The railway committee has passed clause thirteen, which outlines the hostile interests will make their last stand when the struggle is transferred to the House. For instance, the Trans-Canada group build the prairie section and accept a generous subsidy for it, but he does doubt its intention of going on with the section east of Winnipeg. The G. T. P. could leave the western grain at Lake Superior, at Buffalo, at North Bay, anywhere rather than at Quebec. It is quite clear to him that G. T. P. would continue to favor Portland. Mr. Casgrain's doubts are hanced by the fact that the Trans-Canada charter covers much of that territory which he says is "impracti-
