will be given a banquet tonight by his fellow-officers at Winesley Barracks, by whom his departure is very keenly regretted.

—The second performance given by St. John's Athletic Club minstrels at their grange last night, was well attended. The programme, as on the previous occasion, was excellent, and greatly delighted the audience.

—Toronto Globe: Miss Winnifred Johnston, of Fredericton, is staying in town with her grandmother, Mr. J. G. Giles, of Rosedale road. Miss Johnston will be here for about ten days, and is on her way to the meeting of the National Council of Women in London.

ONE HUNDRED AND ONE MILK DEALERS.

Inspector Bell and Assistant Inspector Lutman completed their milk inspection this morning. There are 81 milk wagons peddling in the city, and 20 people who own one or more cows selling milk in the city.

BRIDGE CONTRACT LET.

A special committee of the county council has awarded to Joshua Conn, of St. Marys, the contract for the additional stonework required for Baker's bridge over Dely's Creek, between London and Dorchester townships. The figure for the work is $400.

SENT FORTY-TWO BOOKS.

Census Commissioner Gilson, of the East Middlesex census district, sent his enumerators' books to Ottawa yesterday. They were 42 in number, the largest in the western district, and Mr. Gilson was delighted with the splendid way in which the work was done.

FUNERAL OF DAVID THOMAS.

The funeral of the late David Thomas, of Ashin street took place yesterday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Holmes. The pall-bearers were: H. Paisley, S. Pawcett, James Burrows, W. Bruce, W. C. Robertson and H. Kilbourne.

CLOSING SOCIABLE.

Nearly 200 young people were the guests of Messrs. Dayton & McCormick at the Palace Dancing Academy last night. It was the closing sociable of the season, and the cool evening and excellent music provided by the Academy Orchestra, helped to make it the most enjoyable of the series. The season just closed has been a decidedly successful one, and it will be learned with pleasure that Messrs. Dayton & McCormick open their private dancing parlors at the Springbank Pavilion week after next.

MORRIS TUBE SHOOT.

Over 25 men took part in the last of A. Company's Morris tube shoots yesterday. The score was very high and Pte. Rickard succeeded in winning the silver spoon by one point. Distance, 700 yards; 5 shots. The highest scores follow:

Pte. Rickard	5	5	4	5	21
Pte. Tait	5	4	4	5	23
Pte. Hayes	5	5	4	4	22
Corp. Sutherland	5	5	4	4	21
Bergt. Robson	4	4	4	4	21
Pte. McGuire	4	4	4	4	20
Sergt. Zerkine	4	4	4	4	20
Major Hayes	4	4	4	4	20
Pte. Johnson	4	3	5	5	20
Pte. Latta	5	3	4	3	19

When the Baby Cries at Night! There is a cause for it. Perhaps it is gas on the stomach, may be cramps or diarrhoea. Don't lose sleep, anticipate such contingencies by always keeping handy a bottle of Fessenden's Nervine. Just a few drops in water given fearfully, then rub the little one's stomach with a small piece of flannel, and perfect rest is assured for the night for both mother and baby. You may not need Nervine often, but when you do need it you need it badly. Get a 50c bottle today.

LAXATIVE PILLS regulate the bowels, cure constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, and all affections of the organs of digestion. Price 25 cents. All druggists.

SITUATION IN CHINA!

Ministers Leaving Peking to Spend Summer in the Hills.

The Country in a Deplorable Condition—French Loot Returned—The Matter of Indemnity Discussed.

Peking, May 3.—A majority of the foreign ministers will leave Peking next week for the western hills, to spend the summer, taking with them military guards for their protection, their intention being to come to Peking for the purpose of holding meetings and attending to necessary business.

IN A DEPLORABLE CONDITION. Missionary Owen, of the London Mission, says all the reports received by his mission from the provinces show the country to be in a deplorable state. Discontent and intense hatred of foreigners prevail, and worse conditions than existed before the siege are threatened. The departure of the troops, he predicts, will be signalled by a massacre of the native Christians. "Those unable to recognize the facts, and reporting otherwise to their governments," says Mr. Owen, "are as willfully blind as before."

LOOT RETURNED. New York, May 4.—Some 50 cases of Gen. Fret's loot from Chinese, including the imperial bronze lions confiscated by the French Government, have reached Peking, addressed to the French minister, says a Herald dispatch. The returned loot was paraded through the streets and stored at headquarters. This preliminary to the formal act of restitution caused an immense sensation among the Chinese, but they entertain small hope that the example of France will be followed.

CONJOINT GOVERNMENT.

London, May 4.—Dr. Morrison, wiring to the Times from Peking Thursday, says:

"M. De Giers has addressed a letter to the financial committee of the ministers of the powers urging the economical advantages of giving to China a conjoint government guarantee to enable her to raise a loan from which to pay the indemnity. He argues that in order to pay $25,000,000 China will only need to issue a loan of $75,000,000 at 4 or 5 per cent, without a guarantee she would be compelled to borrow $24,000,000 at 7 per cent. He asserts that, if the total indemnity is reduced to $40,000,000, as the United States suggests, China, with an international guarantee would only need a loan issue of $43,000,000. He suggests that the loan can be secured on the customs or by an increase of the import duties."

RUSSIA'S POLICY.

"The letter is instructive, as showing Russia's unwillingness to interfere with the imperial revenue, such as salt, or with special imperial privileges, such as the Manchurian pensions and the grain tribute. On the other hand it shows Russia's willingness to throw the burden upon the foreign import trade, in which she has practically no interest. The letter further shows Russia's apparent readiness to join Great Britain and the United States in a reduction of the indemnity in return for a conjoint government."

Deaths of a Day.

Lewis E. Waterman, inventor of the fountain pen, is dead, aged 64. It was while employed in the insurance business that he made the invention that led to his fortune. He lived in Brooklyn.

Mr. Stanley Leighton, who had represented the Conservatives in the House of Commons, since 1881, died at 6:10 this (Saturday) morning. He was born in 1827.

W. J. Poolner, vice-president and general manager of the Great Northern Express Company, died suddenly of apoplexy at 2 o'clock this morning, at St. Paul, Minn.

Dorothy A. Wait, Watertown's (N. Y.) veteran hardware merchant, died today, aged 75 years.

AN L.L.D. FOR MCKINLEY.

Boston, Mass., May 4.—A male vote taken among the alumni of Harvard University on the question of conferring the degree of Doctor of Laws upon President McKinley shows 78 per cent in favor of the step.

THE SMALLPOX CENTERS.

Toronto, May 4.—The provincial health inspector, who returned yesterday from an inspection of the smallpox cases on the Brant county Indian reserve, says that matters are progressing favorably, the eight cases being mild and properly quarantined. Readings from Sudbury are also favorable, the number in the camp being reduced to 33 cases and 11 suspects.

DIED IN A BADGER'S HOLE.

Terrible Fate of a Five-Year-Old Girl Who Lost Her Way on the Plains.

Prosser, Washington, May 4.—With her hands and mouth stained from the grass and flowers she had eaten in her desperate hunger and with her features drawn in the dying agony of thirst, the body of the five-year-old daughter of W. B. Mathews, formerly county commissioner, who lost her way on the Horse Heaven Plains nearly a week ago, was found by a hunter. The child, in her agony, had crawled into a badger hole on the prairie and died.

From the appearance of the body the child had been dead about 36 hours, and for five days and nights she had been without food and water. Barefooted when she left home, the little girl, in her wanderings, had bruised and cut her feet, and had gathered the tough prairie grass and would around them in her agony. Beside her in the badger hole lay a bunch of flowers and grass which she had been eating.

TO PREVENT IS BETTER THAN TO REPENT.—A little medicine in the shape of the wonderful pellets which are known as Fessenden's Vegetable Pills, administered at the proper time and with directions adhered to often prevent a serious attack of colic and save money which would go to the doctor. In all irregularities of the digestive organs they are an invaluable corrector and by cleansing the blood they clear the skin of imperfections.

CATARH OF THE HEAD.

Cured by Trask's Magnetic Ointment, or your money back. 25 and 40 cents. At McCallum & Co's.

THE CRISIS IN GERMANY.

Changes in Emperor William's Staff of Advisers.

Business on the London Stock Exchange Much Excited—Stern Measures in St. Petersburg to Secure a Quiet Sunday.

STILL ANOTHER COMET.

Cape Town, May 3.—Another comet was discovered at 6 o'clock this evening. It was traveling in a north-westerly direction.

PLAGUE RIOTS IN INDIA.

Calcutta, May 3.—Three hundred troops have been dispatched to Sialkot district to suppress plague riots. Twenty-five villages are in revolt in the district, and several hospital assistants have been killed or wounded.

ACTION OF BRITISH MINERS.

London, May 4.—The Northumberland delegates, at a meeting at Newcastle, unanimously decided to support the strike. The Durham miners agreed to abide by the decision of the National Conference.

The Lancashire and Cheshire miners took up a similar attitude, while those of Yorkshire voted against the strike, the feeling being expressed that if the men agreed to a shut-down of the pits, the owners should continue paying their wages.

WILL GOBBLE THE CANALS, TOO.

New York, May 4.—A London dispatch to the World says that the London Daily Express asserts that control of the European canals is to be a part of Pierpont Morgan's plans, so as to secure the delivery of steel into the heart of Europe at the smallest possible expense.

40,000 ITALIANS ON THE WAY.

Rome, May 4.—Forty thousand Italian emigrants, according to the Fanfulla, are expected to leave for the United States this month.

STOCK EXCHANGE SENSITIVE.

London, May 4.—Business on the stock exchange opened today very excited and nervous, reflecting yesterday's reaction in New York. The reaction here was more general and of greater magnitude than any heretofore since the boom commenced. Attention was practically centered in Americans, some of which declined so heavily during the rush for realization that they dropped several dollars below parity, and buyers were difficult to find. Subsequently prices somewhat steadied, with practically no business doing, a wait for the market to open.

WANT A QUIET SUNDAY.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—Many male students, a number of female students, workmen, Liberal leaders, lawyers, and literateurs, were arrested and 500 houses were searched here Thursday night and it is probable that throughout Russia similar tactics were pursued. The object of the movement is to prevent demonstrations on Sunday next, which is regarded as Labor Day. The advisability of the step is considered by some to be questionable, as it may easily provoke trouble.

THE GERMAN CRISIS.

Berlin, May 4.—In well-informed quarters the representative of the Associated Press hears the sensational news that Emperor William wants Count Zedlitz Trutshchler to become Prussian minister of the interior. The count is now chief president of Hesse-Lassau in Cassel, and is a great favorite with the emperor. The Conservatives and the Centerists. His being summoned here is generally interpreted as a sign that reactionism will reign in the new cabinet. Count Zedlitz is considered certain, however, everything that might offend the Center and the Conservative parties, and no change in the system will be inaugurated since the government needs both the Conservatives and Centerists in the reichstag.

The Associated Press hears further that Baron von Rheinbaben, Prussian minister of the interior, will succeed Dr. von Miquel as finance minister.

CABLE NOTES.

Up to April, 27,319 people, including 41 Europeans, have died of bubonic plague in South Africa.

It is announced that King Leopold of Belgium is to visit the work of electric railways in the kingdom, requiring an enormous capital. Projected routes are from Brussels to Antwerp, Brussels to Ostend, and Brussels to the coast.

Emperor Francis Joseph has written approval letters to Count Goluchowski, president of the imperial council; Dr. von Koberger, the Austrian premier, and President Kolomanik von Szell, of the Hungarian Cabinet, summoning the delegations to meet May 20.

LOUIS' CRADLE.

Paris, May 4.—Ex-Empress Eugenie has presented the municipality of Paris with the cradle of Prince Louis Napoleon, who was killed in the Zulu war. The cradle is a superb work of art. The body is made of rosewood, and is decorated with enameled in antique silver and chased bronze. The cradle is of silver and a statue holds the infant crown in gold and bronze over the pillow, which is of white satin, embroidered with the letter "N."

The cradle was originally a gift from the municipality of Paris to Empress Eugenie, and is very costly. It has been previously kept at Chiselhurst where the ex-empress resided before she moved to Farnborough.

ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX IN TORONTO.

Toronto, May 4.—The seventh case of smallpox traceable to the Cleveland man who visited here while suffering from the disease, is reported. Miss Langdon, daughter of a farmer of Etobicoke, is the victim.

THURSDAY'S STORMS.

St. Thomas, May 4.—During the violent storm of rain and electricity on Thursday night the new residence of Orlando Fordyce, Sparta road, con. 3, Yarmouth, was struck by lightning. The electric current struck the bed-post wherein Mr. and Mrs. Fordyce slept. Luckily, they escaped injury.

A very severe rain, wind and hail storm passed over the section of country traversed by the M. C. R. St. Clair branch Thursday afternoon. Trees were blown down, fences leveled, and at Mooretown, Coramua and Kinbais the glass in windows was broken by the hail, which was the size of pigeons' eggs, and was driven by the wind with great force. Hardly a window pane in the place mentioned escaped being shattered.

Nothing looks more ugly than to see a person whose hands are covered over with warts. Why have these disgusting growths on your person, when a sure remedy of all warts, corns, etc., can be found in Mollaway's Corn Cure?

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY

Of a Rich Vein of Copper in Brunel Town ship, Muskoka.

Toronto, May 4.—It is reported this morning that Messrs. Paget, Hare and other gentlemen of Huntsville, who are operating a government diamond drill in Brunel township, Muskoka, on some claims of theirs, have discovered a fairly rich vein, 8 feet wide, of copper ore in pyrites. The discovery is regarded as an important one.

COAL "TO BURN."

Montreal, May 4.—H. M. Whitney, president of the Dominion Coal Company, who was here Thursday, says his company has 100 square miles of coal lands, which contain enough coal to supply the entire world for a thousand years.

LARGE INCREASE IN REVENUE.

Toronto, May 4.—The great activity in the timber industries of the Province is reflected in the returns of crown land revenue for the four months ending April 30. The total for that period this year was $458,237.65, compared with $397,467.39 over the same period of 1900.

OTTAWA WITHOUT MONEY.

Ottawa, Ont., May 4.—Ottawa is tied up financially, and until the taxes for the year come in, the city council devises some scheme, there will be no money in the treasury to pay any of the current expenses. The city borrowed $450,000 this year, giving the crown an security. Of this sum $170,000 was spent and $280,000 was borrowed last year's borrowing. The mayor and city solicitor say the arrears should be paid, and therefore the city is without money.

TOOK TWO DOSES.

Toronto, May 4.—Lying on the grass almost unconscious, a young man giving the name of J. Joseph was found by the surgeon on Boyd's ambulance yesterday afternoon. At St. Mary's Hospital it was found that he was suffering from the effects of a dose of tincture of opium.

Wednesday night, Joseph Jack was found to be suffering from laudanum poisoning. Jack claimed to have taken the tincture of opium to cure a headache. He gave the same address and is thought to be the same man.

DOCTORS HAVE A GRIEVANCE.

Toronto, May 4.—A deputation of physicians from various parts of the province, headed by Dr. Sangster, and including Dr. Hillier, Dr. H. J. Thorne, of Woodbridge; Bingham, of Peterboro; Richardson, Pickering, and others, waited on the Hon. Mr. Davies yesterday morning to protest against the tax of 32 per cent head yearly levied by the medical council. The deputation said that 700 doctors had been suspended for not paying this fee, for which they got no benefit at all, and which was used to keep the medical rooms in this city in nice condition and maintain the secretary. They asked that the power to collect this fee under penalty of suspension be withdrawn. At present over 600 doctors in Ontario, having refused to continue paying the fee, are in peril of legal proceedings.

SOLDIER AND PUBLISHER, TOO.

Strange Experiences of a Printer in the Cuban War.

Fred J. McCutcheon, of Port Huron, Mich., who is at present in the city, has had some stirring experiences. Mr. McCutcheon is soldier, printer, publisher and editor all in one, and has seen most of the different sides of life than most men. He was a member of Company F, 33rd Michigan Volunteer Infantry, the famous fighting regiment which lost so heavily in the terrible fight at Santiago during the Spanish-American war. Mr. McCutcheon escaped with a slight flesh wound. He described the various incidents of the campaign for a number of American papers, besides shooting Spaniards in the interval.

After the surrender of Santiago, Mr. McCutcheon obtained permission from Gen. Shafter for the seven printers of his company to enter the city and take possession of an office and publish a newspaper before the proprietor arrived back from the mountains. After a chapel meeting had been called, it was decided to christen the infant "Company F Enterprise," which resulted in the production of the first paper published and printed in the English language on the Island of Cuba.

All day long visitors in a continual stream went in to examine the automobile that the company has here. It is a demonstrating carriage that has already run over 3,000 miles. It is extremely tasteful, both in appearance and action, and surpasses others in lightness and economy of motive power. In manufacturing these carriages none but the very best materials are used, and the construction is under the supervision of the best skilled mechanics. On a trip it can carry enough water for 40 miles and enough gasoline for 80 miles. The carriage is suitable for either city or country use and when the water in the boiler is perfectly cold steam can be raised and the carriage in motion in six minutes. The Canadian Steam Carriage Company are confident that they have practically reached perfection in horseless carriages.

Eight Eyes

And glowing complexion are unfailing evidence of good health. By gently regulating the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys, Celery King keeps the system in fine condition, and thus renders the eyes bright and complexion clear. More sensible than cosmetics, don't you think?

Housekeepers, Attention!

AT THIS SEASON EVERY ONE REQUIRES

NEW CURTAINS

and our stock is the most complete in the city.

Sash Curtains Our range is ahead of anything we have ever shown before, and comprises Brussels Nets, Swiss Applique, Fish Nets, Panel Laces and Door Panels.

We are sole agents for.....

Bobbinet Curtains, Bobbinet Sash Nets and Bobbinet Lace Bed Sets.

These goods are very dainty, stylish and artistic.

No housekeeper can afford to be without

Gilray's Curtain Stretchers, Tarbox Sham Holders, Carpet Sweepers, Linoleum Reviver, and Electric Cleanser for cleaning carpets and restoring the color.

A. SCREATION & CO.

THREE PERSONS

DROWNED WITH

ASSISTANCE NEAR

Disabled Tug Went Down While Being Towed to Port.

Owen Sound, Ont., May 4.—The steamer Germanic, of the Northern Navigation Company, which arrived here last evening on her way down trip, brings a pathetic story of the drowning of three persons before the eyes of the crew and passengers, between Cockburn Island and Gore Bay.

At 6 p.m. on Thursday the steamer Germanic came up to the tug Tecumseh, with her engines disabled, and apparently taking in water over the rail with every dip of the sea. There were on board the tug Capt. Wylie, and his two sisters: a Mrs. Burns, Engineer Coleman, and a man named Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards cut loose and allowed to sink.

After towing for three-quarters of an hour, the engineer of the tug shouted that they were sinking. The Germanic was immediately stopped and the sinking tug was brought alongside of the Germanic. Lines were thrown, and one of the women and Crawford and the engineer were hauled aboard. Meantime the tug had moved a short distance away with the three remaining people aboard, apparently trying to do something to the towline, which was still attached to the tug. Suddenly the tug lurched and sank, going down almost immediately, leaving the captain, his sister and Burns struggling in the icy cold water, and before the boat which was lowered from the Germanic could reach them they had disappeared.

Life belts were thrown, and everything possible was done by Capt. Foote, of the Germanic, to rescue them. After staying around the spot for some time the Germanic headed for Gore Bay. The towline, which was still fastened to the sunken tug, brought that vessel above water, but she was shortly afterwards