LOCAL MARKETS. London, Monday, March 6.

The farmers continue to rush their hay in; the supply of this product of the farm was the feature of the market, as there were 35 loads on the stand; sales were brisk, despite the large offerings, as quite a few of the citizens are laying in an a few of the citizens are laying in an Ma extra supply, in anticipation of the break-ing up of the roads. Several loads of oats sold at $1 14 per

A couple of loads of straw went at $ A carload of live hogs were purchased by Mr. McIntyre at $5 40 per cwt for selects; half a dozen heavy fat sows sold

STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stock broker, Bank of Commedce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today: New York, March 6 .- Noon .- Our market responded but poorly to the strength in London, and the difference between the two markets soon became sufficiently large to make arbitrage transactions very profitable. It is estimated that foreign houses bought 10,000 Steel, common, and 8,000 Union Pacific, besides some Reading and Canadian Pacific. They were, however, sellers of Erie. Union Pacific was distinctly heavy, losing over a point during the first 25 minutes. Generally, the market has been very irregular, the Gould stocks and Mexican Central and Reading showing rather clear signs of manipulation while United States Steel, preferred, and A. C. P. have been neglected. A large wire house is credited with having distributed buying orders in Reading. As to Mexican Central, an operator, who was interested in it some time ago, seems to be intrusted with the manipulation. Outside business has fallen off, and commission houses consider the market to have a and each succeeding Tuesday afternoon, at 4:30 for six weeks in the Sim- deville Theater, and several performcoe street school, on Browning. -Mr. J. B. Smallman, of Smallman & Ingram, and the Misses Smallman leave on March 9 for a trip through the Mediterranean. They will be absent till about the 1st of May. THE LORNES' LINE-UP.

In their game with Ingersoll tonight the Lornes will be unable to present their regular line-up, as Balfour and Carrothers are on the sick list. The line-up will be as follows: Goal, Pearson; point, Jackson; cover, Knott; right, Kennedy; left, Turner; center, Finnegan; rover, Smith.

INTERESTING MUSICAL EVENT. One of the most interesting musical be the appearance at the Auditorium tomorrow night of the famous Kneisel instrumental quartette, with Mr. Cyril Dwight-Edwards assisting. There no doubt that Londoners who love high-class music will do their best to be present. The Kneisels, with their wonderful music, are new to most Londoners, and their performance will doubtless prove a rare treat. Dwight-Edwards needs no introduc-tion to Londoners, as he has captivated all audiences before whom he two years ago. His programme to-

AUTO CAUSES ACCIDENT. season occurred yesterday afternoon on Dundas street in front of the city hotel. Mr. Lashbrook, the proprietor Bennett replied that they must comply of the hotel, and Mrs. Lashbrook, were with his request or give up the enstarting out for a drive, when a big red auto came along and frightened the horse and caused it to bolt. Mrs. Lashbrook was thrown out on her usual shoulder, but luckily was not seriously injured. Mr. Lashbrook was not hurt. The horse took quite a long run be-fore it was stopped, and the cutter was badly damaged.

CHURCH. An electric light service has been installed in the First Congregational Church building as a free gift from one of the members, Mrs. W. H. Davis. This generous act on the part Local Chapter Trying to Raise Liveryman's Son Victimized by of Mrs. Davis is much appreciated by the congregation, who noted a great improvement in the lighting last evening. The lamps are well distributed and fitted with prism shades which reflect the light very effectively. Brighter days dawned on the First Church with Jubilee movement, and now it "brighter nights" as well.

He was bout six feet in height, of decided English style, and accent, wore good clothes, and had a large band of crape on one arm. He was of a pleasant manner, and gave out the story that he was a C. P. R. surveyor. On Saturday he went to a leading livery stable and said he wished to hire horses frequently and asked for the rates. He was given a horse. He came in on Saturday night, and again on Sunday morning, and asking for another carriage, he commenced a conversation with the proprietor's son, and before going away proffered a check for $12 on the Bank of Montreal in payment. The check, which was signed by Arthur Smith, and made payable to one Morrison, was ac cepted, and the liveryman's son gave the man $10 in change. This morning the check was taken to the bank, and was refused. Not willing to cause any trouble, if there was a mistake, the young man went to the Tecumsel House, and called for the person who gave him the check.
