Two vagrants were sent down for a month each by the P. M. yesterday, and two drunks fined.

In the event of Customs Officer Wm. Baby, of Windsor, recovering from his present illness he will be placed on the supernumerary list.

The Dorchester Presbyterians held a social at the residence of Mr. J. J. Shields the other night which proved a success, financially and otherwise.

Mr. P. J. Burke, late Secretary of the Water Commissioners, removed the fish from the aquarium in the office Wednesday, and entertained his friends to a meal off them Wednesday night.

Never within the remembrance of the oldest Windsorite have there been as many ducks on the river as there is at present.

R. B. WALKER APPOINTED

Secretary of the Water Commission, and Messrs. Burke and Evans Discharged.

A special meeting of the Water Commission was held in the Board's office yesterday morning, when the by-law appointing Mr. R. B. Walker Secretary, and Mr. John P. J. Burke and Fred. Evans, the two Secretaries, were notified that their services were no longer required.

Mr. Essey made some statements reflecting on the character of Mr. Burke, when that gentleman attempted to reply, but was squelched by the Chairman, who instructed Inspector Platt to go for a policeman.

Mr. Davis moved that Mr. Burke be given a hearing in order to defend his character, as it was a common usage so to do when any official's personal reputation was impugned, but he did not secure a second.

Mr. Davis also moved that the Treasurer's office be moved downstairs for the convenience of the citizens, but this was laid over by consent.

Mr. Tracy was instructed to make a complete inventory of everything in the office and report to the Board.

Messrs. Burke and Evans shortly after left Mr. R. B. Walker in undisputed possession of the office.

SACKVILLE'S SUCCESSOR.

The Premier of Canada Said to Have Been Offered the Post.

Ottawa, Ont., February 27.—(Special to the American newspapers.)—There is a report in circulation that Sir John A. Macdonald, Premier of Canada, has been offered the post of British Ambassador to the United States.

FIRE FLASHES.

Wheatley, Ont., Feb. 26.—This morning about a quarter past twelve fire broke out in this village, starting at Henry Dring's stable. The next caught was a feed stable, belonging to A. Merritt, and occupied by W. Coulson, and a few minutes after the building owned by T. Underwood, and occupied by Mr. Crawford, hardware merchant, was in flames.

The remains of Mr. Wemp, who was killed in the railway accident near Paris, were taken from the late residence, 130 Horton street, at six o'clock last evening to a hearse, where the funeral takes place to-day at three o'clock.

The dilapidated condition of the Windsor Town Hall is seen in the repairs now done in that ancient structure.

New York, Feb. 27.—An officer of the steamer Victoria, from San Domingo, states it was announced there at the beginning of the month that Hippolyte, the leader of the Haytian insurgents, had been assassinated by one of his own men, who received $10,000 for the deed.

The six-days' go-as-you-please race came to an end at San Francisco Wednesday night at 10 o'clock and was won by Frank Hart (colored), with 526 miles. E. C. Moore was second, 525 miles and two laps. It is claimed the gate receipts amounted to $26,000, of which Hart will get 60 per cent and Moore 40 per cent.

In a letter to the Secretary of State, Secretary Fairchild says that if the Canadian Government approves the action of the shipping master at St. John, N. B., in not permitting the shipment of seamen upon American vessels to be made before our consular officers, he will require that shipments of seamen upon British vessels in American ports shall be made before United States shipping commissioners, and not before foreign consular officers, as has been the practice heretofore.

THE WASHINGTON EMBASSY

Sir Charles Tupper's Eligibility Discussed by a Cornell Professor.

What Sir Charles Has Done for Canada—A Man of Recognized Ability Did the Work for the Dominion.

New York, February 28.—A correspondent of the Times at Ithaca yesterday interviewed Dr. J. G. Schurman, professor of philosophy in Cornell University, concerning the vacancy at the head of the British Embassy to Washington.

Dr. Schurman is a Canadian, and is thoroughly versed in the politics of the Dominion. He said, putting circumstances together, I am inclined to predict the appointment of Sir Charles Tupper, the present High Commissioner for Canada in London, as Minister to Washington.

It is an open secret that Sir Charles was the head and front of the late British Commission of Fisheries. It was he and not Joseph Chamberlain who asserted Canadian rights and secured all the concessions for Canada that were got in the Fisheries Treaty.

His services were rewarded by a Baronetcy, an honor no Canadian statesman had hitherto enjoyed, and which in my opinion would be an obstacle to a political career in such a democratic country as Canada.

I think it indicates that he is not likely to return to Canadian politics. Sir Charles is a man of great ability and is so recognized by Lord Salisbury and the British Government.

He has made them feel the value of Canada as a part of the Empire to such an extent that the colonial policy has been revolutionized in the last few years.

Formerly the British Government has been willing to let the colonies go, but now that the Canada Pacific Railroad gives them direct communication around the world, connecting all parts of the Empire on their own territory, Canada is as valuable to the Empire as Ireland or Scotland.

THE YUKON DISTRICT.

Facts Gleaned from Mr. Ogilvie's Report—The Alaska Boundary—Rich Gold Fields.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—(Special.)—In the annual report of the Department of the Interior for 1888, just issued, very interesting information appears concerning the Yukon District and the Alaska boundary question.

Mr. Wm. Ogilvie had been sent in charge of a survey party to explore the purpose of ascertaining the position of the 141st degree of longitude, the international boundary at that point.

His observations have not yet been completely reduced, but an approximate calculation shows that the boundary is nearly ninety miles below the point where it is marked on the United States maps.

This is of great importance, as the line passes through the best gold bearing districts yet discovered in the country.

In March, 1888, Mr. Ogilvie left for the mouth of the Mackenzie River, following a route never travelled before by any white man, and probably by no Indian.

He ascended the Tatounda, a river flowing from the north into the Yukon, and then crossing a mountain range he discovered the true sources of the Porcupine River.

From this he went to Fort McPherson, crossed the Rocky Mountains to the Mackenzie, where he returned south, thus accomplishing a journey of 2,500 miles through a country hitherto very little known.

The Yukon District appears to have a much greater value than was previously supposed. It would seem that for gold the best paying streams, so far as discovered, are in Canadian territory.

About three hundred miners were in the country in the summer of 1887, but it is difficult to say what amount of gold they have taken out, as they are all wage hewers, that is, they are paid by the day, and not by the ounce.

They are all wage hewers, that is, they are paid by the day, and not by the ounce. Taking this as an average, they cannot have made less than $500 each, or $150,000 altogether, obtained with the crudest and most primitive appliances.

This result shows what may be expected as soon as communication with the interior becomes more easy and the importation of improved mining machinery is possible.

Drift coal was found at various places, indicating the existence of seams further up. Salmon abounds in the rivers, but after ascending so far from the sea it is not fit to become an article of export, although good enough for food for Indians.

The fur trade is confined to a few points. There are immense districts teeming with game and fur-bearing animals of all kinds where Indians never go. Parties of miners' supplies are procured in the country. The lowest estimate of this trade for 1887 is $600,000.

Mr. Ogilvie's report will be an important public document, and will be published and distributed as soon as it can be prepared and printed. Already there are numerous inquiries being made concerning the probable date of its publication, which indicate the interest with which the expedition and its results are generally regarded.

Sudden Death of a Bank Clerk.

Galt, Ont., Feb. 28.—Ferdinand Marani, aged about 19 years, employed in the Bank of Commerce here as a junior clerk, died very suddenly at the Imperial Hotel about 9 o'clock this morning.

He had only been here about six weeks, having prior to that time worked in the Bank of Commerce branches at Paris, Seaford and other places. Deceased attended the Bachelors' Ball last night, and appeared in his usual health. He went to bed at the hotel about 3 o'clock this morning, got up and dressed for work between 8 and 9, and was found dead by the chambermaid when she entered the room. Dr. Varlow was called, and gave it as his opinion that death was caused by apoplexy. The deceased has no relatives in this country. His father, a wealthy Italian, and mother, a Scotch lady, reside in Scotland.

Killed Her Former Lover.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—John J. Dougherty, assistant cashier of the American Express Company, was shot and killed by a woman calling herself Clara J. Dougherty. John Dougherty was a Canadian Irishman, and the woman hailed from Louisville, Ky.

They have been living together as man and wife at 430 Wabasha street. He put her out of the house three days ago, and yesterday she got intoxicated and, meeting him at Fifth and Roberts' streets, shot him through the head. The woman is locked up.

CLEVELAND SKIPS.

The President of a New York Seed Company Missing—$150,000 is the Amount Named.

New York, February 28.—Archie B. Cleveland, President and organizer of the A. B. Cleveland Company (limited) wholesale dealers in seeds at No. 4 Cortland street, with branches at Cape Vincent, N. Y.; Picton, Ont., and London, Eng., has been missing three weeks.

The matter has been kept quiet. He went away ostensibly on business, it is said, and is believed to be either in Canada or England. It is reported that Cleveland appropriated to his own use money and notes of the company, having obtained on notes discounted at various banks $26,000.

It is also reported that he discontinued some of the company's recitals. As near as can be ascertained collected about $40,000 of the company's money. Officers of the company deny, however, that the amount is anywhere near so large. Cleveland is also said to have obtained loans from friends of sums varying from $5,000 to $50,000. The total that he secured is placed as high as $150,000.

Speculations in stocks, which were attended with heavy losses, are said to have caused Cleveland's troubles. He is even said to have hypothecated his shares in the company. The company is said to be but slightly affected by Cleveland's acts.

U. S. HOUSE AND SENATE.

Protecting the Alaska Salmon Fishing Interests.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27.—The Senate Bill for the protection of the salmon fisheries in Alaska came up, and Mr. Dunn offered an amendment directing the President to cause one or more U. S. vessels to cruise in Behring Sea and other Alaskan waters, and seize all vessels found to be unlawfully engaged in seal hunting.

Mr. Dunn explained that the object of the amendment was to enforce existing laws. Heretofore the enforcement of the law had been relaxed so that a number of persons had concluded the Government did not propose to enforce the law, and to-day 150 vessels were being fitted to go up Behring Sea, and would cover the waters with unlawful seal hunters.

The amendment was adopted and the Bill passed. Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—The House amendment to the Senate Bill in regard to the salmon fisheries of Alaska, extending its operation to Behring Sea, having been presented, Mr. Edmunds said the amendment raised such a very important and difficult question that he felt bound to move its reference to Committee on Foreign Relations. So ordered.
